Item 5 Past Contracts, Transactions, Negotiations and Agreements

(a) Transactions. Many of the directors and executive officers of First Farmers and their associates, which include corporations, partnerships and other organizations in which they are officers or partners or in which they and their immediate families have at least a 5% interest, are customers of First Farmers’ wholly-owned subsidiary, First Farmers and Merchants Bank, a Tennessee state-chartered bank (the “Bank”). Since January 1, 2014, the Bank made loans in the ordinary course of business to certain of the directors and executive officers of First Farmers and their associates, all of which were on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with persons unaffiliated with First Farmers and did not involve more than the normal risk of collectability or present other unfavorable features. Loans to directors and executive officers of First Farmers are subject to limitations contained in the Federal Reserve Act the principal effect of which is to require that extensions of credit by the Bank to executive officers and directors and their associates satisfy the foregoing standards. As of December 31, 2015, all of such loans aggregated $4.3 million, which was approximately 4% of First Farmers’ Tier I capital at such date. First Farmers expects the Bank to continue to enter into such transactions, or transactions on a similar basis, with the directors and executive officers of First Farmers and the Bank and their associates in the future.
