INFORMATION STATEMENT PURSUANT TO SECTION 14C
OF THE SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

This information statement is being mailed on or about May 7, 2006 to the holders of record at the close of business on April 1, 2006 of the shares of common stock, par value $0.0001 per share (the "Shares"), of Idea Sports Entertainment Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"). You are receiving this information statement in connection with a proposed amendment (the "Proposed Amendment") to the Certificate of Incorporation of the Company (the "Certificate of Incorporation") that would change: 1) the name of the Company to Healthsport, Inc.; 2) provide for 1 for 200 reverse stock split of the Company's issued and outstanding shares; and 3) otherwise to amend and restate the Company's certificate of incorporation. These were approved by the Company's board of directors on March 31, 2006.

INFORMATION STATEMENT

GENERAL

Edgar Filing: Idea Sports Entertainment Group, Inc. - Form PRE 14C

The Company's current Articles of Incorporation provide for an authorized capitalization consisting of 500,000,000 shares of common stock, $.0001 par value per share and 2,000,000 shares of preferred stock, $2.75 par value per share. As of March 31, 2006, there were 231,398,982 shares of common stock outstanding and no outstanding preferred shares..

1. REASONS FOR THE NAME CHANGE

In the judgment of the Board of Directors, the change of Idea's corporate name is desirable in view of its decision to focus its primary attention to the development of its electrolyte replacement strip which was acquired in November, 2004. It is the Company's belief that the revenue potential from the electrolyte strip will be far greater than the other projects owned by the Company and that since the Company has decided to focus its resources in the sports nutrition arena that the Corporate Name Amendment will result in the Company having a name which more accurately reflects its core business and the focus of its operations.

2. REASONS FOR THE REVERSE SPLIT

The reverse split of one new share for each 200 shares outstanding will result in a reduction of the number of issued and outstanding shares of the Company from 231,398,982 to approximately 1,156,995 shares. However, no fractional shares will be created as a result of the reverse split. Accordingly, the number of shares owned by any shareholder who would otherwise receive a fractional share will be rounded up to the nearest whole number.

The purpose of the reverse split is to reduce the number of outstanding shares in an effort to increase the market value of the remaining outstanding shares. In approving the reverse split, the board of directors considered that the Company's common stock may not appeal to brokerage firms that are reluctant to recommend lower priced securities to their clients. Investors may also be dissuaded from purchasing lower priced stocks because the brokerage commissions, as a percentage of the total transaction, tend to be higher for such stocks. Moreover, the analysts at many brokerage firms do not monitor the trading activity or otherwise provide coverage of lower priced stocks. The Board of Directors also believes that most investment funds are reluctant to invest in lower priced stocks.

The Board of Directors proposed the reverse split as one method to attract investors, negotiate with creditors and locate business opportunities in the Company. The Company believes that the reverse split may improve the price level of the Company's common stock and that this higher share price could help generate additional interest in the Company.

However, the effect of the reverse split upon the market price for the Company's Common Stock cannot be predicted, and the history of similar stock split combinations for companies in like circumstances is varied. There can be no assurance that the market price per share of the Company's Common Stock after the reverse split will rise in proportion to the reduction in the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding resulting from the reverse split. The market price of the Company's Common Stock may also be based on its performance and other factors, some of which may be unrelated to the number of shares outstanding.

POTENTIAL RISKS OF THE REVERSE SPLIT

Edgar Filing: Idea Sports Entertainment Group, Inc. - Form PRE 14C

There can be no assurance that the bid price of the Company's common stock will continue at a level in proportion to the reduction in the number of outstanding shares resulting from the reverse split, that the reverse split will result in a per share price that will increase its ability to attract employees and other service providers or that the market price of the post-split common stock can be maintained. The market price of the Company's common stock will also be based on its financial performance, market condition, the market perception of its future prospects and the Company's industry as a whole, as well as other factors, many of which are unrelated to the number of shares outstanding. If the market price of the Company's Common Stock declines after the reverse split, the percentage decline as an absolute number and as a percentage of the Company's overall capitalization may be greater than would occur in the absence of a reverse split.

POTENTIAL EFFECTS OF THE REVERSE SPLIT

General. Pursuant to the reverse split, each 200 shares of the Company's Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effectiveness of the reverse split, will become one share of Common Stock after consummation of the reverse split.

Accounting Matters. The reverse split will not affect the par value of the Company's common stock. As a result, on the effective date of the reverse split, the stated par value capital on the Company's balance sheet attributable to Common Stock would be reduced to 1/200 of its present amount, and the additional paid-in capital account shall be credited with the amount by which the stated capital is reduced. The per share net income or loss and net book value per share will be increased because there will be fewer shares.

Effect on Authorized and Outstanding Shares. There are 231,398,982 shares of common stock issued and outstanding. As a result of the reverse split, the number of shares of capital stock issued and outstanding (as well as the number of shares of common stock underlying any options, warrants, convertible debt or other derivative securities) will be reduced to the number of shares of capital stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effectiveness of the reverse split, divided by 200.

With the exception of the number of shares issued and outstanding, the rights and preferences of the shares of capital stock prior and subsequent to the reverse split will remain the same. It is not anticipated that the Company's financial condition, the percentage ownership of management, the number of shareholders, or any aspect of the Company's business would materially change, solely as a result of the reverse split.

The reverse split will be effectuated simultaneously for all of the Company's Common Stock and the exchange ratio will be the same for all shares of the Company's Common Stock. The reverse split will affect all of our shareholders uniformly and will not affect any shareholder's percentage ownership interests in the Company or proportionate voting power, except to the extent that the reverse split results in any shareholder's percentage ownership interests in the Company or proportionate voting power, except to the extent that the reverse split results in any shareholders owning a fractional share. See "Fractional Shares" below. The reverse split will not alter the respective voting rights and other rights of shareholders.

The Company will continue to be subject to the periodic reporting requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"). The Company's Common Stock is currently registered under Section 12(g) of the Exchange Act and as a result, is subject to periodic reporting and other requirements. The proposed reverse split will not affect the registration of the Company's Common Stock under the Exchange Act. The reverse split is not intended as, and will not have the effect of, a "going private transaction" covered by Rule 13e-3 under the Exchange Act.

Increase of Shares of All Classes of Capital Stock Available for Future Issuance. As a result of the reverse split, there will be a reduction in the number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding and an associated increase in the number of authorized shares which would be unissued and available for future issuance after the reverse split. The increase in available shares could be used for any proper corporate purpose approved by the Board of Directors including, among other purposes, future financing transactions.

EFFECTIVENESS OF THE REVERSE SPLIT

The reverse split will become effective upon the filing with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware of the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation (attached hereto as Exhibit "A"). It is expected that such filing will take place on or about May 7, 2006, or the date that is 20 calendar days after the mailing of this Information Statement.

The following discussion summarizing material federal income tax consequences of the reverse split is based on the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), the applicable Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, judicial authority and current administrative rulings and practices in effect on the date this Information Statement was first mailed to shareholders. This discussion does not discuss consequences that may apply to special classes of taxpayers (e.g., non-resident aliens, broker-dealers, or insurance companies). Stockholders should consult their own tax advisors to determine the particular consequences to them.

The receipt of the common stock following the effective date of the reverse split, solely in exchange for the common stock held prior to the reverse split, will not generally result in a recognition of gain or loss to the shareholders. Although the issue is not free from doubt, additional shares received in lieu of fractional shares, including shares received as a result of the rounding up of fractional ownership, should be treated in the same manner. The adjusted tax basis of a shareholder in the common stock received after the reverse split will be the same as the adjusted tax basis of the common stock held prior to the reverse split exchanged therefor, and the holding period of the common stock received after the reverse split will include the holding period of the common stock held prior to the reverse split exchanged therefor.

No gain or loss will be recognized by the Company as a result of the reverse split. The Company's views regarding the tax consequences of the reverse split are not binding upon the Internal Revenue Service or the courts, and there can be no assurance that the Internal Revenue Service or the courts would accept the positions expressed above.

THIS SUMMARY IS NOT INTENDED AS TAX ADVICE TO ANY PARTICULAR PERSON. IN PARTICULAR, AND WITHOUT LIMITING THE FOREGOING, THIS SUMMARY ASSUMES THAT THE SHARES OF COMMON STOCK ARE HELD AS "CAPITAL ASSETS" AS DEFINED IN THE CODE, AND DOES NOT CONSIDER THE FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES TO THE COMPANY'S SHAREHOLDERS IN LIGHT OF THEIR INDIVIDUAL INVESTMENT CIRCUMSTANCES OR TO HOLDERS WHO MAY BE SUBJECT TO SPECIAL TREATMENT UNDER THE FEDERAL INCOME TAX LAWS (SUCH AS DEALERS IN SECURITIES, INSURANCE COMPANIES, FOREIGN INDIVIDUALS AND ENTITIES, FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS AND TAX EXEMPT ENTITIES). IN ADDITION, THIS SUMMARY DOES

NOT ADDRESS ANY CONSEQUENCES OF THE REVERSE SPLIT UNDER ANY STATE, LOCAL OR FOREIGN TAX LAWS. THE STATE AND LOCAL TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE REVERS SPLIT MAY VARY AS TO EACH STOCKHOLDER DEPENDING ON THE STATE IN WHICH SUCH STOCKHOLDER RESIDES. AS A RESULT, IT IS THE RESPONSIBILITY OF EACH SHAREHOLDER TO OBTAIN AND RELY ON ADVICE FROM HIS, HER OR ITS TAX ADVISOR AS TO, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, THE FOLLOWING: (A) THE EFFECT ON HIS, HER OR ITS TAX SITUATION OF THE REVERSE SPLIT, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, THE APPLICATION AND EFFECT OF STATE, LOCAL AND FOREIGN INCOME AND OTHER TAX LAWS; (B) THE EFFECT OF POSSIBLE FUTURE LEGISLATION OR REGULATIONS; AND (C) THE REPORTING OF INFORMATION REQUIRED IN CONNECTION WITH THE REVERSE SPLIT ON HIS, HER OR ITS OWN TAX RETURNS. IT WILL BE THE RESPONSIBILITY OF EACH SHAREHOLDER TO PREPARE AND FILE ALL APPROPRIATE FEDERAL, STATE AND LOCAL TAX RETURNS.

3. APPROVAL OF PROPOSED AMENDMENT. Under the Delaware General Corporation Law, the Proposed Amendments must be approved in writing by the holders of at least a majority of the voting stock of the Company. The persons listed in paragraph 5(a) below represent 52.33% of the Company's outstanding Shares, and have consented in writing to the Proposed Amendment. The Proposed Amendments, therefore, have been approved by the stockholders of the Company, and, effective May 7, 2006, the name of the Company will be changed to Healthsport, Inc., and the 1 for 200 reverse split will be effectuated on the Company's outstanding common stock. Because the Proposed Amendments already have been approved, you are not required to take any action at this time; however, at your option, you may submit a written consent to the Proposed Amendments. This information statement is your notice that the name change and reverse stock split have been approved; you will receive no further notice when the change becomes effective.

4. SHARE CERTIFICATES. Following the name change and reverse stock split, the Share certificates you now hold will continue to be valid. In the future, new Share certificates will contain a legend noting the change in name or will be issued bearing the new name and will reflect the reverse split, but this in no way will affect the validity of your current Share certificates.

5. OUTSTANDING VOTING SECURITIES. At the close of business on March 31, 2006, there were 231,398,982 Shares outstanding. The Shares constitute the only voting securities of the Company. Each holder of the Shares is entitled to cast one vote for each Share held at any meeting of shareholders.
