Item 3.03. Material Modification to Rights of Security Holders.

On June 3, 2008, Acacia Research Corporation (“Acacia”) filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware an Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation (the “Restated Certificate”). Acacia’s Board of Directors previously adopted, subject to stockholder approval, resolutions approving the Restated Certificate and the Restated Certificate was approved by the holders of a majority of Acacia’s issued and outstanding shares of capital stock at Acacia’s Annual Meeting of Stockholders held on May 20, 2008. The proposal to approve the Restated Certificate was discussed in Acacia’s definitive proxy statement filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on April 21, 2008.

Prior to filing the Restated Certificate, Acacia’s Certificate of Incorporation provided for two classes of common stock, Acacia Research-Acacia Technologies common stock (“AR-Acacia Technologies stock”) and Acacia Research-CombiMatrix common stock (“AR-CombiMatrix stock”), even though only AR-Acacia Technologies stock was outstanding. The Restated Certificate eliminated all references to AR-CombiMatrix stock including the elimination of dividend, distribution, conversion, redemption, voting, and liquidation rights of AR-CombiMatrix stock. In addition, under the Restated Certificate, the name of AR-Acacia Technologies stock was changed to “common stock” and such class of stock became the only class of common stock. Additionally, under the Restated Certificate, AR-Acacia Technologies stock is no longer subject to conversion to AR-CombiMatrix stock or redemption to effect a split off because these terms were unique to the tracking stock that has been eliminated in the Restated Certificate. Because AR-Acacia Technologies stock is now the only existing class of common stock, the Restated Certificate also eliminated the equation necessary to calculate the voting rights of AR-Acacia Technologies stock and provides that each share of common stock will be entitled to one vote. Furthermore, under the Restated Certificate, in the event of any liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of Acacia, the holders of shares of Acacia’s common stock, subject to the rights of the holders of preferred stock and creditors, are entitled to receive a portion of the remaining assets and funds of Acacia in proportion to the number of shares of common stock held by them. Previously, under the original Certificate of Incorporation, in the event of Acacia’s liquidation, dissolution or winding up, the holders of AR-Acacia Technologies stock were entitled to receive an amount that was based primarily on the ratio of the average market value of a share of AR-Acacia Technologies stock to the average market value of a share of AR-CombiMatrix stock.

The foregoing description of the Restated Certificate does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Restated Certificate, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 3 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.
