PRESS RELEASE

Date 3 November 2003
Number 012

SALE OF BUHRMANN'S PAPER MERCHANTING DIVISION COMPLETED

Buhrmann completed the sale of its Paper Merchanting Division to PaperlinX Limited. After this change in the composition of the Group, Buhrmann continues as a focused leader in business services and distribution, predominantly serving the office products markets.

As previously announced, the division was sold for an amount of EUR 706 million on a debt-free and cash-free basis before completion adjustments and deferred consideration. The net proceeds have been used to substantially reduce Buhrmann's net interest-bearing debt. The company is applying about EUR 600 million of the proceeds to pay down outstanding bank loans under the Credit Facility and the Securitised Notes related to Paper Merchanting.

The operational result of the Paper Merchanting Division will be included in Buhrmann's consolidated accounts for this year up to 31 October 2003. As indicated before, the transaction together with one-off charges related to taxes and the debt reduction, are estimated to result in a book loss of EUR 150 - 170 million. This loss will be included as an exceptional item in the fourth quarter results for 2003.

In addition, Buhrmann may receive a deferred consideration of up to EUR 26 million, dependent upon the operating result (EBITA) of the Paper Merchanting Division over 2003. This deferred consideration, if any, would be payable in July 2004.

Profile of Buhrmann

As an international business services and distribution group, Buhrmann is the world's major supplier of office products for the business market and a leading distributor of graphic equipment in Europe. With its Office Products Divisions operating under the name of Corporate Express, Buhrmann is market leader in the business market for office products and computer supplies in North America and Australia. In Europe Corporate Express ranks second. By combining modern Internet technology with intelligent logistic processes Buhrmann is able to distribute a wide range of products for the office and graphic markets in a highly efficient way. Sales via the internet account for a rapidly growing proportion of total sales. The group has its head office in Amsterdam and its continued operations generate annual sales of around EUR 7 billion with over 18,000 employees in 18 countries.

Safe Harbour Statement

Statements included in this press release, which are not historical facts, are forward-looking statements made pursuant to the safe harbour provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such forward-looking statements are made based upon management's expectations and beliefs concerning future events impacting Buhrmann and therefore involve a number of uncertainties and risks, including, but not limited to industry conditions, changes in product supply, pricing and customer demand, competition, risks in integrating new businesses, currency fluctuations and the other risks described from time to time in the Company's filings with the US Securities and Exchange Commission, including the Company's Annual Report on Form 20-F filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on June 27, 2003. As a result, the actual results of operations or financial conditions of the Company could differ materially from those expressed or implied in such forward-looking statements.
