Item 4.01 Changes In Registrant s Certifying Accountant.

Effective <r>January 13, 2005</r> Idaho General Mines, Inc. engaged the accounting firm of Williams and Webster, P. S. as its new independent public accountants for its audit engagement starting with the 2004 annual audit, which will be completed in the first quarter of 2005. In addition on, January 13, 2005 <r> the Company dismissed its current public audit firm,</r> Decoria, Maichel and Teague P. S. to be better able to meet its anticipated rapid and long term growth needs. <r> The Company s Audit Committee approved the dismissal and engaged the new public audit firm, Williams and Webster, P.S. </r>

<r>During the past two years the principal accountant s report on the financial statements has not contained any adverse opinion, disclaimer or modification as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles.

<r>There were no disagreements with the former accountant on any matter of accounting principles or practices or financial statement disclosures. The former accountant has not advised the Company that (1) internal controls necessary to d evelop financial statements did not exist;(2) information had come to the attention of the former accountant which made the accountant unwilling to rely upon management s representations of its unwillingness to be associated with the financial statements prepared by management; Or (3) the scope of the audit should be expanded significantly or that information had come to the attention of the accountant that the accountant concluded will, or if further investigated might, materially impact the fairness or reliability of a previously issued audit report or the underlying financial statements, or the financial statements issued or to be issued covering the fiscal period(s) subsequent to the date of the most recent audited financial statements (including information that might preclude the issuance of an unqualified report).

The company has not consulted with Williams and Webster, P. S. during the last fiscal year ended December 31, 2003 or during the subsequent interim period January 1, 2004 through and including January 13, 2005 on either the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed any type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company s consolidated financial statements.
