Growth in Retail Financing Brings New Subsidiaries
for Across America Real Estate.

DENVER, COLORADO, December 20, 2005 - Across America Real Estate Corp. (AARD.OB), a company which provides 100% financing for rapid retail real estate development, announced today that it has formed two wholly owned subsidiaries: Across America Real Estate Exchange, Inc. and Across America Financial Services, Inc., to enhance its business strategy and to facilitate developer partner transactions.

"Across America Real Estate Exchange was created to assist in the disposition of our properties and third party properties through tenant in common transactions or through Section 1031 tax free exchanges." said Mr. Alex Lagerborg President and CEO of Across America Real Estate. "With Across America Real Estate Exchange we plan on assisting our developer partners by providing a platform to sell our developed retail properties while also creating a marketplace for outside professionals to buy and sell Tenant In Commons (TIC) and other real estate properties,

Mr. Lagerborg continued. "Across America Financial Services will concentrate on commercial real estate loan brokerage and seek to provide our customers and others with loan capabilities to enhance the purchase of single pad or small box retail development. With Across America Financial Services we plan to assist in offering potential buyers the financing capability to purchase our completed retail developments. We believe that the growth of the retail market is outstanding right now and we can better serve this market through lending to make purchasing of our properties more viable."

"Both of AARD's new companies reflect the tremendous growth in the retail sector." said Lagerborg "We look forward to these two subsidiaries assisting us in providing our developer partners with a new suite of services to make transactions with us easy to do ."
