Crompton Corporation and Great Lakes Chemical Corporation announced today that once their merger is complete, the new company will be known as "Chemtura" (pronounced chem-CHOOOR-a) Corporation.

As a Delaware corporation, Crompton must abide with the Delaware law requirement that changes to its certificate of incorporation, including a name change, must be approved by a majority of shareholders entitled to vote. Crompton shareholders will vote on whether or not to approve the Chemtura name at the same time that shareholders of both companies vote on the merger.

A copy of a press release announcing the name of the new corporation, effective when the merger is complete, is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated by reference herein.
