Deutsche Telekom's new Board of Management is now complete

Konrad F. Reiss will join the Board of Management as the member responsible for T-Systems; he will also lead T-Systems International GmbH.

Deutsche Telekom AG completes the restructuring of its Board of Management. In the future, Konrad F. Reiss will be the Board member responsible for T-Systems. The executive committee of Deutsche Telekom's Supervisory Board has decided on the nomination after consulting with the executive committee of T-Systems International GmbH's Supervisory Board. Reiss will also become chairman of the Board of Management of T-Systems International; he will succeed Christian A. Hufnagl.

Before the founding of BlueChipsBusiness Laboratories, Reiss was the CEO of debis Systemhaus and was a member of the Board of Management of debis AG. Before that, the 44-year-old held various managerial positions at Cap Gemini. He started his career in marketing and management consulting.

The Supervisory Boards of Deutsche Telekom AG and of T-Systems International GmbH are expected to deal with the appointments in January.
