This Proxy Statement and applicable form of proxy, as well as, the Annual Report of the Company for the year ended December 31, 2005, including financial statements, are first being sent to the shareholders of common stock of the Company on or about March 13, 2006.

REVOCABILITY OF PROXY

If your proxy is executed and returned, it will be voted as you direct. If no direction is provided, the proxy will be voted for the election of Directors and the proxies will use their discretion with respect to voting on any other matters presented for vote. Additionally, if your proxy is executed and returned, it will be voted to approve the minutes of the last Annual Meeting. This vote will not amount to a ratification of the action taken at that meeting nor will it indicate approval or disapproval of that action. Your proxy may be revoked prior to the Annual Meeting by notice in writing, to the Corporate Secretary at its principal office at any time, or by advising the Corporate Secretary at the Annual Meeting that you wish to revoke your proxy and vote your shares in person. Your attendance at the Annual Meeting will not constitute automatic revocation of the proxy.

PERSONS MAKING THE SOLICITATION

The Company's Board of Directors is soliciting the proxy. The expense of soliciting your proxy will be borne entirely by the Company and no other person or persons will bear such costs either directly or indirectly. Proxies will be solicited principally by mail, but may also be solicited by personal interview, telephone and email by Directors, Officers and employees of the Company who will receive no additional compensation.

OUTSTANDING SHARES AND VOTING RIGHTS

The close of business on March 6, 2006 has been fixed as the record date for determining the shareholders of common stock of the Company entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. Abstentions will be included in vote totals and, as such, will have the same effect on proposals other than the election of Directors as a negative vote. Broker non-votes (i.e., the submission of a proxy by a broker or nominee specifically indicating the lack of discretionary authority to vote on the matter), if any, will not be included in vote totals and, as such, will have no effect on any proposal. Report on Executive Compensation

General

The purpose of this report is to provide insight into the practice and philosophy of the Board of Directors in establishing the compensation for the Executive Officers of the Company and to elaborate on the relationship between corporate performance and executive compensation.

The Committee reviewed the Stifel Nicolaus Regional Banking Review and compared and evaluated Company performance ratios with approximately sixty other banks located throughout the Mid-west and Southwest. The Committee focused its review on long-term financial performance, primarily a five year average, which the committee considers to be more appropriate. In addition, the committee reviewed specific branch profitability and results from continuing operations. Qualitative factors, such as leadership, teamwork, commitment and community involvement were also considered. Based on a review of all of this information, the Committee established the Company's Executive Officers compensation levels.

In the final analysis, compensation adjustments are based on a broad spectrum of factors rather than one or two specific performance goals. The Compensation Committee recognizes the importance of aligning the shareholders' interest and executive compensation.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation

The Compensation Committee, when reviewing the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer, evaluates the factors mentioned above including initiation and implementation of successful business strategies, maintenance of an effective management team as well as various personal qualities including leadership, commitment, and professional and community standing.

After reviewing the Company's financial results in the context of comparison to corporate peers, as well as his individual contributions, the Compensation Committee concluded that the Chief Executive Officer, B. G. Hartley, managed effectively with devotion and commitment to the strategic plans established by the Company. During 2005 Southside Bank achieved all-time highs in several significant areas: deposits exceeded $1.0 billion for the first time, loans reached $680 million, the thirty-first banking center was opened and trust assets increased 12.5% to $464 million. Finally, the Compensation Committee believes that Mr. Hartley has set the foundation for the continued success of the Company by leading an experienced executive staff that has displayed skill in guiding the Company through an ever-changing financial services market in the Company's region.

DEFINED BENEFIT RETIREMENT PLAN

The Company has a retirement plan for eligible employees of the Company and Southside Bank that is designed to comply with the requirements of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, the entire cost of which is funded by Company contributions. Compensation covered by the plan includes gross income less income realized from the exercise of stock options.

The following table shows the anticipated annual benefit, based on assumptions and may vary from the actual amounts shown, computed on a ten-year certain and life basis, payable upon the normal retirement as of December 31, 2005, of a vested Executive Officer of the Company at age 65 after 15, 20, 25, 30, 35 or 40 years of credited service at specified annual compensation levels.

NOTE: Benefits under the employer's qualified plan, Retirement Plan for Subsidiaries of Southside Bancshares, Inc., are subject to the maximum annual benefit limitation during 2006 under Section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) of $175,000. In addition, compensation which can be considered by the plan is limited during 2006 to $220,000, as provided by Section 401(a)(17) of the IRC. These IRC limitations are subject to annual cost-of-living adjustments.

On November 3, 2005, the Board of Directors of the Company approved amendments to the Plan which affected future participation in the plan and reduced the accrual of future benefits.

The amendments to the Plan approved include the following:

Entrance into the Plan by new employees was frozen effective December 31, 2005;

Benefit accruals for current participants were reduced in future periods. The reduction was effective January 1, 2006 for all individuals who became Plan participants prior to January 1, 2005 and effective January 31, 2006 for all employees hired in 2005 and eligible to participate in the Plan. The current benefit accrual of 2% for the first 20 years of service, 1% for the next 15 years and a formula for the benefit accruals for each service year over 35 years has been changed to reduce future benefit accruals for current participants. The future benefit accrual for current participants will be amended to 90% of 1% for the first 35 years of service and the formula for benefit accruals for each year of service over 35 years will be reduced by 10%.

The Company has a nonfunded supplemental retirement plan (the Restoration Plan) for its employees whose benefits under the principal retirement plan are reduced because of compensation deferral elections or limitations under federal tax laws.

The anticipated annual benefit table presented in next years proxy statement will reflect the newly approved reduced benefit.

The employer has adopted a non-qualified plan which pays to the employee any amounts restricted by the IRC. Hence, the benefits shown represent the total amount the employee would receive from both plans and are not subject to any deduction for Social Security benefits or other offset amounts. Mr. Hartley received benefits of $152,035 from the Defined Benefit Plan and $53,978 from the Restoration Plan in 2005.

The years of credited service under the plan as of December 31, 2005 for each person named in the current compensation table are as follows: Hartley - 45 years (39 years at age 70); Dawson - 31 years (38 years at age 65); Story - 26 years (37 years at age 65) and Gibson - 21 years (37 years at age 65).

Named Executive Officers, Directors and greater than ten percent (10%) shareholders are required by SEC regulations to furnish the Company with copies of all forms they file pursuant to Section 16(a). Based solely upon a review of the copies of the forms furnished to the Company, or written representations from certain reporting persons that no Form 5's were required, the Company believes that during fiscal 2005 all Section 16(a) filing requirements were complied with, except as set forth below:
