SECTION 1 REGISTRANT'S BUSINESS AND OPERATIONS

Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 31, 2006, FedEx Corporation's wholly owned subsidiary Federal Express Corporation (FedEx Express) entered into a new seven-year transportation agreement with the United States Postal Service (the USPS) under which FedEx Express will continue to provide domestic air transportation services to the USPS, including for its First-Class, Priority and Express Mail. The agreement is expected to generate approximately $8 billion in revenue for FedEx Express over its term, which begins on September 25, 2006, and ends on September 30, 2013. The agreement will replace the existing seven-year transportation agreement dated January 10, 2001, between FedEx Express and the USPS. A copy of the new agreement will be filed as an exhibit to FedEx's quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ending August 31, 2006.

Certain statements in this report, including (but not limited to) the above statement regarding expected revenues from the new agreement, are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 with respect to future events and financial performance. These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ materially from those contemplated (expressed or implied) by such forward-looking statements, because of, among other things, the risks and uncertainties you can find in our press releases and other SEC filings, including the risk factors identified under the heading Risk Factors in Management's Discussion and Analysis of Results of Operations and Financial Condition in our most recent annual report on Form 10-K, as updated by our quarterly reports on Form 10-Q.

SECTION 8 OTHER EVENTS

Item 8.01. Other Events.

We are filing this Current Report on Form 8-K for the purpose of, among other things, incorporating the contents of this report in the Registration Statement on Form S-3 (the Registration Statement) that we intend to file on August 2, 2006.

This report contains the consolidated balance sheets of FedEx Corporation as of May 31, 2006 and 2005 and the related consolidated statements of income, changes in stockholders' investment and comprehensive income, and cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended May 31, 2006. These financial statements include an additional footnote with condensed consolidating financial information in accordance with Rule 3-10(f) of Regulation S-X promulgated by the SEC in order for the subsidiary guarantors that will be additional registrants on the Registration Statement to continue to be exempt from Securities Exchange Act of 1934 reporting pursuant to Rule 12h-5 under the Exchange Act (other than FedEx Express, which is currently a reporting company under the Exchange Act). Otherwise, these financial statements are identical to the financial statements appearing in FedEx Corporation's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended May 31, 2006, as amended by the Form 10-K/A (Amendment No. 1) filed on August 2, 2006. As indicated in their reports included therein, the financial statements included in this report have been audited by Ernst & Young LLP.
