Senior Secured Convertible Notes

On January 15, 2008, Answers Corporation (the Company) entered into a securities purchase agreement with an institutional investor (the Convertible Note Holder), for the purchase and sale of $8.5 million aggregate principal amount of the Company's senior secured convertible notes due December 31, 2010 (the Convertible Notes). The closing of the Convertible Notes financing is subject to certain conditions as described in the Securities Purchase Agreement. A copy of the Securities Purchase Agreement is attached to this report as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

The Convertible Notes will bear interest initially at a rate of 8%. The interest rate will be reduced to 7% when the Company's shareholders have approved an increase in the number of authorized shares of common stock (the Shareholder Approval) and the Convertible Notes and the shares of common stock underlying the Convertible Notes have been registered with the SEC. Interest on the Convertible Notes will be payable quarterly in cash. Upon any event of default as described in the Convertible Notes, the interest rate will be increased to 7% above the then applicable interest rate, up to a maximum rate of 24% until such event of default has been cured.

If the Company is unable to obtain the Shareholder Approval prior to May 30, 2008 (June 30, 2008 in the event that the Company's proxy statement for the shareholder meeting convened to obtain the Shareholder Approval is reviewed by the SEC), the interest rate on the Convertible Notes will increase from 8% to 12% and will continue to increase by an additional 2% for every 2 month period elapsed during which the Shareholder Approval has not been obtained, up to a maximum of 24%.

In connection with the Convertible Notes financing, the Company granted to the Convertible Note Holder a first priority security interest in all of its assets and intellectual property. A copy of the form of Pledge and Security Agreement governing the first priority security interest is attached to this report as Exhibit 10.2 and is incorporated herein by reference.

The Convertible Notes will be convertible into the Company's common stock at a price per share equal to the lesser of $9.00 and 110% of the price at which the Company's common stock is sold in the Follow-on Offering. The conversion price will be subject to weighted average and other customary anti-dilution adjustments and protections.

The Company will have the right to redeem the Convertible Notes within 30 days of the closing of the Convertible Notes financing for cash in the amount of 105% of the principal amount outstanding plus accrued but unpaid interest.

Beginning one year after the closing of the Convertible Notes financing, if certain conditions have been fulfilled, the Company will have the right to require the conversion of the Convertible Notes into the Company's common stock. The Convertible Note Holder will have the right to require the Company to redeem the Convertible Notes upon certain events as further described in the Convertible Notes. The Convertible Notes will contain customary default provision and customary affirmative and negative covenants.

Edgar Filing: Answers CORP - Form 8-K

If the Company's purchase agreement with Lexico is terminated, or if the securities purchase agreement with the Convertible Note Holder is terminated, or if the closing of the Convertible Notes financing has not occurred by March 1, 2008, the Company will be required to pay the Convertible Note Holder a termination fee of $425,000 in the form of Convertible Notes that will be convertible into shares of the Company's common stock at a conversion price equal to the lesser of $9.00 and 110% of the weighted average price of the Company's common stock for the ten trading days following the announcement that the purchase agreement with Lexico has been terminated. Alternatively, if the transaction with Lexico is consummated but the closing of the Convertible Notes offering has not occurred, the Company will be required to pay the Convertible Note Holder a cash termination fee of $365,000.

A copy of the form of Convertible Note is attached to this report as Exhibit 10.3 and is incorporated herein by reference.

In connection with the Convertible Notes financing, the Company entered into a registration rights agreement with the Convertible Note Holder pursuant to which the Company agreed to file a registration statement with the SEC registering the Convertible Notes and the common stock underlying the Convertible Notes. A copy of the Registration Rights Agreement is attached to this report as Exhibit 10.4 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Concurrently with the Convertible Notes financing, the Company, Lexico, Brian Kariger, as trustee of the Brian Patrick Kariger Charitable Remainder Unitrust Trust dated April 9, 2007, Brian Kariger, as trustee of the Brian Patrick Kariger Revocable Trust dated February 9, 2007, and Daniel Fierro entered into an Amended and Restated Purchase Agreement (the Amended and Restated Purchase Agreement), amending and restating that certain purchase agreement executed by the same parties on July 13, 2007 and subsequently amended on July 31, 2007 and November 12, 2007. A copy of the Amended and Restated Purchase Agreement is attached to this report as Exhibit 10.5 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Pursuant to the Amended and Restated Purchase Agreement, at the Company's election, $10 million of the purchase price, the purpose of which is to secure the indemnification obligations of the Lexico members under the agreement as well as for any post-closing purchase price adjustments, may be placed in escrow or held back, in its entirety or in part, for a period of 24 months from the closing date of the acquisition (the Holdback). Any Holdback amount will accrue interest at a rate of 7% per annum to be paid at maturity. In addition, if the Company elects to hold back all or a portion of the Holdback, the Company's obligation to pay the Holdback and any accrued interest to the members of Lexico will be secured by a security interest in all of the Company's assets and intellectual property. This security interest will be subordinated to the security interest granted to the Convertible Note Holder, pursuant to a Subordination Agreement. A copy of the form of Subordination Agreement is attached to this report as Exhibit 10.6 and is incorporated herein by reference. A copy of the form of Seller Pledge and Security Agreement governing the Lexico members' security interest is attached to this report as Exhibit 10.7 and is incorporated herein by reference.
