Staples Acquisition purchased the Shares as part of Staples' proposed acquisition of the Issuer.

On May 19, 2008, Staples Acquisition offered to purchase all of the Issuer's (i) Shares, (ii) American depositary shares, each representing one Share (ADS), (iii) depositary receipts of preference shares A with a nominal value of EUR 1.20 each and (iv) 2% subordinated convertible bonds due 2010, as set out in the Offer Memorandum dated May 19, 2008, as amended by the Press Release, dated June 3, 2008, Staples Increases its Offer for Corporate Express to EUR 9.15 per Share and Secures Commitments from Shareholders to Tender their Shares (the Offer Memorandum) (this offer is defined as the Initial Offer).

On June 10, 2008, Staples and Staples Acquisition entered into a Merger Protocol dated as of June 9, 2008 with the Issuer (the Merger Protocol). If Staples declares the Offer unconditional, Staples intends to terminate the listing of ordinary shares and preference shares on Euronext Amsterdam and the listing of ADSs on the New York Stock Exchange as soon as possible thereafter. In addition, Staples may initiate any of the procedures described in the following paragraph, each of which could result in termination of the listing of the securities (including securities not tendered in the Offer). Staples also intends to cause the Issuer to terminate the registration of the ADSs under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), which may result in the termination of the Issuer's reporting obligations under the Exchange Act.

Staples expects to acquire all of the issued and outstanding securities of the Issuer and to align the Issuer with the holding and financing structure of Staples and its affiliates by any legally permitted means. Such means may include, but will not necessarily be limited to, a squeeze-out, a legal merger, a contribution of assets to the Issuer in exchange for new shares issued, or a sale of assets by the Issuer.
