Disclosure regarding forward-looking statements

The materials filed as exhibits to this Form 6-K contain statements that constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of section 21E of the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The forward-looking statements include statements regarding our intent, belief or current expectations with respect to our business and operations, market conditions and results of operations and financial condition, including, without limitation, indicative drivers, forecasted economic indicators and performance metric outcomes.

We use words such as may, expect, indicative, intend, forecast, likely, estimate, anticipate, believe, on track or similar words forward-looking statements. These statements reflect our current views with respect to future events and are subject to certain risks, uncertainties and assumptions. Should one or more of the risks or uncertainties materialize, or should underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results may vary materially from the expectations described in these materials. Factors that may impact on the forward-looking statements made include those described in the sections entitled Risk factors, Competition and Risk management in Westpac's 2007 Annual Report on Form 20-F filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on November 8, 2007, in the section entitled Principal risks and uncertainties in Westpac's Interim Financial Report for the half year ended March 31, 2008 filed on Form 6-K with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on May 15, 2008 and in the section entitled Risk factors in Westpac's Form 6-K filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on June 19, 2008. When relying on forward-looking statements to make decisions with respect to us, investors and others should carefully consider such factors and other uncertainties and events. We are under no obligation, and do not intend, to update any forward-looking statements contained in these materials.
