Safe Harbor Statement

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains forward looking statements that are not historical facts, including statements about our beliefs and expectations. These statements are based on beliefs and assumptions of the Company's management, and on information currently available to management. These forward looking statements include, among other things: the growth and demand for the Company's products and services, including the Total Life Cycle Support business, including the Independent Suspension System modernization and ForceArmor kits; the anticipated long-term demand for service, support and upgrade work to the Company's installed fleet of vehicles; the opportunities with potential customers for the Company's Cheetah vehicles; the opportunities to market the Ocelot vehicle and the capabilities of the Ocelot; the rate at which the Company will be able to produce its vehicles and products; the Company's ability to develop new technologies and products, and the effectiveness of these technologies and products; the Company's execution of its business strategy and strategic transformation, including its opportunities to grow the business; and the Company's expected financial and operating results, including its revenues and cash flow, for future periods. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made, and the Company undertakes no obligation to update any of them publicly in light of new information or future events. A number of important factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statements. Examples of these factors include, but are not limited to, ability to effectively manage the risks in
