Item 5.02 Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(e) On September 24, 2012, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of Corinthian Colleges, Inc. (the Company), approved an amendment and extension (the Amendment) of the employment agreement (as amended, the Employment Agreement) between the Company and Jack Massimino, the Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Massimino's original employment agreement was dated August 21, 2007, and a form of that agreement was filed as Exhibit 10.1 to the Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on August 27, 2007.

The Amendment extends the term of the Employment Agreement to March 17, 2013, so that it will be coterminous with the employment agreements of certain of the Company's other executive officers (including other named executive officers). The Amendment also eliminates from the Employment Agreement a change in control tax gross up provision, which had provided that if a payment to Mr. Massimino following a change in control of the Company results in the imposition of excise taxes under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (as amended, the Code), Mr. Massimino would be entitled to receive an additional payment so that, after Mr. Massimino's payment of all applicable excise taxes, he would have retained an amount equal to the amount he would have received had no excise tax been imposed. The Amendment replaces the gross up provision with a best net provision, so that if payments made to Mr. Massimino following a change in control of the Company would result in the imposition of excise taxes under Section 4999 of the Code, then the payments would be reduced to one dollar less than the amount that would trigger the excise tax payment, but only if such reduction would yield an after-tax benefit to Mr. Massimino that is greater, after giving effect to such reduction, than if no such reduction had been made.

The foregoing description of the Amendment is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Amendment filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.
