Item 6.

Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer.

Edgar Filing: CRAY CLOUD L JR - Form SC 13D/A

The terms of the limited partnership agreement of the Cray MGP Holdings LP give Karen Seaberg the unfettered right and authority to dispose of Common Stock held by the partnership for so long as she is the sole manager of Cray Family Management LLC. If either of her sisters should become manager, they may only sell Common Stock to lineal descendants of the Reporting Person, or trusts for the benefit of a descendant or descendants or an entity over which one or more lineal descendants possesses voting control. Should any other person become manager of Cray Family Management LLC or should the limited partnership have more than one general partner, the terms of the partnership agreement require the general partner to offer the Common Stock held by the partnership to the persons described in the preceding sentence before disposing of it to third parties. Distributions by the partnership are to be made as determined by its general partner in proportion to the limited partners' respective partnership interests. The partnership may be dissolved with the consent of the general partner and holders of 80% of the limited partnership interests. Upon dissolution, distribution of partnership assets would be determined by its general partner or other person designated by law.

The Reporting Person's Schedule 13D dated January 3, 2012 reported that he was a former trustee of the Cray Family Trust U/T/A dated April 4, 1975, as amended by a First Amendment dated November 13, 1980 (the Trust). His designated successor was ineligible to be appointed and he therefore revoked the designation and continues to serve as a trustee of the Trust. The Trust formerly held 333 shares of the Company's Preferred Stock (76.2% of all preferred shares outstanding). One of the other two trustees is Richard B. Cray, the Reporting Person's brother. The Reporting Person also is one of the three depositors and, prior to his resignation as a trustee of the Voting Trust in 2010, was one of three trustees of the MGP Ingredients, Inc. Voting Trust (the Voting Trust), which was created under a voting trust agreement dated as of November 16, 2005. The shares of Preferred Stock formerly held by the Trust were contributed to the Voting Trust, which now holds such shares, and the Trust holds beneficial interests in the Voting Trust. The trustees of the Voting Trust are Laidacker M. Seaberg (the Reporting Person's son-in-law), his wife, Karen Seaberg (the Reporting Person's daughter) and Richard B. Cray (the Reporting Person's brother).

The Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Company entitle the holders of the Preferred Stock to elect five out of the Company's nine directors. Only the holders of Preferred Stock are entitled to vote upon any proposal which requires stockholder approval and which will authorize or direct the Company to merge with another corporation, consolidate, voluntarily dissolve, sell, lease or exchange all or substantially all of its property and assets, or amend its Articles of Incorporation; provided, that the holders of Common Stock are entitled to vote, as a class, upon any such proposal if the result thereof would be to increase or decrease the aggregate number of authorized shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock, increase or decrease the par value of the shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock, or alter or change the powers, preferences or special rights of the Common Stock or Preferred Stock so as to affect the holders of Common Stock adversely. On all other matters, other than the election of directors, the holders of Common Stock and Preferred Stock each vote separately, as a class, and no such matter to be acted upon may be approved unless it receives the affirmative vote, consent or approval of the holders of a majority, or such greater percentage as may be required by law, of the shares of Common Stock and the shares of Preferred Stock.

The Trust will continue in effect until the last death of the issue of Cloud L. Cray, Sr., as defined in the Trust, who were living at the creation of the Trust. A majority of the Trustees may also terminate the Trust at such time as the Trustees believe it to be consistent with the intent of the trustors in establishing the Trust. Until the Trust is terminated or dissolved, each Trustee may appoint a successor trustee, provided that any successor must be and remain a major officer and stockholder of the Company. The Trustees are permitted to act with respect to the voting or divestment of shares of the Company's stock held by the Trust in accordance with the decision of a majority of the Trustees.

The Voting Trust became effective on January 30, 2006 and was amended effective August 23, 2010. It will continue in effect until the last death of the issue of Cloud L. Cray, Sr. who was living at the creation of the Trust. There presently are 18 such persons living, the youngest of which is 38 years old. The Voting Trust may also be terminated by the consent of a majority of the Trustees or the beneficiaries of 90% of the shares held in the Voting Trust or upon the sale of all the shares held in the Voting Trust. Until the Voting Trust is terminated or dissolved, each Trustee may appoint a successor trustee, provided that any successor must either (i) meet (and continue to meet) the officer and shareholder qualifications that a successor trustee under the Trust must meet under the terms of the First Amendment to the Trust dated November 13, 1980 or (ii) be an issue of Cloud L. Cray, Sr., or the spouse of such issue, and own at least 10,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock. (As in the case of depositors of the Trust, the original trustees of the Voting Trust are not subject to this requirement). Only one person who is solely an issue of Cloud L. Cray, Sr., or the spouse of such issue (and not also an officer), may serve as successor trustee at one time. The Trustees are permitted to act with respect to the voting or divestment of shares of the Company's stock held by the Voting Trust in accordance with the decision of a majority of the Trustees.
