Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

Neenah Paper, Inc. (the Company) today announced it signed a definitive agreement on June 2, 2014, to purchase all of the outstanding equity of Crane Technical Materials, Inc. (CTM) from Crane & Co., Inc. (Crane) for a purchase price of $72 million, comprised of $64 million for the business and $8 million related to future cash tax benefits that the Company is expected to receive as a result of the transaction. CTM manufactures performance-oriented wet laid nonwovens media for filtration end markets as well as environmental, energy and industrial uses.

The transaction is expected to close in July 2014 and is subject to customary closing conditions. The transaction has been approved by the Company s Board of Directors. The definitive purchase agreement also contains a provision that provides for a potential additional payment (the Earnout Payment). Should the CTM business exceed a minimum threshold, an Earnout Payment from zero to $13 million could be earned by Crane if the CTM business achieves certain results above targeted profit levels for the year ending December 31, 2014. The Earnout Payment, if any, would be due 90 days following the end of the fiscal year. In purchasing the outstanding equity of CTM, the Company will be assuming all rights, obligations and liabilities of CTM, subject to certain representations, warranties, terms, conditions and indemnities from Crane typical in this type of transaction.
