Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On September 24, 2015, CF Industries, Inc. ("CF Industries"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of CF Industries Holdings, Inc. (the "Company"), entered into a Note Purchase Agreement (the "Note Purchase Agreement") with the various purchasers named therein (the "Purchasers") and issued and sold to the Purchasers $1,000,000,000 aggregate principal amount of guaranteed senior notes under the Note Purchase Agreement consisting of (i) $250,000,000 aggregate principal amount designated as 4.49% Guaranteed Senior Notes, Series A, due October 15, 2022 (the "Series A Notes"), (ii) $500,000,000 aggregate principal amount designated as 4.93% Guaranteed Senior Notes, Series B, due October 15, 2025 (the "Series B Notes") and (iii) $250,000,000 aggregate principal amount designated as 5.03% Guaranteed Senior Notes, Series C, due October 15, 2027 (the "Series C Notes" and, together with the Series A Notes and the Series B Notes, the "Notes").

CF Industries intends to use the net proceeds from the offering of the Notes to fund its capital expenditure programs and for other general corporate purposes, including working capital.

CF Industries may prepay at any time all, or from time to time any part of, any series of the Notes, in an amount not less than 5% of the aggregate principal amount of such series of the Notes then outstanding in the case of a partial prepayment, at 100% of the principal amount so prepaid plus a make-whole amount determined as specified in the Note Purchase Agreement. In the event of a Change in Control (as defined in the Note Purchase Agreement), each holder of the Notes may require CF Industries to prepay the entire unpaid principal amount of the Notes held by such holder at a price equal to 100% of the principal amount of such Notes together with accrued and unpaid interest thereon, but without any make-whole amount or other premium.

All obligations under the Note Purchase Agreement are unsecured. Currently, the Company is the only guarantor of the obligations of CF Industries under the Note Purchase Agreement. On and after the Darwin Acquisition Closing Date (as defined in the Note Purchase Agreement) Darwin Holdings Limited, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of England and Wales with registered number 09713230 (as may be renamed in connection with the re-registration as a public company under the Companies Act 2006 of the United Kingdom on or prior to the Darwin Acquisition Closing Date, "Darwin"), will be required to guarantee the obligations under the Note Purchase Agreement. In addition, certain of the Company's U.S. subsidiaries, and, on and after the Darwin Acquisitions Closing Date, certain of Darwin's and the Company's material wholly-owned U.S. and foreign subsidiaries, will be required to become guarantors of the obligations under the Note Purchase Agreement if (i) such subsidiaries guarantee other debt for borrowed money (subject to specified exceptions) of the Company, CF Industries or Darwin in an aggregate principal amount in excess of $500 million or (ii) such subsidiaries are borrowers under, issuers of, or guarantors of specified debt obligations of the Company, CF Industries or Darwin.

The Note Purchase Agreement contains customary representations and warranties and covenants for a transaction of this type, including two financial maintenance covenants: (i) a requirement that the interest coverage ratio (as defined in the Note Purchase Agreement) be maintained at a level of not less than 2.75 to 1.00 and (ii) a requirement that the total leverage ratio (as defined in the Note Purchase Agreement) be maintained at a level of not greater than 3.75 to 1.00.

The Note Purchase Agreement contains events of default (with notice requirements and cure periods, as applicable) customary for a financing of this type, including, but not limited to, non-payment of principal, make-whole amounts, or interest; inaccuracy of representations and warranties in any material respect; and failure to comply with specified covenants. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an event of default under the Note Purchase Agreement and after any applicable cure period, subject to specified exceptions, the holder or holders of more than 50% in principal amount of the Notes outstanding may declare all the Notes then outstanding due and payable.

Edgar Filing: CF Industries Holdings, Inc. - Form 8-K

Certain subsidiaries of CF Industries are, and, on and after the Darwin Acquisition Closing Date, certain subsidiaries of Darwin will be, excluded from the representations, the events of default, and the restrictions contained in certain of the covenants under the Note Purchase Agreement.
