Item 5.07. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders.

On July 20, 2018, Rice Midstream Partners LP (RMP) held a special meeting of unitholders (the Special Meeting) to consider a proposal to approve the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of April 25, 2018 (the Merger Agreement), by and among EQT Midstream Partners, LP (EQM), EQT Midstream Services, LLC, the general partner of EQM, EQM Acquisition Sub, LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of EQM, EQM GP Acquisition Sub, LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of EQM, RMP, Rice Midstream Management LLC, the general partner of RMP, and, solely for purposes of certain provisions therein, EQT Corporation (EQT) (the Merger Proposal).

At the Special Meeting, a total of 83,745,178 RMP Common Units, representing approximately 81.8% of the outstanding RMP Common Units entitled to vote at the Special Meeting, were present in person or by proxy, constituting a quorum to conduct business.

The Merger Proposal was approved by the requisite vote of RMP's unitholders. The final voting results are described below. For more information regarding the Merger Agreement and the Merger Proposal, see RMP's definitive proxy statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) on June 20, 2018.

* For purposes of the Merger Proposal, any abstention or an RMP unitholder's failure to vote, including the failure of a beneficial owner to provide voting instructions to its broker, bank or other nominee, had the same effect as a vote against the Merger Proposal.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Information

Disclosures in this Form 8-K contain certain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. Statements that do not relate strictly to historical or current facts are forward-looking. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, forward-looking statements contained in this Form 8-K specifically include the expectations of plans, strategies, objectives and growth and anticipated financial and operational performance of RMP and its affiliates, including whether the transactions contemplated in the Merger Agreement are completed, as expected or at all, and the timing of any such transactions; whether the conditions to the transactions contemplated in the Merger Agreement can be satisfied; whether the operational, financial and strategic benefits of the transactions contemplated in the Merger Agreement can be achieved; whether the costs and expenses of the transactions contemplated in the Merger Agreement can be controlled within expectations; potential adverse reactions or changes to business or employee relationships, including those resulting from the announcement or completion of the transactions contemplated in the Merger Agreement; competitive responses to the transactions; the possibility that the anticipated benefits of the transactions are not realized when expected or at all; the possibility that the transactions may be more expensive to complete than anticipated, including as a result of unexpected factors or events; diversion of management's attention from ongoing business operations and opportunities; potential adverse reactions or changes to business or employee relationships, including those resulting from the announcement or completion of the transactions; and litigation relating to the transactions. These statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from projected results. Accordingly, investors should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements as a prediction of actual results. RMP has based these forward-looking statements on current expectations and assumptions about future events. While RMP considers these expectations and assumptions to be reasonable, they are inherently subject to significant business, economic, competitive, regulatory and other risks and uncertainties, many of which are difficult to predict and beyond RMP's control. The risks and uncertainties that may affect the operations, performance and results of RMP's business and forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, those set forth under Item 1A, Risk Factors of RMP's Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2017, as updated by any subsequent Form 10-Qs.

All forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made and are based on information available at that time. RMP assumes no obligation to update forward-looking statements to reflect circumstances or events that occur after the date the forward-looking statements were made or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events except as required by federal securities laws. As forward-looking statements involve significant risks and uncertainties, caution should be exercised against placing undue reliance on such statements.
