(AMEX:PAE - News) (TSX:PAE - News), a rapidly emerging, vertically integrated film and television company, has entered into an exclusive distribution agreement with LightWorks Program Distribution, a New York-based production and distribution company, under which Peace Arch will retain exclusive rights to license an extensive library of television programs in the fast-growing Canadian marketplace.

Under the agreement, Peace Arch will acquire distribution rights to LightWorks extensive library of titles, including Married in America 2, by renowned filmmaker and Directors Guild of America President Michael Apted, and classic television programs such as Davey & Goliath and the BBC co-production of C.S. Partnering with Peach Arch was a strategic move that we believe will strengthen both our respective companies, said John Cuddihy, Executive Vice President and Managing Director of Lightworks Program Distribution. Canada is a significant market for us, and we are pleased to place our library of programs in the hands of Peace Arch, one of North America's fastest growing film and television companies.
