Mr. Girin will be required to make any generally applicable employee contribution that is required under such fringe benefit programs. Mr. Girin will be reimbursed up to $1,000 for personal insurance premiums. Mr. Girin will also be entitled to receive reimbursement up to $5,000 for financial and tax planning and tax preparation.

Mr. Girin will receive a monthly allowance of $8,000 for temporary housing and travel expenses, subject to certain repayment obligations if Mr. Girin's voluntarily leaves us within two years after the commencement of his employment. In the event that Mr. Girin's employment with us is terminated without cause during the first two years of his employment, we will provide relocation assistance to Mr. Girin and his family to return to France in an amount not to exceed $100,000.

Separation Pay Agreement. Mr. Girin will enter into a Separation Pay Agreement substantially in the form entered into with the Company's other executive officers, as described below.

On or about November 6, 2012, Messrs. Berry, Davis, Griffin and Stookey entered into a revised Separation Pay Agreement with us. These Separation Pay Agreements supersede and replace the executive officer's pre-existing separation pay agreement. Below is a brief description of the terms and conditions of each Separation Pay Agreement.

Each Separation Pay Agreement will continue until its third anniversary. Beginning on the second anniversary and each anniversary of the effective date thereafter, the term will be extended automatically for one additional year unless we or the executive officer provides notice of termination of the Separation Pay Agreement.

Under the terms of each Separation Pay Agreement, in the event that the executive officer is terminated for "cause" (as defined in the Separation Pay Agreement) or the executive officer terminates employment other than for "good reason" (as defined in the Separation Pay Agreement) we shall have no obligations other than payment of accrued obligations described below. In the event of an involuntary termination of the executive officer, we will be obligated to pay a separation payment and accrued obligations and provide benefits to the executive officer as described below.

- Accrued Obligations. Accrued obligations include (i) any accrued base salary through the date of termination, (ii) any annual cash incentive compensation awards earned but not yet paid, (iii) the value of any accrued vacation, (iv) reimbursement for any unreimbursed business expenses, and, (v) only in the case of an involuntary termination within one year after a change in control or a termination at any time by reason of death, an annual incentive payment at target for the year that includes the date of termination, prorated for the portion of the year that the executive officer was employed.

Separation Payment upon Involuntary Termination. The total separation payment is the amount equal to the sum of the executive's base salary plus the executive's then current annual target bonus. In the event of an involuntary termination that occurs within one year of a change of control, the total separation payment is the amount equal to two times the sum of the executive's base salary plus the executive's then current annual target bonus. Half of the total separation payment amount will be payable at or within a reasonable time after the date of termination. The remaining half of the total separation payment amount will be payable in equal consecutive monthly installments beginning six months after the date of termination, with a final installment of the balance of the remaining half of the total separation payment to be made on or before March 15 of the calendar year following the year in which the date of termination.

Benefits upon Involuntary Termination. The executive officer will also receive benefits that include (i) health and dental coverage under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (COBRA), which we must pay for a period not exceeding twelve months, or eighteen months in the event of involuntary termination following a change in control, (ii) outplacement assistance and financial planning services for a period of one year, or two years in the event of involuntary termination following a change in control (iii) payment to continue insurance coverage equal to the annual supplemental executive officer insurance benefit provided to the executive officer prior to the date of termination, provided that in the event of an involuntary termination following a change in control the payment will be two times the amount otherwise paid, and (iv) reasonable attorneys' fees and expense if any such fees or expenses are incurred to enforce the Separation Pay Agreement following a change in control.

For purposes of each Separation Pay Agreement, involuntary termination will occur if we terminate the employment of the executive officer, other than for cause, disability, or death of the executive officer, or the executive officer resigns for good reason.

Each Separation Pay Agreement contains a provision that reduces payment under the Separation Pay Agreement to avoid taxation under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code for “parachute payments” within the meaning of Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code if such reduction results in a larger after-tax payment to the executive officer.

Under the terms of each Separation Pay Agreement, the executive officer makes certain covenants that impose future obligations on the executive officer regarding confidentiality of information, transfer of inventions, non-solicitation of our employees for a period of twelve months, and noncompetition with our business for a period of twelve months.

The foregoing summary of the Separation Pay Agreements of Messrs. Berry, Davis, Griffin and Stookey do not purport to be complete and are qualified in its entirety by reference to the Separation Pay Agreements, copies of which are attached hereto as Exhibits 10.1, 10.2, 10.3 and 10.4, respectively, and are incorporated herein by reference.
