ITEM 4. PURPOSE OF TRANSACTION

On April 9, 2014, in accordance with resolutions approved by its Board of Directors, the Reporting Person took action by written consent as a stockholder of the Company to effect the following actions: (a) amend Article III, Section 2 of the Bylaws of the Company to fix the authorized number of directors at eight (8) until such number is increased or decreased by the stockholders, provided that the authorized number of directors shall not be less than three (3); (b) amend Article III, Section 4 of the Bylaws of the Company to provide that vacancies in the Board of Directors may be filled only by the stockholders; and (c) elect Robert W. Peabody, Judith Segall, and Richard LeBuhn as directors of the Company to fill the existing vacancy that was created by the resignation of Franklin Berger, and the vacancies created by the increase in the authorized number of directors constituting the full Board of Directors, to hold office until his or her successor is elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation or removal.

On April 10, 2014, at a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Company, the directors determined to terminate the employment of the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer, Thomas Okarma, without cause under the terms of his employment agreement with the Company, and appointed Michael D. West as President and Chief Executive Officer.

The Reporting Person does not have any plans or proposals that relate to or would result in: (a) the acquisition by any person of additional securities of the Company, or the disposition of securities of the Company; (b) an extraordinary corporate transaction, such as a merger, reorganization or liquidation, involving the Company or any of its subsidiaries; (c) a sale or transfer of a material amount of assets of the Company or any of its subsidiaries; (d) any change in the present Board of Directors or management of the Company, including any plans or proposals to change the number or term of directors or to fill any existing vacancies on the board; (e) any material change in the present capitalization or dividend policy of the Company; (f) any other material change in the Company's business or corporate structure; (g) changes in the Company's charter, bylaws or instruments corresponding thereto or other actions which may impede the acquisition of control of the Company by any person; (h) causing a class of securities of the Company to be delisted from a national securities exchange or to cease to be authorized to be quoted in an inter-dealer quotation system of a registered national securities association; (i) a class of equity securities of the Company becoming eligible for termination of registration pursuant to Section 12(g)(4) of the Exchange Act; or (j) any action similar to any of those enumerated above.

However, the Reporting Person is the controlling stockholder of the Company, and three of the eight members of the Board of Directors of the Company are members of the Reporting Person's Board of Directors, one of the directors of the Company who is not a director of the Reporting Person is an executive officer of the Reporting Person, and another director of the Company who is not a director of the Reporting Person may be deemed an affiliate of a shareholder that beneficially owns more than 5% of the common shares of the Reporting Person. The Reporting Person may, through its control of the Company as a stockholder or through the action of persons who serve on the Board of Directors of the Company, from time to time cause the Company to engage in any or all of the kinds of transactions described in the immediately preceding paragraph. Without limiting the generality of the immediately preceding sentence, the Reporting Person, directly or through the action of the Board of Directors of the Company, may (1) cause the Company to expand the size of the Company's Board of Directors and to elect additional directors, (2) cause the Company to reduce the size of the Company's Board of Directors, (3) nominate persons to stand for election as directors at any annual or special meeting of stockholders of the Company at which directors are to be elected, (4) cause any incumbent director not to be nominated to stand for election as a director at any annual or special meeting of stockholders of the Company at which directors are to be elected, (5) remove any director with or without cause by a vote at any annual or special meeting of stockholders of the Company at which directors are to be elected, or by written consent without a vote, (6) in the event of the death or resignation or removal of a director of the Company, elect a replacement director, and (7) further amend the Bylaws of the Company. Any such newly elected directors may be officers, directors, or affiliates of the Reporting Person or may be "independent" directors (under Section 8.03(A) of the NYSE MKT Company Guide or the rules of any other national securities exchange) with respect to the Reporting Person and/or the Company.

Although the Board of Directors has terminated the employment of Thomas Okarma, Dr. Okarma remains a director of the Company. Although the Board of Directors of the Company has not yet made a determination with respect to the nomination of persons to stand for election as directors at the next annual meeting of stockholders of the Company, or at any special meeting of stockholders at which directors may be elected, it is likely that the directors elected to the Company's Board of Directors by the Reporting Person or who are also directors of the Reporting Person will not nominate Thomas Okarma to stand for election as a director.

The Reporting Person may also, from time to time, through its control of the of the Company, cause the Company to (i) offer and sell additional securities in order to raise capital for the Company's operations or to acquire one or more businesses or assets for use in the Company's business, and (ii) if and when opportunities present themselves, cause the Company to enter into one or more merger agreements or other agreements to acquire other business or assets, or merger or consolidation agreements in which the Company is not the surviving corporation.

RESOLVED, that each of the following persons be and hereby is elected as a director of the Corporation to fill the existing vacancy and the vacancies created by the increase in the authorized number of directors constituting the full Board of Directors, to hold office until his or her successor is elected or until his or her earlier death, resignation or removal, effective immediately upon the effective time of the amendment to Article III, Section 2 of the Bylaws as set forth in the immediately preceding resolution:

Section 4. Vacancies. Vacancies in the Board of Directors may be filled only by the stockholders. Any such election by written consent of the stockholders shall require the vote or consent of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote. Each director so elected shall hold office until the next annual meeting of the stockholders and until a successor has been elected and qualified.

A vacancy or vacancies in the Board of Directors shall be deemed to exist in the event of the death, resignation, or removal of any director, the increase in the number of directors authorized, or if the Court of Chancery has removed a director for conviction of a felony, or if the stockholders fail, at any meeting of stockholders at which any director or directors are elected, to elect the number of directors to be voted for at that meeting.
