ITEM 5. INTEREST OF NAMED EXPERTS AND COUNSEL

The validity of the shares of common stock registered in this registration statement has been passed upon for the Registrant by Kaplan Gottbetter & Levenson, LLP, ("KGL") whose opinion is attached hereto as Exhibit 5. ITEM 6. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

Generally, Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL") empowers a Delaware corporation to indemnify any person for claims arising against the person for serving as a present or former director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation. Indemnity is available only if the person acted in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation. If the claim is a criminal action, indemnification may be available only if the person had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The indemnity may include expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the claim.

A Delaware corporation may also indemnify persons against expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred for actions brought by or on behalf of the corporation subject to the conditions discussed above, except that no indemnification is permitted in respect of any claim as to which person shall have been found to be liable to the corporation unless a court determines that, in view of all the circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity.

To the extent the person is successful in defending a claim described in the preceding two paragraphs, the corporation must indemnify the person against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided for in Section 145 is not exclusive of any other rights to which the person may be entitled under any By-law, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise.

Section 145 of the DGCL also provides that a corporation may maintain insurance against liabilities for which indemnification is not expressly provided by the statute. The Registrant maintains reasonable levels of insurance against liabilities for indemnification which it may incur under its Certificate of Incorporation, as amended (the "Certificate of Incorporation") and By-laws (the "By-laws").

Article VII of the Registrant's By-laws provides that the Registrant will indemnify, defend and hold harmless directors, officers, employees and agents of the Registrant to the fullest extent currently permitted under the DGCL.

In addition, Article Sixth of the Registrant's Certificate of Incorporation, as permitted by Section 102(b) of the DGCL, provides that neither the Registrant nor its stockholders may recover damages from the Registrant's directors for a breach of their fiduciary duty in the performance of their duties as directors of the Registrant, unless the breach relates to (i) the director's duty of loyalty, (ii) acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) Section 174 of the DGCL or (iv) any transactions for which the director derived an improper benefit. The Registrant's By-laws provide for indemnification of the Registrant's directors, officers, employees and agents on the terms permitted under Section 145 of the DGCL summarized above.
