Item 3.02

On February 14, 2008, Emvelco Corp. (the “Company”) entered into two subscription agreements pursuant to which it sold an aggregate of 300,000 shares of common stock of the Company at a purchase price of $1.00 per share for an aggregate purchase price of $300,000. The shares sold were “restricted securities”. The money raised from the sale of the Company’s shares will be used for working capital and business operations of the Company.

The Board of Directors of the Company has approved the sale of the common stock. The Company claims an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933 (the “Act”) for the private placement of these securities pursuant to Section 4(2) of the Act and/or Regulation D promulgated thereunder since, among other things, the transaction did not involve a public offering, the purchasers are accredited investor and/or qualified institutional buyer, the purchasers had access to information about the Company and its investment, the purchasers took the securities for investment and not resale, and the Company took appropriate measures to restrict the transfer of the securities.
