Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On October 9, 2008, interCLICK, Inc. and its wholly-owned subsidiary Desktop Acquisition Sub, Inc. (collectively, the “Company”) entered into a Loan and Security Agreement (the “Loan Agreement”) with Silicon Valley Bank (“SVB”). Under the Loan Agreement, SVB has committed to make advances to the Company in an aggregate amount of up to $3,000,000, subject to availability against certain eligible account receivables. Any indebtedness under the Loan Agreement bears interest at the floating rate per annum based on SVB’s prime rate plus one and three-quarters of one percent (1.75%). Repayment of advances under the Loan Agreement are due and payable on the earlier of (i) the date on which payment is received of the account receivable with respect to which the advance was made (the “Financed Receivable”), (ii) the date on which the Financed Receivable is no longer eligible for an advance, (iii) the date on which an adjustment is asserted to with respect to the Financed Receivable (but only to the extent of the adjustment if the Financed Receivable remains otherwise eligible), (iv) the date on which there is a breach of any representation, warranty or covenant or (v) October 8, 2009.

The credit facility is secured by a first priority perfected security interest in substantially all of the Company’s assets, except with respect to Company’s interest in Options Media Group Holdings, Inc., a Nevada corporation. The Loan Agreement contains affirmative covenants that, among other things, require the Company to maintain a minimum amount of unrestricted cash at SVB, to record a minimum EBITDA of at least $1.00 commencing February 2009 and to deliver to SVB specified financial information, including annual, quarterly and monthly financial information. The Loan agreement also contains negative covenants that limit the Company’s ability to (or to permit any subsidiaries to), subject to certain exceptions and limitations, merge with or acquire other companies, create liens on its property, incur debt obligations, enter into transactions with affiliates, except on an arm’s length basis, dispose of property or issue dividends or make distributions. Any failure by the Company to comply with these covenants and any other obligations under the Loan Agreement could result in an event of default which could lead to acceleration of the amounts owed and other remedies.

The foregoing description of the Loan Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Loan Agreement attached to this Form 8-K as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

Item 2.03. Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

The information regarding the Company’s entry into the Loan and Security Agreement provided under Item 1.01 above is hereby incorporated by reference.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.
