Item 3.01 Notice of Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard.

On May 6, 2013, Stoneridge, Inc. (the “Company”) received a letter (the “Letter”) from the New York Stock Exchange LLC (“NYSE”) as a result of the Company’s failure to provide timely notice to the NYSE of the record date for the Company’s Annual Meeting of Shareholders held on May 6, 2013 (the “Annual Meeting”). The NYSE Listed Company Manual requires that notice of the record date be provided to the NYSE at least ten days prior to the record date.

The Company has investigated this matter and determined that the reporting of the incorrect record date was a result of a clerical error. The record date submitted in our filing with the NYSE on March 26, 2013 was April 5, 2013 (which was 10 days prior to reported record date); however, the actual record date was April 1, 2013. The Letter was issued pursuant to Section 303.A.13 of the NYSE Listed Company Manual.

The Company notes that this was an isolated incident and that the Letter states that the Company has not fallen below any financial or other continued listing standards. The Company believes it has been and is in compliance with all other NYSE listing standards. All other notices and filings in connection with the Annual Meeting were timely made.
