Item 4.01 Change in Registrants Certifying Accountant

Previous independent registered public accounting firm

On December 11, 2007 (the “Dismissal Date”), Heartland, Inc. (the “Company”) advised Russell Bedford Stefanou Mirchandani LLP (the “Former Auditor”) that it was dismissed as the Company’s independent registered public accounting firm. The decision to dismiss the Former auditor as the Company’s independent registered public accounting firm was approved by the Company’s Board of Directors on December 7, 2007. The Former Auditor was engaged on May 2, 2007 and did not issue a report on the Company’s consolidated financial statements during the most recent two fiscal years and through the Dismissal Date. During the Former Auditors’s period of engagement, there were no disagreements with the Company on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreement(s), if not resolved to the satisfaction of the Former Accountant, would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement(s) in connection with its reports.

The Company has requested that Former Auditor furnish it with a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether it agrees with the above statements. A copy of this letter is attached hereto to this amendment to the Form 8K as Exhibit 16.1.

New independent registered public accounting firm

On December 11, 2007 (the “Engagement Date”), the Company engaged Meyler & Company, LLC (“New Auditor”) as its independent registered public accounting firm for the Company’s fiscal year ended December 31, 2007. The decision to engage the New Auditor as the Company’s independent registered public accounting firm was approved by the Company’s Board of Directors.

During the two most recent fiscal years and through the Engagement Date, the Company has not consulted with the New Auditor regarding either:

1. except to the extent that the New Auditor audited the Company’s financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005, the application of accounting principles to any specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company’s financial statements, and neither a written report was provided to the Company nor oral advice was provided that the New Auditor concluded was an important factor considered by the Company in reaching a decision as to the accounting, auditing or financial reporting issue; or
2. any matter that was either subject of disagreement or event, as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(iv)(A) of Regulation S-B and the related instruction to Item 304 of Regulation S-B, or a reportable event, as that term is explained in Item 304(a)(1)(iv)(A) of Regulation S-B.
