auditors of the Company, to hold office until the end of the next general meeting at which accounts are laid before the Company.

Resolution 8

That the directors be authorised to decide the auditors'

4,487,891,811 99.75 11,064,926 0.25 15,887,672

remuneration.

Special Business

Resolution 9

That the directors are authorised generally and without conditions under Section 80 of the Companies Act 1985 ('1985 Act') to allot relevant securities:

4,295,883,882 96.19 170,100,608 3.81 48,859,919

(a) up to an amount of £127 million;

(b) comprising equity securities up to a further amount of £127 million in connection with a rights issue.

These authorities supersede any previous ones under Section 80 of the 1985 Act and expire at the end of the next AGM. The Board can make offers, or enter into agreements which would, or might, need relevant securities to be allotted after that expiry. In this Resolution 'relevant securities' and 'equity securities' are as defined in the 1985 Act; 'amounts' refer to the face value (which is the nominal value) of the relevant securities; and 'rights issue' is as defined in Article 74 of the Company's articles of association.

Resolution 10

That subject to the passing of Resolution 9, the directors have power to allot equity securities (within the meaning of Section

4,471,116,712 99.18 36,976,437 0.82 6,751,260

94 of the 1985 Act) entirely paid for in cash

(a) under the authority given by paragraph (a) of Resolution 9:

in connection with a pre-emptive offer; except in connection with a pre-emptive offer, up to an aggregate nominal amount of £20 million; and

(b) under the authority given by paragraph (b) of Resolution 9 in connection with a rights issue as if Section 89(1) of the 1985 Act did not apply to any such allotment. This power expires at the end of the next AGM but the Board can make offers, or enter into agreements which would, or might, need equity securities to be allotted after that expiry. In this Resolution all the words defined in Resolution 9 have the same meaning and:

'pre-emptive offer' means an offer of equity securities open for a period fixed by the Board to holders (other than the Company) of ordinary shares in proportion to their holdings, subject to the limits or restrictions which the directors think are necessary;

references to an allotment of equity securities include a sale of treasury shares; and in working out any maximum amounts of securities, the face value of rights to subscribe for shares, or to convert any securities into shares, will be taken as the face value of the shares which would be allotted if the subscription or conversion takes place.

Resolution 11

4,482,337,897 99.66 15,094,484 0.34 17,412,028

That the Company has general and unconditional authority to make market purchases as defined in section 163 of the Companies Act 1985 of shares of 5p each in the Company, subject to the following conditions:

(a) the maximum number of shares which may be purchased is 774 million shares;

(b) the minimum price (excluding expenses) which may be paid for each share is 5p;

(c) the maximum price (excluding expenses) which the Company may pay for each share cannot be more than the higher of:

(i) 105% of the average market value of a share in the Company for the five business days prior to the day the purchase is made; and

(ii) the value of a share in the Company calculated on the basis of the higher of the price quoted for: (a) the last independent trade of; or (b) the highest current independent bid for, any number of shares in the Company on the trading venues where the purchase is carried out; and

(d) this authority will expire at the end of the next AGM of the Company held in 2010, or if earlier, 14 October 2010, except in relation to the purchase of shares, the contract for which was concluded before the expiry of this authority and which might be executed wholly or partly after that expiry.

Resolution 12

4,398,665,313 97.63 106,615,703 2.37 9,563,393

That with effect from 1 October 2009 the Company:

(a) amends its articles of association ('Current Articles') by deleting the provisions of the Company's memorandum of association ('Memorandum') which, due to section 28 Companies Act 2006 ('2006 Act'), would be treated as provisions of the Current Articles; and

(b) adopts new articles of association ('New Articles').

Resolution 13

4,375,428,608 97.04 133,458,923 2.96 5,956,878

That the Company may call a general meeting (but not an AGM) on at least 14 clear days' notice.

Resolution 14

4,355,818,005 97.29 121,360,273 2.71 37,666,131

That British Telecommunications plc, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, be authorised to make political donations to political:

(a) parties and/or independent election candidates not exceeding £75,000 in total; and

(b) organisations other than political parties not exceeding £25,000 in total during the period beginning with the date of the 2009 AGM and ending at the conclusion of the day on which the 2010 AGM is held.

In accordance with Listing Rule 9.6.2

copies of all the resolutions passed, other than ordinary business, will be submitted to the UK Listing Authority ("UKLA") and will be available for inspection at the UKLA

BT AND VODAFONE
AGREEMENT
TO SIGNIFICANTLY BOOST COMPETITION AND NETWORK INVESTMENT
IRELAND

- BT to develop broadband infrastructure with speeds of up to 24Mbps for approximately two thirds of available broadband lines
- Agreement positions Vodafone as the clear no 2 in the fixed market with over 170,000 fixed customers and a 15% market share of the fixed broadband market

- Increased competition and greater choice for customers as wholesale access

to
BT
's advanced network
enables Vodafone to launch differentiated suite of fixed products

Dublin

Wednesday
22nd

July 2009:

Consumers and small businesses in Ireland will benefit from greater competition and choice, following a strategic partnership agreed between BT and Vodafone today. The landmark contract will also result in the creation of an alternative, competitive telecoms network in Ireland.

Under the terms of the agreement, which is subject to approval from the Irish Competition Authority, BT will transfer its consumer and small business broadband and voice customer base to Vodafone and will also provide wholesale network services to underpin Vodafone's business over a seven-year period. BT will continue to focus on becoming the number one provider of networked IT services to mid and large sized businesses and the public sector in Ireland

BT will also be committing significant investment towards building an advanced network infrastructure and improving broadband speeds in Ireland. It will provide a platform for the delivery of up to 24Mbps broadband services to approximately two thirds of Ireland's available broadband lines by unbundling up to 58 additional exchanges. To date, BT has already unbundled 22 exchanges in the Republic of Ireland.

Today's announcement combines Vodafone's strength in sales, marketing and distribution with BT's expertise in the successful delivery of managed network services. Over 84,000 consumers and 3,000 small businesses currently with BT will transfer to Vodafone over the next several months, where they will benefit from access to a wide range of innovative converged services from a leading total telecommunications company

Chris Clark, CEO, BT Ireland said "This is a very positive chapter in Ireland's telecoms history and will open up the market to greater competition and choice. BT has made remarkable strides in Ireland in recent years in securing landmark managed services deals with corporate customers, the public sector and other communications providers. We will aggressively focus on growing our impressive share of these market segments, while investing in the network access that customers and Ireland Inc. need to compete

effectively

Charles Butterworth,
CEO

, Vodafone Ireland said "Today's announcement will give

Vodafone the ability to launch an exciting and innovative roadmap of fixed products and services that are strongly differentiated from those available in the market today, giving customers more choice and better value.

This deal strongly positions Vodafone as the no 2 player in the fixed broadband

Our strategy is to compete aggressively in the fixed market to deliver real value, bring best-in-class products to market and build a sizeable fixed base to rival other participants in this market. We guarantee that BT customers who are transferring to Vodafone will be better off
