The following information was issued as a Company announcement in London, England and is furnished pursuant to General Instruction B to the General Instructions to Form 6-K:

27 February 2014

The Royal Bank of Scotland Group plc

The Royal Bank of Scotland Group plc ("RBS") today announces that Philip Scott, Non-executive Director, will step down from the Board of RBS by 31 October 2014.

Baroness Noakes will succeed Philip Scott as Chairman of the Board Risk Committee with effect from 1 April 2014. Additionally, Penny Hughes will become Chairman of the Group Sustainability Committee and Sir Sandy Crombie will become Chairman of the Group Performance and Remuneration Committee following the 2014 Annual General Meeting. Sir Sandy will continue in his role as Senior Independent Director.

Philip Hampton, RBS Chairman, said today:

"I would like to thank Philip for the significant contribution he has made to the Board and the committees he has served on since his appointment to the Board in November 2009. I would especially like to thank Philip for his strong leadership of the Board Risk Committee during a particularly challenging period for RBS. Philip will leave with our thanks and good wishes for the future.

"I would also like to thank both Penny and Sandy for their outstanding commitment and dedication whilst chairing the Group Performance and Remuneration Committee and Group Sustainability Committee respectively."

There are no other matters requiring disclosure under Listing Rule 9.6.13.
