ORACLE RAISES PEOPLESOFT BID TO $26 PER SHARE

Department of Justice Decision Expected Prior to March 12, 2004

REDWOOD SHORES, Calif., Feb. 4, 2004 (<http://www.oracle.com/tellmemore/?2886536>) Oracle Corporation (NASDAQ: ORCL) announced today that it has raised the price of its cash tender offer to purchase all of the outstanding shares of PeopleSoft, Inc. (NASDAQ: PSFT) to $26 per share, or approximately $9.4 billion. Oracle's amended offer represents an 18.8% premium over PeopleSoft's closing price of $21.89 on February 3, 2004.

Oracle expects a decision regarding antitrust approval from the Department of Justice prior to March 12, 2004, and is extending the tender offer for all of the common stock of PeopleSoft to midnight EST on Friday, March 12, 2004. The offer was previously set to expire at midnight EST on Friday, February 13, 2004.

We believe this acquisition is pro-competitive, will benefit the customers of both companies, and will make Oracle an even more profitable company, said Oracle's CEO, Larry Ellison. We stand by our pledge to support the PeopleSoft customer base and provide enhanced support for PeopleSoft products.

Jeff Henley, Oracle's Chairman and CFO, said, "Given PeopleSoft's current prospects, including its recent downward revisions to earnings guidance for the first quarter, we believe our offer presents compelling value to PeopleSoft's stockholders. Oracle remains fully committed to completing this deal on terms that will benefit the stockholders of both companies. We expect this transaction to result in substantial cost savings, be accretive in the first year excluding amortization of intangibles, and involve minimal business integration risk.

As previously announced, Oracle has nominated five independent candidates for PeopleSoft's Board of Directors and has put forth a stockholder proposal to increase the size of PeopleSoft's Board from eight members to nine.

Last Friday, PeopleSoft scheduled its annual stockholder meeting for March 25, 2004, with a record date for voting of February 10, 2004. As a result of this accelerated schedule, after February 5, 2004, stockholders who make regular open market purchases of PeopleSoft shares will not be able to vote such shares at the annual meeting. Stockholders of PeopleSoft need to be sure that their shares are not out on loan by their bank or brokerage firm if they want to vote their shares at this important meeting.

Edgar Filing: PEOPLESOFT INC - Form DFAN14A

This is our final price. We urge the PeopleSoft's directors to seriously consider our offer and put the interests of their stockholders first, said Henley. We strongly recommend that PeopleSoft stockholders make their views known by tendering their shares, approving our proposal to increase the size of the Board to nine members, and voting to elect five independent directors.

The tender offer is subject to customary conditions, including expiration of applicable antitrust waiting periods, a majority of PeopleSoft's shares on a fully diluted basis being tendered and not withdrawn, and the redemption or amendment of PeopleSoft's stockholder rights plan. The offer is not subject to due diligence or financing. Based on PeopleSoft's Preliminary Proxy Statement, filed on January 30, 2004 with the SEC, as of January 16, 2004, there were 361,126,373 PeopleSoft shares outstanding.

At the close of business on Tuesday, February 3, 2004, approximately 10,632,087 PeopleSoft shares had been tendered in the Oracle tender offer and not withdrawn.
