NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. Accounting Policies

In the opinion of management, the accompanying Consolidated Balance Sheets and Consolidated Statements of Income, Shareholders' Equity and Cash Flows contain all adjustments, including normal recurring adjustments necessary to present fairly the financial position of the Company as of October 30, 2004, and the results of operations and changes in cash flows for the six months then ended. Because of the seasonal nature of the Company's business, revenues and earnings results for the six months ended October 30, 2004 are not necessarily indicative of what the results will be for the full year. The Consolidated Balance Sheet as of May 1, 2004 included in this Form 10-Q was derived from the audited consolidated financial statements of the Company included in the Company's fiscal year 2004 Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Reference should be made to the Company's Form 10-K for the year ended May 1, 2004, including the discussion of the Company's critical accounting policies.

2. Restatement of Previously Issued Financial Statements

The accompanying consolidated financial statements for the three and six months ended November 1, 2003 have been restated to reflect certain stock option awards as variable due to their settlement arrangements, pursuant to Financial Accounting Standards Board Interpretation (FIN) No. 44, Accounting for Certain Transactions Involving Stock Compensation (an Interpretation of APB Opinion No. 25). Under variable accounting, the excess of market value over the option price of outstanding stock options is determined at each reporting period and aggregate compensation expense is adjusted and recognized over the vesting period. Compensation expense associated with vested options continues to be adjusted to the market value of the options until the options are either exercised or terminated. Previously, the Company had measured compensation expense associated with these awards at the date of grant and had not adjusted that measurement for subsequent changes in their market value (fixed accounting). As a result, the Company has restated its selling, general and administrative expenses from continuing operations, related income tax expense and unearned compensation for the three and six months ended November 1, 2003. The effect of this restatement is as follows (amounts in thousands):

Consolidated Statements of Income	Three Months Ended		Six Months Ended

3. Discontinued Operations

During the second quarter of fiscal 2004, which ended November 1, 2003, the Company committed to a plan, and reached an agreement, to sell certain of its subsidiary companies (generally known as Anchor Bay Entertainment) within its North Coast Entertainment (NCE) business segment. The sale of Anchor Bay Entertainment allows the Company to focus on its core category management and distribution competencies. In accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 144, Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets, the financial results of these subsidiary companies are reported separately as discontinued operations in the Company's Consolidated Statements of Income for all periods presented, since the ongoing operations and cash flows of these companies are eliminated from the ongoing operations of the Company upon completion of the sale. The Company does not have any continuing involvement in the operations of these companies after the disposal transaction. The purchaser has requested certain adjustments which remain unresolved. The Company does not believe that there is a reasonable basis for these adjustments and therefore the potential exposure is in the range of zero to $7,000,000. However, since no assurance can be given to the resolution of these unresolved requested adjustments, as they are neither probable nor estimatable, no accrual has been recorded for these items.

Additionally, in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2004, a licensor of Anchor Bay Entertainment exercised its right to audit its royalty statements. As a result of this audit, the licensor has asserted a claim against Anchor Bay Entertainment for royalties it believes are due them, in the amount of $5,600,000 including interest. Pursuant to the Anchor Bay Entertainment sale agreement, the Company is potentially liable for certain royalty audit claims. During the second quarter of fiscal 2005, the Company recorded a pre-tax charge of $758,000 ($483,000 after tax or $0.02 per diluted share), representing its best estimate of the amounts it expects to pay to settle this matter. This charge was included in discontinued operations in the Company's Consolidated Statements of Income. The Company's maximum exposure to settle this matter is $5,600,000.

4. Stock Plans

The Company has stock-based compensation plans in the form of stock options, performance shares and restricted stock. Prior to fiscal 2004, and after the restatement discussed in Note 2 of Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements, the Company accounted for these plans under the recognition and measurement provisions of Accounting Principles Board (APB) Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees and FIN No. 44, Accounting for Certain Transactions Involving Stock Compensation (an Interpretation of APB Opinion No. 25). As more fully described in Note 2 of Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements, during the fourth quarter of fiscal year 2004, the Company began to account for all stock options granted prior to fiscal 2004 under the variable accounting method. Under variable accounting, the excess of market value over the option price of outstanding stock options is determined at each reporting period and aggregate compensation expense is adjusted and recognized over the vesting period. Compensation expense associated with vested options continues to be adjusted to the market value of the options until the options are either exercised or terminated.

Effective May 4, 2003, the Company adopted the fair value recognition provisions of SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation. The Company selected the prospective transition method, as defined in SFAS No. 148, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation Transition and Disclosure, an amendment to SFAS No. 123. Under the prospective method, all stock-based awards issued after May 3, 2003 are accounted for utilizing the fair value provisions of SFAS No. 123 and are expensed over the vesting period.

The pre-tax costs related to stock-based compensation included in the determination of net income for the three and six months ended October 30, 2004 was $1,252,000 and $2,424,000, respectively, and $2,040,000 and $3,298,000, respectively, for the three and six months ended November 1, 2003. The following table illustrates the effect on net income and earnings per share if the fair value recognition provisions of SFAS No. 123 had been applied to all stock-based awards for each period presented (in thousands of dollars except per share data):

6. Pension Plan

The Company has two defined benefit pension plans (Pension Benefits) that cover substantially all full-time U.S. and Canadian employees. In addition, the Company has one nonqualified post retirement plan, Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan (SERP), which covers select employees. The information below, for all periods presented, combines U.S. and Canadian pension plans, and discloses SERP information separately.

As of October 30, 2004, fiscal 2005 contributions to the Company's defined benefit pension plans and SERP were $4,861,000 and $1,500,000, respectively. The Company presently anticipates contributing an additional $171,000 to the defined benefit pension plans in fiscal 2005 for a total of $5,032,000, and no additional contributions to SERP.

7. New Accounting Pronouncements

In November 2004, SFAS No. 151, Inventory Costs, an amendment of ARB No. 43, Chapter 4 was issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board. SFAS No. 151 requires that items such as idle facility expense, excessive spoilage, double freight and re-handling costs be recognized as charges in the current period. This Statement also requires that allocation of fixed production overheads to the costs of conversion be based on the normal capacity of the production facilities. The Company has evaluated the impact of SFAS No. 151 and does not expect that this Statement will have an impact on its operating results.

8. Segment Information

As described in Note 3 of Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements, the Company sold certain subsidiary companies in the second quarter of fiscal 2004, all of which had previously been reported in the NCE business segment. As a result of the sale of these subsidiary companies, beginning in fiscal 2005, the Company's operations are comprised of only one business segment, Handleman Entertainment Resources (H.E.R.). H.E.R. is responsible for music category management and distribution operations.

The accounting policies of this segment are the same as those described in Note 1, Accounting Policies, contained in the Company's Form 10-K for the year ended May 1, 2004. Segment data includes a charge allocating corporate costs to the operating segment. The Company evaluates performance of its segments and allocates resources to them based on income before interest, income taxes and minority interest (segment income).

Fiscal 2004 amounts below represent all H.E.R. operations, as well as activity from remaining NCE operations other than from those companies which were sold (as those amounts are classified as discontinued operations).

The tables below present information about reported segments for the three months ended October 30, 2004 and November 1, 2003 (in thousands of dollars):

11. Contingencies

In January 2002, Kmart Corporation filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection and requested that the Bankruptcy Court designate Handleman Company and several other companies' critical trade vendors. The Bankruptcy Court granted Kmart's request and as a result of being named a critical trade vendor, Handleman received $49.0 million in payment of Kmart's obligations. In April 2003, the United States District Court ruled that the Bankruptcy Court's designation regarding critical trade vendors was not appropriate under the Bankruptcy Code. In May 2003, Kmart emerged from bankruptcy. In February 2004, the Court of Appeals affirmed the April 2003 District Court ruling. Also in June 2003, during the pendency of its appeal to the Court of Appeals, Kmart filed a complaint before the Bankruptcy Court requesting that the Bankruptcy Court require the Company to repay the $49.0 million critical trade vendor payment, although the April 2003 District Court's order did not require repayment of the amounts received by the critical trade vendors. In November 2004, the United States Supreme Court denied the Company's request to grant a writ of certiorari to review of this matter. The Company's position is that, as a result of being named a critical trade vendor, it granted economic concessions to Kmart and gave up certain rights with an aggregate economic value substantially equivalent to the $49.0 million payment received. In addition, see Note 3 of Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements for a discussion of contingencies related to discontinued operations. There are no additional pending legal proceedings to which the Registrant or any of its subsidiaries is a party, other than routine legal matters which are incidental to the business and the ultimate outcome of which is not expected to be material to future results of consolidated operations, financial position and cash flows. The Company has provided for all claims and legal proceedings based on its best estimate of the amounts it expects to pay.

Item 2.

Handleman Company
Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

The Company had previously operated in two business segments: Handleman Entertainment Resources (H.E.R.) and North Coast Entertainment (NCE). H.E.R. consists of music category management and distribution operations principally in North America and the United Kingdom (UK). NCE encompassed the Company's proprietary operations, which included music and video product. As a result of the sale of certain subsidiary companies, as discussed below, beginning in fiscal 2005, the Company's operations are comprised only of one business segment, H.E.R. Reference should be made to Note 8 of Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information regarding segments.

During the second quarter of fiscal 2004, which ended November 1, 2003, the Company committed to a plan, and reached an agreement, to sell certain of its subsidiary companies (generally known as Anchor Bay Entertainment) within its NCE business segment. In accordance with accounting standards, the financial results of these subsidiary companies are reported separately as discontinued operations in the Company's Consolidated Statements of Income for all periods presented, since the ongoing operations and cash flows of these companies are eliminated from the ongoing operations of the Company upon completion of the sale. As a result, income from continuing operations for the second quarter and six-month periods, for both fiscal years presented, substantially included only H.E.R. operations.

The Company's Consolidated Financial Statements for the three and six months ended November 1, 2003 have been restated to reflect certain stock option awards as variable due to their settlement arrangements and pursuant to Financial Accounting Standards Board Interpretation No. 44, Accounting for Certain Transactions Involving Stock Compensation (an Interpretation of APB Opinion No. 25). Under variable accounting, the excess of market value over the option price of outstanding stock options is determined at each reporting period and aggregate compensation expense is adjusted and recognized over the vesting period. Compensation expense associated with vested options continues to be adjusted to the market value of the options until the options are either exercised or terminated. Previously, the Company had measured compensation expense associated with these awards at the date of grant and had not adjusted that measurement for subsequent changes in their market value (fixed accounting). This change increased selling, general and administrative expenses in the Company's Consolidated Statements of Income and had no effect on cash. Reference should be made to Note 2 of Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information and a summary of the results of the restated financial statements for the period ended November 1, 2003.

Overview

Net income for the second quarter of fiscal 2005 was $8.2 million or $.36 per diluted share, compared to $9.9 million or $.40 per diluted share for the second quarter of fiscal 2004. Net income for the second quarter of this fiscal year included income from continuing operations of $8.6 million or $.38 per diluted share and a loss from discontinued operations of $0.5 million or $.02 per diluted share, compared to income from continuing operations of $8.2 million or $.33 per diluted share and income from discontinued operations of $1.7 million or $.07 per diluted share for the same period last year.

Net income for the first six months of fiscal 2005 was $9.1 million or $.39 per diluted share, compared to $11.2 million or $.45 per diluted share for the first six months of fiscal 2004. Net income for the first six months of fiscal 2005 included income from continuing operations of $9.6

million or $.41 per diluted share and a loss from discontinued operations of $0.5 million or $.02 per diluted share, compared to income from continuing operations of $8.6 million $.35 per diluted share and income from discontinued operations of $2.6 million or $.10 per diluted share for the first six months of fiscal 2004.

Results of Operations

Unless otherwise noted, the following discussion relates only to results from continuing operations.

Revenues for the second quarter of fiscal 2005 increased 9% to $295.3 million from $269.9 million for the second quarter of fiscal 2004. The improvement in year-over-year revenues was mainly due to higher revenues of $24.2 million and $6.0 million in the United States (U.S.) and Canadian operations, respectively, over the second quarter of last fiscal year, resulting from higher consumer purchases of music in mass merchant retail stores. These increases were offset, in part, by a $3.8 million decline in revenues within the Mexico operation, which was attributable to the cessation of operations in that country during the first quarter of fiscal 2005.

Revenues for the first six months of fiscal 2005 were $527.4 million, an 11% increase over revenues of $475.2 million for the first six months of fiscal 2004. The improvement in year-over-year revenues was mainly due to increased revenues in the United Kingdom (UK) and U.S. of $25.5 million and $22.8 million, respectively, over the comparable prior year period. The increase in UK revenues was equally attributable to growth in the DVD and music markets. The increase in U.S. revenues was primarily the result of higher consumer purchases in the second quarter of this fiscal year, as discussed previously. Canadian revenues also increased $11.4 million during the first six months of fiscal 2005 over 2004, primarily due to improving conditions in the Canadian music industry. These increases were partially offset by a decline in revenues of $6.6 million in the Mexico operation due to the cessation of operations within that country in the first quarter of this fiscal year, as previously mentioned.

Consolidated direct product costs as a percentage of revenues was 79.8% for the second quarter ended October 30, 2004, compared to 79.5% for the second quarter ended November 1, 2003. Direct product costs for the second quarters ended October 30, 2004 and November 1, 2003 included costs associated with acquiring and preparing inventory for distribution of $4.0 million and $2.5 million, respectively. Consolidated direct product costs as a percentage of revenues was 80.5% for the first six months of fiscal 2005, compared to 79.0% for the first six months of fiscal 2004. The increase in direct product costs for the second quarter and six months ended October 30, 2004 was due to a higher proportion of revenues from promotional products, which carry a higher direct product cost as a percentage of revenues than the Company's overall direct product cost percentage. Direct product costs for the first six months of fiscal 2005 and 2004 included costs associated with acquiring and preparing inventory for distribution of $6.6 million and $4.9 million, respectively.

Consolidated selling, general and administrative (SG&A) expenses were $47.6 million or 16.1% of revenues for the second quarter of fiscal 2005, compared to $43.5 million or 16.1% of revenues for the second quarter of fiscal 2004. Consolidated SG&A expenses for the first six months of this year were $90.4 million or 17.2% of revenues, compared to $86.3 million or 18.2% of revenues for the first six months of last year. The reduction in SG&A expense as a percentage of revenues for the first six months of this fiscal year compared to the first six months of last year was primarily due to higher revenues this fiscal year and the Company's continued focus on improving productivity and expense control.

Income before interest and income taxes (operating income) for the second quarter of fiscal 2005 was $11.9 million, compared to operating income of $11.8 million for the second quarter of fiscal 2004. Operating income for the first six months of this fiscal year was $12.3 million, compared to $13.2 million for the first six months of last fiscal year. The lower operating income for the first six-month period of this fiscal year was mainly due to a reduction in operating income in the U.S. of $6.5 million, which was the result of higher direct product costs as a percentage of revenues, as previously discussed. This decrease in operating income was partially offset by increases in operating income in the UK and Canada of $2.9 million and $2.5 million, respectively, predominately due to the higher fiscal year-to-date revenues in those markets.

Edgar Filing: HANDLEMAN CO /MI/ - Form 10-Q

Investment income, net for the second quarter of fiscal 2005 was $1.3 million, compared to investment expense, net of $0.2 million for the second quarter of fiscal 2004. During the second quarter of fiscal 2005, the Company recorded investment income of $0.6 million related to investment gains on assets held for the Company's Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan. In addition, investment income was greater in the second quarter of this fiscal year compared to last year's second quarter due to the higher cash balances this year on which interest income was earned. During the second quarter of last year, the Company prepaid its outstanding debt under a senior note agreement with a group of insurance companies, in the amount of $7.1 million ($3.5 million was scheduled to mature in February 2004, with the remaining $3.6 million scheduled to mature in February 2005). As a result of the early payment, the Company incurred a pre-payment cost of $0.5 million, which is included in investment expense, net for fiscal 2004. The Company would have incurred interest expense of $0.6 million had it held the senior note to maturity. Investment income, net for the first six months of fiscal 2005 was $2.0 million, compared to approximately break-even for the first six months of fiscal 2004.

The effective income tax rates for the second quarters of fiscal 2005 and 2004 were 34.5% and 29.2%, respectively. The lower tax rate last year was primarily due to benefits recognized from certain operating losses the Company incurred during the first quarter of fiscal 2004, which were recognized in the second quarter. The effective income tax rate for the first six months of fiscal 2005 was 33.4%, compared to 34.7% for the same period last year.

Other

Accounts receivable at October 30, 2004 was $236.9 million, compared to $216.4 million at May 1, 2004. The increase in accounts receivable was attributable to certain changes in customer payment terms during the second quarter of fiscal 2005.

Merchandise inventories at October 30, 2004 was $200.6 million, compared to $105.5 million at May 1, 2004. The increase in merchandise inventories was primarily due to increased inventory purchases to support the higher sales level anticipated in the third quarter of fiscal 2005 due to the upcoming holiday season.

Accounts payable was $212.7 million at October 30, 2004, compared to $129.8 million at May 1, 2004. The increase in accounts payable was mainly a result of the higher inventory purchases, as previously discussed.

Debt, current was $25.0 million at October 30, 2004, compared to a zero liability balance at May 1, 2004. This increase was due to borrowings against the Company's line of credit in order to cover working capital requirements.

Accrued and other liabilities decreased to $31.9 million at October 30, 2004, from $46.5 million at May 1, 2004. The decrease was predominately related to a decrease in accrued compensation related items.

During the second quarter of fiscal 2005, the Company repurchased 1,085,000 shares of its common stock at an average price of $21.07 per share. As of October 30, 2004, the Company has repurchased 4.3 million shares, or 84% of the shares under the current 20% share repurchase program authorized by its Board of Directors.

On September 8, 2004, the Company's Board of Directors approved an amendment to the Company's 1998 Stock Option and Incentive Plan and 2001 Stock Option and Incentive Plan. As a result of that amendment, a copy of which is attached to this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q as

In January 2002, Kmart Corporation filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection and requested that the Bankruptcy Court designate Handleman Company and several other companies' critical trade vendors. The Bankruptcy Court granted Kmart's request and as a result of being named a critical trade vendor Handleman received $49.0 million in payment of Kmart's obligations. In April 2003, the United States District Court ruled that the Bankruptcy Court's designation regarding critical trade vendors was not appropriate under the Bankruptcy Code. In May 2003, Kmart emerged from bankruptcy. In February 2004, the Court of Appeals affirmed the April 2003 District Court ruling. Also in June 2003, during the pendency of its appeal to the Court of Appeals, Kmart filed a complaint before the Bankruptcy Court requesting that the Bankruptcy Court require the Company to repay the $49.0 million critical trade vendor payment, although the April 2003 District Court's order did not require repayment of the amounts received by the critical trade vendors. In November 2004, the United States Supreme Court denied the Company's request to grant a writ of certiorari to review of this matter. The Company's position is that, as a result of being named a critical trade vendor, it granted economic concessions to Kmart, and gave up certain rights, with an aggregate economic value substantially equivalent to the $49.0 million payment received. There are no additional pending legal proceedings to which the Registrant or any of its subsidiaries is a party, other than routine legal matters which are incidental to the business and the ultimate outcome of which is not expected to be material to future results of consolidated operations, financial position and cash flows. The Company has provided for all claims and legal proceedings based on its best estimate of the amounts it expects to pay.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company has an unsecured line of credit arranged with a consortium of banks. During the second quarter of fiscal 2005, the credit agreement was amended whereby the expiration date was extended one year to August 2007 and the line of credit was reduced from $170.0 million to $150.0 million. A copy of the Third Amendment to Credit Agreement is attached to this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q as Exhibit 10.1. Management believes that the revolving credit agreement, as amended, along with cash provided from operations, will provide sufficient liquidity to fund the Company's day-to-day operations, including seasonal increases in working capital, as well as repurchases of common stock under the Company's stock repurchase program. As previously discussed, the Company had borrowings of $25.0 million against its line of credit at October 30, 2004, and no borrowings as of May 1, 2004.

On September 8, 2004, the Company announced a quarterly cash dividend of $0.07 per share. As a result, $1.6 million was paid on October 8, 2004 to shareholders of record at the close of business on September 23, 2004. For the six months ended October 30, 2004, dividends totaling $3.2 million have been paid to shareholders, compared to $1.7 million paid in the comparable six-month period last year (the Company initiated the payment of cash dividends beginning in the second quarter of last fiscal year).

Net cash used by operating activities for the six months ended October 30, 2004 was $23.1 million, compared to net cash provided from operating activities of $6.8 million for the same six-month period of last year. The decrease in cash flows from operating activities was primarily related to unfavorable year-over-year changes in inventory and other operating asset and liability balances of $28.0 million and $11.0 million, respectively, and a decrease of $9.9 million in non-cash charges compared to the same period of last year (principally recoupment/amortization of acquired rights). The above items were partially offset by favorable year-over-year changes in accounts receivable and accounts payable balances of $13.2 million and $7.8 million, respectively.

Net cash used by investing activities decreased to $10.4 million for the six months ended October 30, 2004 from net cash used by investing activities of $13.0 million for the six months ended November 1, 2003. This change was primarily a result of the absence, this year, of additions to acquired rights as a result of the sale of the Anchor Bay Entertainment business unit in the second quarter of last year; the Company incurred $6.5 million in additions to acquired rights in the first six months of last year. This decrease was partially offset by a $4.0 million increase in additions to property and equipment in the first six months of this fiscal year over the comparable period last year, mainly due to the Company's investment in its field sales technology.

Table of Contents

Net cash used by financing activities decreased to $8.2 million for the six months ended October 30, 2004 from $29.5 million for the comparable six-month period of last year. This change in cash flows from financing activities was mainly due to increased borrowing levels in the first six months of this year versus the comparable period last year, partially offset by increased repurchases of the Company's common stock and higher dividend payments this year over the same six-month period of last year.

The following table summarizes the Company's cash obligations and commitments as of October 30, 2004, along with their expected effect on liquidity and cash flows in future periods (in thousands of dollars):

	Total	Less than 1 Year	1 3 Years	4 5 Years	After 5 Years
Debt obligations	$ 25,000	$ 25,000	$	$	$
Operating leases and other commitments	25,358	4,348	13,204	2,865	4,941
Less: operating sub-leases	(379)	(211)	(168)
Other long-term obligations	2,161	1,487	674
Purchase obligations	104,640	8,125	34,069	22,020	40,426

Purchase obligations in the above table includes commitments for information technology related services.

Outlook

The mass merchant retailer segment of the music industry, in which the Company's current customer base primarily resides, continues to post increases in sales of music product and gain market share within the industry. Specifically, in the U.S. market, during the 10 calendar months ended October 2004, mass merchant music sales increased nearly 10% over the comparable prior year period, while overall music industry sales increased only 4% during the same period. As a result, mass merchant retailers now account for 36% of all music sold in the U.S., a 2% increase from its 34% market share for the prior year. These improvements were achieved despite the fact that the rate of overall sales growth this calendar year within the music industry has recently moderated. Due to this recent slowing in the growth rate of music sales, the Company remains cautiously optimistic about revenues during the final two quarters of its fiscal year. The Company does not expect to achieve the 11% growth rate achieved during the first six months this year, and therefore, expects revenues from continuing operations for fiscal 2005 to improve in the mid to high single digits, in percentage terms, over revenues from continuing operations in fiscal 2004. This estimate is based on (i) revenues generated by the Company's current customer base, and (ii) numerous other factors, including the ongoing improvement in music industry sales, anticipated post-holiday returns from customers, and the competitive nature of retail pricing. Direct product costs, as a percentage of revenues, for fiscal 2005 is expected to continue to be higher than prior year levels, for the reasons previously described. The Company also expects to continue to gain operating efficiencies through fiscal 2005, and thus expects SG&A expenses, as a percentage of revenues, to be stable or decline from previous year levels. The Company anticipates an effective income tax rate in the range of 35-36% for fiscal 2005. Finally, the Company expects to continue to repurchase shares through its existing share repurchase program. As a result, the Company expects fully diluted earnings per share from continuing operations for fiscal 2005 to be in the range of $1.52-$1.58, compared to earnings of $1.38 per diluted share from continuing operations for fiscal 2004.

Item 4. Controls And Procedures

An evaluation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rule 13a-15(e)) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Act) as of October 30, 2004 was carried out under the supervision and with the participation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer and several other members of the Company's senior management. The Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures, as currently in effect, are effective in ensuring that the information required to be disclosed by the Company in the reports it files or submits under the Act is (i) accumulated and communicated to the Company's management (including the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer) in a timely manner, and (ii) recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms. There have been no changes in internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rule 13a-15(f) of the Act) during the second fiscal quarter ended October 30, 2004 that have materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

The Company intends to continually review and evaluate the design and effectiveness of its disclosure controls and procedures and to improve its controls and procedures over time and to correct any deficiencies that it may discover in the future. The goal is to ensure that senior management has timely access to all material financial and non-financial information concerning the Company's business. While the Company believes the present design of its disclosure controls and procedures is effective to achieve its goal, future events affecting its business may cause the Company to modify its disclosure controls and procedures.
