NOTES TO THE UNAUDITED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1 Basis of Presentation

Fox Entertainment Group, Inc. (the Company) is principally engaged in the development, production and worldwide distribution of feature films and television programs, television broadcasting and cable network programming. The Company is a majority-owned subsidiary of News Corporation which, as of December 31, 2004, held equity and voting interests in the Company of approximately 82% and 97%, respectively.

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with US generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) for interim financial information and with the instructions to Form 10-Q and Article 10 of Regulation S-X. In the opinion of management, all adjustments consisting only of normal recurring adjustments necessary for a fair presentation have been reflected in these unaudited consolidated financial statements. Operating results for the interim periods presented are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2005.

These interim unaudited consolidated financial statements and notes thereto should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company's Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2004 as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires that management make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities as of the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Because of the use of estimates inherent in the financial reporting process, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Certain fiscal 2004 amounts have been reclassified to conform to the fiscal 2005 presentation.

The Company follows the disclosure-only provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation, and in accordance with its provisions, applies the intrinsic value method set forth in Accounting Principles Board Opinion (APB) No. 25 Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees.

The following table reflects the effect on net income and earnings per share as if the Company had applied the fair value recognition provisions for stock-based employee compensation. These pro forma effects may not be representative of future amounts since the estimated fair value of stock options on the date of grant is amortized to expense over the vesting period and additional options may be granted in future years.

Note 3 Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In December 2004, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued SFAS No. 123(R), Share-Based Payment. This standard will require the cost of employee compensation paid with equity instruments to be measured based on grant-date fair values. That cost will be recognized over the vesting period. SFAS No. 123(R) will become effective for the Company in the first quarter of fiscal 2006. An illustration of the impact on the Company using a Black-Scholes option valuation methodology is presented in Note 1 Basis of Presentation.

In October 2004, the American Jobs Creation Act (the Act) was signed into law. The Act provides for a special one-time tax deduction of 85% for certain foreign earnings that are repatriated, as defined in the Act. In December 2004, the FASB issued a FASB Staff Position, Accounting and Disclosure Guidance for the Foreign Earnings Repatriation Provision within the American Jobs Creation Act of 2004 (FSP FAS 109-2). FSP FAS 109-2 allows companies additional time to evaluate the effect of the Act as to whether unrepatriated foreign earnings continue to qualify for the SFAS No. 109 exception regarding non-recognition of deferred tax liabilities and would require explanatory disclosures from those who need the additional time. Through December 31, 2004, the Company has not provided deferred taxes on substantially all of the undistributed earnings of foreign subsidiaries since substantially all such earnings were expected to be permanently invested in foreign operations but has started an evaluation of the effects of the repatriation provision. Whether the Company will ultimately take advantage of this provision depends on a number of factors, including reviewing future Congressional or Treasury Department guidance, before a determination can be made. The range of possible amounts that the Company is considering for repatriation under this provision is up to approximately $300 million. The related potential range of income tax is up to approximately $20 million.

NOTES TO THE UNAUDITED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 5 Borrowings

In May 2004, the Company ended the transfer term under the New Millennium II Agreement, the Company's film financing vehicle, and will no longer draw any borrowings under the facility. In accordance with the terms of the termination, the Company will repay $636 million of the facility in fiscal 2005 and $23 million in fiscal 2006. During the six months ended December 31, 2004, the Company repaid $507 million of the facility. At December 31, and June 30, 2004, $153 million and $659 million, respectively, remained outstanding and were included in Borrowings on the consolidated balance sheets and the corresponding interest expense was included in Interest expense, net in the unaudited consolidated statements of operations. Subsequent to December 31, 2004, the Company repaid principal of $83 million of the facility.

Note 6 DIRECTV Transaction

On December 22, 2003, the Company acquired a 34% interest in Hughes Electronics Corporation (Hughes) for total consideration of approximately $6.8 billion from News Corporation. News Corporation transferred its entire 34% interest in Hughes to the Company in exchange for two promissory notes totaling $4.5 billion and approximately 74.5 million shares of the Company's Class A common stock valued at $2.3 billion (the Exchange). One of the promissory notes the Company issued to News Corporation is in the amount of $2 billion, bears interest at a rate of LIBOR plus 1% per annum, and matures on June 30, 2009. The other promissory note the Company issued to News Corporation is in the amount of $2.5 billion, bears interest at 8% per annum, and has a maturity date of June 30, 2009, which can be extended at the Company's option for not more than two successive one-year periods. The issuance of approximately 74.5 million shares of Class A common stock to News Corporation increased its equity interest in the Company from approximately 81% to approximately 82% while its voting power remained at approximately 97%. For financial reporting purposes, in accordance with Emerging Issues Task Force No. (EITF) 90-5, Exchanges of Ownership Interest between Entities under Common Control, the Company recognized the Exchange based upon the acquired basis of News Corporation and issued equity to News Corporation at that value. The Company is accounting for its interest in Hughes in accordance with APB No. 18, The Equity Method of Accounting for Investments in Common Stock.

Subsequent to the above transaction, Hughes changed its corporate name to The DIRECTV Group, Inc. (DIRECTV).

Investments in equity affiliates primarily reflects the Company's investment in DIRECTV and includes the excess of fair value over the Company's proportionate share of DIRECTV's underlying net assets at December 22, 2003 as adjusted to record such net assets at fair value, most notably the adjustment to the carrying value of DIRECTV's SPACEWAY and PanAmSat businesses and assets and its deferred subscriber acquisition costs. This excess, approximately $3.6 billion, has been allocated to finite-lived intangibles, which are being amortized over lives ranging from 6-20 years, and to certain indefinite-lived intangibles and goodwill, which are not subject to amortization in accordance with SFAS No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets.

Summarized financial information for DIRECTV accounted for under the equity method is as follows:

The Company's share of DIRECTV's losses for the six months ended December 31, 2004 was $176 million and includes the Company's share of DIRECTV's increased loss from its sale of PanAmSat resulting from a reduction in the sales proceeds, the Company's portion of the SPACEWAY program impairment and the amortization of certain finite-lived intangibles.

Note 7 Other Acquisitions and Disposals

In December 2003, the Company sold its 50% direct ownership interests in SportsChannel Chicago Associates (SportsChannel Chicago) and SportsChannel Pacific Associates (SportsChannel Bay Area) (collectively the SportsChannels) to subsidiaries of Regional Programming Partners (RPP) for consideration of $150 million. This consideration was paid in the form of two three-year promissory notes issued by the subsidiaries of RPP, which own only the acquired interests in the SportsChannels, in an aggregate principal amount of $150 million and bearing interest at prime plus 1% per annum. The notes are secured by a pledge of 100% of the interests in SportsChannel Bay Area. Upon the close of this sale, the SportsChannels are held 100% by RPP and indirectly 60% by Rainbow Media Sports Holdings, Inc. and 40% by the Company. The Company recognized a net gain on the sale of the SportsChannels of $9 million, which was reflected in Other, net in the unaudited consolidated statements of operations for the three months ended December 31, 2003.

In December 2003, the Company acquired News Broadcasting Japan, a cable and satellite channel in Japan, from News Corporation for net consideration of approximately $38 million based upon an independent valuation. The Company acquired this entity to expand its international cable channel ownership. At December 31, 2003, the net purchase price of $38 million was included in Due to affiliates of News Corporation and the Company recorded the net assets acquired at News Corporation's historical cost of $8 million. The excess $30 million of purchase price was recorded as a reduction to Retained earnings in accordance with EITF 90-5.

In February 2004, the Company sold the Los Angeles Dodgers (Dodgers), together with Dodger Stadium and the team's training facilities in Vero Beach, Florida and the Dominican Republic, to entities owned by Frank McCourt (the McCourt Entities). The gross consideration for the sale of the Dodgers franchise and real estate assets was $421 million, subject to further adjustment. The consideration at closing was comprised of (i) $225 million in cash, (ii) a $125 million two-year note secured by non-team real estate, (iii) a $40 million four-year note secured by bank letters of credit and (iv) a $31 million three-year note that is convertible, at the Company's option, into preferred equity in the McCourt Entities if unpaid at maturity. The Company has agreed to remit $50 million during the first two years following the closing of the transaction to reimburse the McCourt Entities for certain pre-existing commitments. Pending the final determination of contractual adjustments, the sale resulted in an estimated loss of $19 million, which was recorded in Other, net in the unaudited consolidated statements of operations for the three months ended March 31, 2004.

In May 2004, the Company sold its 40% interest in the Staples Arena for aggregate consideration of $128 million. The Company recorded a loss on the sale of the interest in the Staples Arena of approximately $7 million in Other, net for the year ended June 30, 2004. In connection with the sale of this interest, the Company was released from several guarantees in the aggregate amount of $22.6 million outstanding at the time of the sale.

Edgar Filing: FOX ENTERTAINMENT GROUP INC - Form 10-Q

In December 2004, the Company sold its 20% investment in Rogers Sportsnet to Rogers Broadcasting Limited for $41 million. Rogers Sportsnet operates regional sports networks in Canada covering local sports events plus national programming. For the six months ended December 31, 2004, the Company recognized a gain of $39 million on this sale in Other, net in the unaudited consolidated statements of operations.

Note 8 Pension Plans and Other Postretirement Benefits

The Company sponsors non-contributory pension plans and retiree health and life insurance benefit plans covering specific groups of employees. The benefits payable for the non-contributory pension plans are based primarily on a formula factoring both an employee's years of service and pay near retirement. Participant employees are vested in the plans after five years of service. The Company's policy for all pension plans is to fund amounts, at a minimum, in accordance with the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. During the six months ended December 31, 2004 and 2003, the Company made discretionary contributions of $49 million and $25 million, respectively, to its pension plans. Plan assets consist principally of common stocks, marketable bonds and government securities. The retiree health and life insurance benefit plans offer medical and/or life insurance to certain full-time employees and eligible dependents that retire after fulfilling age and service requirements.

The components of net periodic benefit costs were as follows:

Other Postretirement Benefits Amendments

The fiscal 2005 postretirement net periodic costs reflect plan amendments implemented during the second quarter of fiscal 2004.

In December 2003, the Medicare Prescription Drug, Improvement and Modernization Act of 2003 (the Medicare Act) was signed into law. The Medicare Act introduced a prescription drug benefit under Medicare (Medicare Part D) and a federal subsidy to sponsors of retirement health care plans that provide a benefit that is at least actuarially equivalent to Medicare Part D. In accordance with FASB Staff Position 106-1, the Company elected to defer recognizing the effects of the Medicare Act on the accounting for its retirement health care plans in fiscal 2004. In May 2004, the FASB issued FASB Staff Position 106-2, providing final guidance on accounting for the Medicare Act. FASB Staff Position 106-2 was implemented by the Company in the first quarter of fiscal 2005. The adoption of FASB Staff Position 106-2 did not have a material impact on the financial condition and results of operations of the Company in fiscal 2005, but reduced the Company's Accumulated Postretirement Benefit Obligation (APBO) by approximately $5 million. The amortization of the $5 million reduction in APBO will reduce our future net postretirement benefit cost.

amortization. Depreciation and amortization expense includes the depreciation of property and equipment, as well as amortization of finite-lived intangible assets. Amortization of cable distribution investments represents a reduction against revenues over the term of a carriage arrangement and as such it is excluded from Operating income (loss) before depreciation and amortization. Operating income (loss) before depreciation and amortization is a non-GAAP measure and it should be considered in addition to, not as a substitute for, operating income (loss), net income (loss), cash flow and other measures of financial performance reported in accordance with GAAP. Operating income (loss) before depreciation and amortization does not reflect cash available to fund requirements and the items excluded from Operating income (loss) before depreciation and amortization, such as depreciation and amortization, are significant components in assessing the Company's financial performance.

Management believes that Operating income (loss) before depreciation and amortization is an appropriate measure for evaluating the operating performance of the Company's business segments. Operating income (loss) before depreciation and amortization, which is the information reported to and used by the Company's chief decision maker for the purpose of making decisions about the allocation of resources to segments and assessing their performance, provides management, investors and equity analysts a measure to analyze operating performance of each business segment and enterprise value against historical and competitors' data, although historical results, including Operating income (loss) before depreciation and amortization, may not be indicative of future results as operating performance is highly contingent on many factors including customer tastes and preferences.

NOTES TO THE UNAUDITED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 10 Commitments and Guarantees

Commitments

In November 2004, the Company entered into a six-year follow-on contract with the National Football League commencing with the 2006 season, increasing the Company's commitments with respect to sports programming rights by approximately $4.3 billion.

In November 2004, the Company entered into an agreement with the Bowl Championship Series from fiscal 2007 through fiscal 2010, increasing the Company's commitments with respect to sports programming rights by approximately $330 million.

Guarantees

The Company, News Corporation and certain of News Corporation's other subsidiaries are guarantors of various debt obligations of News Corporation and certain of its subsidiaries. The principal amount of indebtedness outstanding under such debt instruments as of December 31, and June 30, 2004 was approximately $11 billion and $10 billion, respectively. The debt instruments limit the ability of guarantors, including the Company, to subject their properties to liens, and certain of the debt instruments impose limitations on the ability of News Corporation and certain of its subsidiaries, including the Company, to incur indebtedness in certain circumstances. Such debt instruments mature at various times between 2005 and 2096, with a weighted average maturity of 20 years.

In August 2004, News Corporation, along with the Company and certain of News Corporation's other subsidiaries, issued a guarantee for the obligations of Sky Brasil, an equity affiliate of News Corporation, under a $210 million three-year credit agreement with JPMorgan Chase Bank and Citibank NA. In October 2004, News Corporation and DIRECTV announced a series of transactions that will result in the reorganization of the companies' direct-to-home satellite television platforms in Latin America. As part of these transactions, DIRECTV will acquire News Corporation's interests in Sky Brasil, the completion of which is subject to regulatory approval, and will assume all of News Corporation's obligations thereof, including those under the credit agreement guaranteed by the Company at closing. Given the strong financial position of the other guarantors, the Company believes it is highly unlikely it will be required to perform any of the obligations under the guarantee.

In the case of any event of default under such debt obligations, the Company will be directly liable to the creditors or debtholders. News Corporation has agreed to indemnify the Company from and against any obligations it may incur by reason of its guarantees of such debt obligations. As of December 31, 2004, News Corporation was in compliance with all of its debt covenants and had satisfied all financial ratios and tests and expects to remain in compliance and satisfy all such ratios and tests.

NOTES TO THE UNAUDITED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 12 Subsequent Events

On January 10, 2005, Fox Acquisition Corp, a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of News Corporation, made an offer to the holders of Class A common stock of the Company to exchange 1.90 shares of News Corporation's Class A common stock for each outstanding share of the Company's Class A common stock validly tendered and not withdrawn in the exchange offer (the Offer). News Corporation currently owns approximately 82% of the equity and 97% of the voting power of the Company through its ownership of approximately 59% of the outstanding shares of the Company's Class A common stock and 100% of the outstanding shares of the Company's Class B common stock. The Offer is subject to the non-waivable condition that at least a majority of the outstanding shares of the Company's Class A common stock not beneficially owned by News Corporation and its subsidiaries and affiliates are validly tendered and not withdrawn in the Offer as well as certain other conditions set forth in the Offer documents. The Offer will expire on February 22, 2005, unless it is extended by News Corporation. If News Corporation completes the Offer, it intends to effect a short form merger of the Company with and into Fox Acquisition Corp shortly thereafter. Each share of the Company's Class A common stock not acquired in the Offer, other than the shares owned by News Corporation, would be converted in the short form merger into 1.90 shares of News Corporation's Class A common stock.

The Company's Board of Directors formed a Special Committee which, on January 24, 2005, requested that the Company's stockholders take no action and not tender their Class A shares with respect to the Offer at the current time and instead defer making a determination whether to accept or reject the Offer until the Special Committee has advised the Company's stockholders of the Special Committee's position or recommendation, if any, with respect to the Offer.

Certain Legal Proceedings

On January 10, 2005, the Company received complaints relating to a number of purported class actions filed in Court of Chancery in the State of Delaware. The complaints generally allege, among other things, that News Corporation and the members of the Company's board of directors have breached fiduciary duties owed to the public stockholders of the Company, including as a result of News Corporation offering to acquire shares of the Company's Class A common stock at an unfair price and at a time that disadvantages the Company's stockholders. The complaints generally seek, declaratory and injunctive relief and damages in an unspecified amount. The Company believes that these claims are without merit and intends to vigorously contest the allegations.

The Company is currently aware of seventeen purported class action complaints that have been filed in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware challenging the Offer. The Delaware complaints are captioned: Allen v. News Corp., et al., No. 979-N; Mascarenhas v. Fox Entm t. Group, et al., No. 980-N; Shemesh v. Fox Entm t. Group, et al., No. 981-N; Striffler v. FEG Holdings, et al., No. 982-N; Howard Vogel Ret. Plan v. Powers, et al., No. 984-N; Doniger v. News Corp., et al., No. 985-N; Engle v. Murdoch, et al., No. 986-N; Shrank v. Murdoch, et al., No. 988-N; Blackman v. Fox Entm t. Group, et al., No. 991-N; Fishbone v. News Corp., et al., No. 994-N; Kennel v. News Corp., et al., No. 995-N; Millner v. News Corp., et al., No. 996-N; Pipefitters Locals v. Fox Entm t. Group, et al., No. 1003-N; Molinari v. News Corp., et al., C.A. No. 1018-N; Seaview Services v. Fox Entertainment, et al., C.A. No. 1026-N; Teachers Retirement System of Louisiana v. Powers, et al., C.A. No. 1033-N; and New Jersey Building Laborers Pension Fund v. Powers, et al., C.A. No. 1034. The Shrank action, No. 988-N, was voluntarily dismissed on January 19, 2005. The Company is also currently aware of two purported class action complaints raising substantially similar claims that have been filed in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, County of New York. The New York complaints are captioned: Shrank v. Murdoch, et al., Index No. 600114/2005; and Green Meadows Ptr. v. Fox Entertainment, et al., No. 100706/2005. On January 21, 2005, certain plaintiffs in the Delaware lawsuits filed a motion that seeks to consolidate the Delaware actions. In addition, News Corporation has filed motions to dismiss and to stay discovery, and the plaintiffs have filed a motion for expedited proceedings. On February 3, 2005, the Court of Chancery denied News Corporation's motion to stay discovery, and granted the plaintiffs' motion for expedited discovery and motion to consolidate.

All of the complaints generally allege, among other things, that News Corporation and the members of the Company's board of directors purportedly breached fiduciary duties owed to the public stockholders of the Company in connection with the Offer by: (1) offering to acquire their shares at an unfair price; (2) offering to acquire their shares at a time that disadvantages the public stockholders; (3) having the Company appoint directors who are neither independent nor disinterested to a special committee created to consider the Offer; and (4) failing to adequately disclose information material to the Offer, including disclosure with respect to the Company's 2005 budget.

As for relief, the plaintiffs seek, among other things: (1) an order that the complaints are properly maintainable as a class action; (2) a declaration that defendants have breached their fiduciary duties and other duties to the plaintiffs and other members of the purported class; (3) injunctive relief; (4) unspecified monetary damages; (5) attorneys' fees, costs and expenses; and (6) such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper. The Company believes that these claims are without merit and intends to vigorously contest these allegations.

INTRODUCTION

Management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations (MD&A) is intended to help provide an understanding of the Fox Entertainment Group, Inc.'s (the Company) financial condition, changes in financial condition and results of operations. MD&A is organized as follows:

Overview of our Business - This section provides a general description of the Company's businesses, as well as recent developments that have occurred during fiscal 2005 that the Company believes are important in understanding the results of operations and financial condition or to disclose known future trends.

Results of Operations - This section provides an analysis of the Company's results of operations for the three months and six months ended December 31, 2004 and 2003. This analysis is presented on both a consolidated and a segment basis. In addition, a brief description is provided of significant transactions and events that have an impact on the comparability of the results being analyzed.

Table of Contents

Liquidity and Capital Resources - This section provides an analysis of the Company's cash flows for the six months ended December 31, 2004 and 2003. Included in the discussion of outstanding debt is a discussion of the amount of financial capacity available to fund the Company's future commitments and obligations, as well as a discussion of other financing arrangements.

OVERVIEW OF OUR BUSINESS

The Company is a diversified entertainment company, which manages and reports its businesses in four segments:

Filmed Entertainment, which principally consists of the production and acquisition of live-action and animated motion pictures for distribution and licensing in all formats in all entertainment media worldwide, and the production of original television programming in the United States and Canada.

Television Stations, which principally consists of the operation of 35 full power broadcast television stations, including nine duopolies, in the United States. Of these stations, 25 are affiliated with the FOX network, nine with the UPN network and one is an independent station.

Television Broadcast Network, which principally consists of the broadcasting of network programming in the United States.

Cable Network Programming, which principally consists of the production and licensing of programming distributed through cable television systems and direct broadcast satellite (DBS) operators in the United States.

Filmed Entertainment

The Filmed Entertainment segment derives revenue from theatrical distribution, home entertainment sales and distribution through pay-per-view, pay television services and broadcast television. The revenues and operating results of the Filmed Entertainment segment are significantly affected by the timing of the Company's theatrical and home entertainment releases, the number of its original and returning television series that are aired by television networks and the number of its television series in off-network syndication. Theatrical release dates are determined by several factors, including timing of vacation and holiday periods and competition in the marketplace.

Operating costs incurred by the Filmed Entertainment segment include exploitation costs, primarily prints and advertising; the amortization of capitalized production, overhead and interest costs; and participations and talent residuals. Selling, general and administrative expenses include salaries, employee benefits, rent and other routine overhead.

Feature film and television production and distribution are speculative businesses since the revenues derived from the production and distribution of a feature film or television series depend primarily upon their acceptance by the public, which is difficult to predict. The commercial success of a feature film or television series also depends upon the quality and acceptance of other competing films and television series released into the marketplace at or near the same time, the availability of alternative forms of entertainment and leisure time activities, general economic conditions and other tangible and intangible factors, all of which can change and cannot be predicted with certainty. Further, the theatrical success of a feature film and the audience ratings for a television series are generally key factors in generating revenues from other distribution channels, such as home entertainment and premium pay television, with respect to feature films, and syndication, with respect to television series. The home entertainment market, more specifically DVDs, has emerged as the fastest growing revenue stream in the filmed entertainment industry.

Piracy continues to be a significant issue for the filmed entertainment industry, especially from online file sharing, which has expanded from music to movies and television programming due to changes in technology. The Company has taken, and will continue to take, a variety of actions to combat piracy, both individually and together with industry associations. To the extent that piracy in the filmed entertainment industry continues or increases, our revenues in this segment may be materially adversely impacted.

Table of Contents

Television Stations, Television Broadcast Network and Cable Network Programming

The two reportable television segments derive revenues principally from the sale of advertising time. Generally, advertising time is sold to national advertisers by the Fox Broadcasting Company (FOX) and to national spot and local advertisers by the Company's group of 35 owned and operated full power television broadcast stations (O&Os) in their respective markets. The Cable Network Programming segment also derives a portion of its revenues from national and local advertising sales. The sale of advertising time is affected by viewer demographics, program ratings, major sporting events, major political elections and general market conditions. Adverse changes in the general market conditions for advertising may affect revenues and operating results. Expenditures by advertisers tend to be cyclical, reflecting overall economic conditions, as well as buying patterns. A decline in the economic prospects of advertisers or the economy in general could alter current or prospective advertisers' spending priorities. This could cause our revenues and operating results to decline significantly in any given period, or in specific markets.

Rating points for the two reportable television segments and Cable Network Programming segment are factors that are also weighed when deciding on the advertising rates and the renegotiation of affiliate rates that the Company receives. Poor ratings can lead to a reduction in pricing and advertising spending. During the first half fiscal 2005, FOX's prime time ratings were lower than the corresponding period of fiscal 2004. The Company is focused on improving its programming lineup to maintain its share of the advertising market. The Company has a strong prime time lineup for the second half of fiscal 2005 including the return of 24 and American Idol, which we believe will improve ratings. At the Cable Network Programming segment, we continue to launch new and original programming and continue to examine opportunities to launch new Fox channels. The Company has announced the launch of a new reality cable channel to begin broadcast in fiscal 2005.

In April 2004, Nielsen Media Research (Nielsen) began to transition the existing local television ratings system to the use of Local People Meters (LPMs) in certain large markets. This transition to LPMs has adversely impacted the ratings of the O&Os in the markets where the transition has occurred. The fiscal 2004 transition adversely impacted the revenue of the Television Stations segment by less than 1% and the Company anticipates revenue of the Television Stations segment could be adversely impacted by less than 5% in fiscal 2005.

The Cable Network Programming segment derives a majority of its revenues from monthly affiliate fees received from cable television systems and DBS operators based on the number of its subscribers, net of the amortization of cable distribution investments (capitalized fees paid to a cable operator or DBS operator to facilitate the launch of a cable network).

We are dependent upon the maintenance of affiliation agreements with third party owned television stations, and there can be no assurance that these affiliation agreements will be renewed in the future on terms acceptable to us. The loss of a significant number of these affiliation arrangements could reduce the distribution of FOX thereby adversely affecting our ability to sell national advertising time. Similarly, our cable networks maintain affiliation and carriage arrangements that enable them to reach a large percentage of cable and direct broadcast satellite households across the United States. The loss of a significant number of these arrangements or the loss of carriage on basic programming tiers could reduce the distribution of our cable networks, which may also adversely affect such networks' revenues from subscriber fees and ability to sell national and local advertising time.

The most significant operating expenses of the two reportable television segments and the Cable Network Programming segment are expenses related to acquiring programming and the production and technical expenses related to operating the technical facilities of the broadcaster or cable network. Other expenses include promotional expenses related to improving the market visibility and awareness of the broadcaster or cable network and sales commissions paid to the in-house advertising sales force as well as salaries, employee benefits, rent and other routine overhead.

Edgar Filing: FOX ENTERTAINMENT GROUP INC - Form 10-Q

Sports programming rights contracts between the Company, on the one hand, and various professional sports leagues and teams, on the other, have varying duration and renewal terms. As these contracts expire, we may seek renewals on commercial terms. However, third parties may outbid the current rights holders for such rights contracts. In addition, professional sports leagues or teams may create their own networks or the renewal costs could substantially exceed the original contract cost. The loss of rights could impact the extent of the sports coverage offered by FOX, its affiliates, and our regional sports networks (RSNs), and could adversely affect our advertising and affiliate revenues. Conversely, if we are able to renew these contracts, our results could be adversely affected if escalations in sports programming rights costs are unmatched by increases in advertising rates and, in the case of cable networks, subscriber fees.

The Company has several multi-year sports rights agreements, including contracts with the National Football League (NFL) through fiscal 2012, contracts with the National Association of Stock Car Auto Racing (NASCAR) through fiscal 2013 and a contract with Major League Baseball (MLB) through fiscal 2007. These contracts provide the Company with the broadcast rights to certain national sporting events during their respective terms. The NASCAR contract contains certain early termination clauses that are exercisable by NASCAR. The costs of these sports contracts are charged to expense based on the ratio of each period's operating profits to estimated total remaining operating profit of the contract.

The profitability of these long-term national sports contracts as discussed above is based on the Company's best estimates at December 31, 2004 of directly attributable revenues and costs; such estimates may change in the future, and such changes may be significant. Should revenues decline from estimates applied at December 31, 2004, a loss will be recorded. Should revenues improve as compared to estimated revenues, the Company will have a positive operating profit, which will be recognized over the estimated remaining contract term.

In general, the television broadcasting and multichannel video programming and distribution industries in the United States are highly regulated by federal laws and regulations issued and administered by various federal agencies, including the Federal Communications Commission (FCC). The FCC generally regulates, among other things, the ownership of media (including ownership by non-U.S. citizens), broadcast and multichannel video programming and technical operations of broadcast and satellite licensees. Further, the United States Congress and the FCC currently have under consideration, and may in the future adopt, new laws, regulations and policies regarding a wide variety of matters that could, directly or indirectly, affect the operations and ownership of our U.S. media properties.

While the Company seeks to ensure compliance with federal indecency laws and related FCC regulations, the definition of indecency is subject to interpretation and there can be no assurance that the Company will not broadcast programming that is ultimately determined by the FCC to violate the prohibition against indecency. Such programming could subject the Company to regulatory review or investigation, fines, adverse publicity or other sanctions including the loss of station licenses.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Use of Operating income (loss) before depreciation and amortization

Operating income (loss) before depreciation and amortization, defined as operating income (loss) plus depreciation and amortization and the amortization of cable distribution investments, eliminates the variable effect across all business segments of non-cash depreciation and amortization. Depreciation and amortization expense includes the depreciation of property and equipment, as well as amortization of finite-lived intangible assets. Amortization of cable distribution investments represents a reduction against revenues over the term of a carriage arrangement and as such it is excluded from Operating income (loss) before depreciation and amortization. Operating income (loss) before depreciation and amortization is a non-GAAP measure and it should be considered in addition to, not as a substitute for, operating income (loss), net income (loss), cash flow and other measures of financial performance reported in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). Operating income (loss) before depreciation and amortization does not reflect cash available to fund requirements and the items excluded from Operating income (loss) before depreciation and amortization, such as depreciation and amortization, are significant components in assessing the Company's financial performance.

Management believes that Operating income (loss) before depreciation and amortization is an appropriate measure for evaluating the operating performance of the Company's business segments. Operating income (loss) before depreciation and amortization, which is the information reported to and used by the Company's chief decision maker for the purpose of making decisions about the allocation of resources to segments and assessing their performance, provides management, investors and equity analysts a measure to analyze operating performance of each business segment and enterprise value against historical and competitors' data, although historical results, including Operating income (loss) before depreciation and amortization, may not be indicative of future results as operating performance is highly contingent on many factors including customer tastes and preferences.

The following comparative discussion of the results of operations of the Company includes, among other factors, an analysis of changes in business segment Operating income (loss) before depreciation and amortization.

Overview. For the three months ended December 31, 2004, the Company's revenues increased $563 million from $3,380 million for the three months ended December 31, 2003 to $3,943 million. This 17% increase was primarily due to revenue increases at the Filmed Entertainment and Cable Network Programming segments. Operating expenses increased approximately 13% for the three months ended December 31, 2004 primarily due to higher film amortization and increased home entertainment marketing costs at the Filmed Entertainment segment. Selling, general and administrative expenses increased approximately 17% from the corresponding period of fiscal 2004 primarily due to employee costs in support of our growing businesses and the partial recovery in the corresponding period of fiscal 2004 of approximately $15 million of certain receivable claims against Adelphia Communications Corporation (Adelphia) which were previously written off. For the three months ended December 31, 2004, Operating income (loss) and Operating income (loss) before depreciation and amortization increased $194 million to $752 million and $188 million to $822 million, respectively, from the corresponding period of fiscal 2004. These increases were primarily due to the improved results at the Filmed Entertainment and Cable Network Programming segments noted above, as well as the absence of losses due to the sale of the Los Angeles Dodgers (Dodgers) in February 2004.

Equity losses of affiliates of $29 million for the three months ended December 31, 2004 increased $27 million from losses of $2 million in the corresponding period of fiscal 2004. This increase was primarily due to losses from the inclusion of the Company's share of the results of The DIRECTV Group, Inc. (DIRECTV), which was acquired on December 22, 2003. These losses were partially offset by improved results at Regional Programming Partners (RPP).

Net income for the three months ended December 31, 2004 was $431 million ($0.44 per share), an increase of $101 million from $330 million ($0.36 per share) in the corresponding period of fiscal 2004. This increase was due to increased operating results noted above. Additionally, the Company's weighted average shares outstanding for the three months ended December 31, 2004 increased to 974 million shares from 905 million shares for the corresponding period of fiscal 2004 primarily due to the issuance of 74 million shares in connection with the DIRECTV transaction.

Table of Contents

Filmed Entertainment. For the three months ended December 31, 2004, revenues at the Filmed Entertainment segment increased from $1,384 million to $1,879 million, or 36% primarily due to higher worldwide home entertainment revenues of film and television titles. Film titles include the successful theatrical releases of Day After Tomorrow, Garfield, Dodgeball and I, Robot, and improved performances from various library titles on DVD, compared to the corresponding period of fiscal 2004. Television titles contributing to this increase include 24, The Simpsons, and Family Guy. The Company's DVD revenues rose approximately 60% for the three months ended December 31, 2004 over the corresponding period of fiscal 2004, with 81% and 19% of DVD revenues generated from the sale and distribution of film titles and television titles, respectively. In addition, there was an increase in worldwide pay television revenue led by the domestic pay TV performances of Cheaper By The Dozen and Master and Commander: The Far Side of the World. The current quarter domestic releases included Sideways, Kinsey, Taxi, Flight of the Phoenix and Fat Albert. The corresponding period of fiscal 2004 included Cheaper by the Dozen, Stuck on You and Master and Commander: The Far Side of the World.

For the quarter ended December 31, 2004, the Filmed Entertainment segment reported Operating income of $406 million, an increase of $146 million, or 56%, from the corresponding period of fiscal 2004. Operating income before depreciation and amortization increased from $275 million for the quarter ended December 31, 2003 to $419 million. These improvements were due to the revenue increases noted above partially offset by increased home entertainment marketing and manufacturing costs, amortization of production and participation costs directly associated with the increase in revenues noted above and the disappointing result of Flight of the Phoenix.

Television Stations. For the three months ended December 31, 2004, the Television Stations segment's revenues were consistent with the corresponding period of fiscal 2004. The advertising market improved over the corresponding period of fiscal 2004 due to heavy political spending related to the Presidential election. Overall, the Company's O&Os estimated market share for the second quarter was 1.5% percentage points less than the corresponding period of fiscal 2004 due to disappointing ratings for FOX prime time and heavy political spending. Generally, an increase in local political spending contributes to a decrease in the O&O's market share as the O&O's proportional share of local political advertising has historically been lower than local stations affiliated with other major networks. For the three months ended December 31, 2004, the Television Stations segment generated Operating income of $278 million, which was $2 million higher than the corresponding period of fiscal 2004. This increase is primarily due to lower program amortization as a result of expired syndicated product that was partially offset by higher marketing costs for the November sweeps and higher news costs due to expansions of local news in several markets. Operating income before depreciation and amortization increased by $1 million to $290 million.

Television Broadcast Network. For the three months ended December 31, 2004, the Television Broadcast Network's revenues decreased $2 million to $858 million from $860 million in the corresponding period of fiscal 2004. This decrease was primarily due to a 12% decrease in prime time ratings, partially offset by an increase in NFL revenue due to higher pricing for advertising units. Operating losses for the Television Broadcast Network segment increased $26 million to a loss of $159 million and Operating losses before depreciation and amortization increased $24 million to $152 million compared to the corresponding period of fiscal 2004. The increase in operating losses was driven by revenue decreases noted above and higher prime time programming costs due primarily to an increase in license fees for returning series and the cancellation of certain new shows which was partially offset by improved sports programming performance.

Cable Network Programming. Total revenues for the Cable Network Programming segment increased by $70 million or approximately 12% from $565 million to $635 million for the three months ended December 31, 2004. Fox News Channel's (Fox News), the FX Network's (FX) and the RSNs' revenues increased 22%, 16%, and 4%, respectively, from the corresponding period of fiscal 2004, partially offset by the absence of revenues from the Dodgers, which was sold in February 2004.

At Fox News, advertising revenues increased 25% from the corresponding period of fiscal 2004 primarily due to an increase in advertising sales driven by higher national pricing. Affiliate revenue increased 15%, which can be attributed to an increase in subscribers from the corresponding period of fiscal 2004. As of December 31, 2004, Fox News reached approximately 87 million Nielsen households, a 2% increase over the corresponding period of fiscal 2004.

Edgar Filing: FOX ENTERTAINMENT GROUP INC - Form 10-Q

At FX, advertising revenues increased 19% over the corresponding period of fiscal 2004 due to higher ratings and improved pricing. Affiliate revenues increased 13% over the corresponding period of fiscal 2004, reflecting an increase in subscribers and average rates per subscriber. As of December 31, 2004, FX reached approximately 85 million Nielsen households, a 3% increase over the corresponding period of fiscal 2004.

Table of Contents

At the RSNs, affiliate revenues increased 7% over the corresponding period of fiscal 2004 primarily due to an increase in subscribers and higher average rates per subscriber. This improvement was partially offset by a 10% decrease in advertising revenues from the absence of National Hockey League (NHL) telecasts in the current period as a result of the lockout.

The Cable Network Programming segment reported Operating income of $227 million, an increase of $72 million from the corresponding period of fiscal 2004. These improvements were primarily driven by the revenue increases noted above as well as lower programming costs at the RSNs due to the NHL lockout. Partially offsetting these improvements were higher programming expenses for movies at FX, increased program expenses due to political coverage at Fox News and the partial recovery in the corresponding period of fiscal 2004 of approximately $15 million of certain receivable claims against Adelphia which were previously written off. Operating income before depreciation and amortization increased $67 million to $265 million from $198 million in the corresponding period of fiscal 2004.

Interest expense, net. Interest expense, net increased $55 million to $70 million for the three months ended December 31, 2004 from $15 million due to an increase in interest on the notes issued to News Corporation upon receipt of the DIRECTV investment in connection with the DIRECTV acquisition.

Equity losses of affiliates. Equity losses of affiliates of $29 million for the three months ended December 31, 2004 increased $27 million from losses of $2 million in the corresponding period of fiscal 2004. This increase was primarily due to losses from the inclusion of the Company's share of the results of DIRECTV, which was acquired on December 22, 2003. These losses were partially offset by increased results at RPP.

The Company's share of DIRECTV's losses for the three months ended December 31, 2004 was $77 million and includes the amortization of certain finite-lived intangibles. These results reflect the Company's allocation of the fair value of DIRECTV's assets and liabilities as of December 22, 2003 and, as required, excludes certain items that were recognized by DIRECTV as income and expense within its results.

The Company's share of RPP income increased primarily due to lower programming costs resulting from higher charges in the corresponding period of fiscal 2004 for player and management changes at Madison Square Garden's professional teams division and lower costs in the second quarter of fiscal 2005 due to the termination of its professional team rights at the Chicago RSN effective September 2004.

Other, net. For the three months ended December 31, 2004, Other, net included a gain of $39 million related to the sale of the Company's investment in Rogers Sportsnet. For the three months ended December 31, 2003, there was an additional estimated loss of $7 million recognized on the sale of the Dodgers with the total loss on the sale estimated to be $16 million.

Provision for income tax on a stand-alone basis. The effective tax rate for the second quarter of fiscal 2005 is 37.5% as compared to the second quarter of fiscal 2004 effective tax rate of 38.0%. The difference between the statutory federal income tax rate and the effective tax rates, for both periods, is primarily the result of state income taxes.

Overview of Results of Operations. For the six months ended December 31, 2004, the Company's revenues increased $694 million from $6,138 million for the six months ended December 31, 2003 to $6,832 million. This 11% increase was primarily due to revenue increases at the Filmed Entertainment and Cable Network Programming segments. Operating expenses increased approximately 9% for the six months ended December 31, 2004 due primarily to higher film amortization and increased marketing and manufacturing costs at the Filmed Entertainment segment. Selling, general and administrative expenses increased approximately 9% from the corresponding period of fiscal 2004 primarily due to employee costs in support of our growing businesses and the partial recovery in the corresponding period of fiscal 2004 of approximately $15 million of certain receivable claims against Adelphia which were previously written off. Depreciation and amortization expense decreased 6% from the corresponding period of fiscal 2004 primarily due to the sale of the Dodgers in February 2004. For the six months ended December 31, 2004, Operating income and Operating income before depreciation and amortization increased $258 million to $1,427 million and $248 million to $1,566 million, respectively, from the corresponding period of fiscal 2004. These increases were primarily due to improved results at the Cable Network Programming and Filmed Entertainment segments noted above, as well as the absence of losses due to the sale of the Dodgers in February 2004.

Equity losses of affiliates of $126 million for the six months ended December 31, 2004 declined $131 million from earnings of $5 million from the corresponding period of fiscal 2004. This decline was primarily due to losses from the inclusion of the Company's share of the results of DIRECTV, which was acquired on December 22, 2003. These losses were partially offset by improved results at RPP.

Net income for the six months ended December 31, 2004 was $751 million ($0.77 per share), an improvement of $20 million from $731 million ($0.81 per share) from the corresponding period of fiscal 2004. This improvement was due to the increased operating results noted above, partially offset by increased interest expense and increased equity losses as compared to the corresponding period of fiscal 2004.

Filmed Entertainment. For the six months ended December 31, 2004, revenues at the Filmed Entertainment segment increased from $2,634 million to $3,263 million, or 24%. This increase was primarily due to higher worldwide home entertainment revenues from film and television titles and worldwide theatrical revenues. Higher home entertainment revenues for film titles reflect the strong worldwide performances of the successful theatrical releases of Day After Tomorrow, Garfield, Dodgeball and I, Robot, and improved performances from various library titles on DVD as compared to the corresponding period of fiscal 2004. In addition, the home entertainment release of the Star Wars Trilogy and the distribution of the Passion of the Christ also contributed to the increase in home entertainment revenues. Television titles contributing to this increase include 24 and The Simpsons. The Company's DVD revenues rose approximately 47% for the six months ended December 31, 2004 over the corresponding period of fiscal 2004, with 81% and 19% of DVD revenues generated from the sale and distribution of film titles and television titles, respectively. The theatrical revenue increase was driven by several strong theatrical releases, including I, Robot and Alien vs. Predator, as well as continued worldwide contributions from fiscal 2004 releases Dodgeball, Garfield and Day After Tomorrow. The corresponding period of fiscal 2004 included the theatrical releases League of Extraordinary Gentlemen, Cheaper by the Dozen, Master and Commander: The Far Side of the World and 28 Days Later. Offsetting these revenue increases were decreased domestic syndication revenues due to fewer television series being available in the syndicated/cable marketplace as compared to the corresponding period of fiscal 2004.

For the six months ended December 31, 2004, the Filmed Entertainment segment reported Operating income of $700 million as compared to $593 million in the corresponding period of fiscal 2004. Operating income before depreciation and amortization increased from $620 million to $725 million as compared to the corresponding period of fiscal 2004. These improvements were due to the revenue increases noted above, partially offset by increased marketing and manufacturing costs, amortization of production and participation costs directly associated with the increase in revenues noted above and the disappointing result of Flight of the Phoenix.

Television Stations. For the six months ended December 31, 2004, the Television Stations segment's revenues decreased $4 million from the corresponding period of fiscal 2004 to $1,085 million. The advertising market improved over the corresponding period of fiscal 2004 due to heavy political spending and the Summer Olympics. Overall, the Company's O&Os estimated market share for the six months ended December 31, 2004 was 1.7% percentage points less than the corresponding period of fiscal 2004 due to the telecast of the Summer Olympics on a different network, disappointing ratings for Fox prime time and heavy political spending. Generally, an increase in local political spending contributes to a decrease in the O&O's market share as the O&O's proportional share of local political advertising has historically been lower than local stations affiliated with other major networks. For the six months ended December 31, 2004, the Television Stations segment generated Operating income of $502 million, which was $5 million, or 1% higher than the corresponding period of fiscal 2004. This increase is due to lower program amortization as a result of expired syndicated product. The expense savings were partially offset by higher news costs due to expansion of local news in several markets and higher marketing costs due to the launch of new fall programs and the November sweeps. Operating income before depreciation and amortization was consistent with the corresponding period of fiscal 2004.

Television Broadcast Network. For the six months ended December 31, 2004, Television Broadcast Network segments' revenues decreased $14 million to $1,240 million from $1,254 million from the corresponding period of fiscal 2004. This decrease was primarily due to a 12% decrease in prime time ratings and the absence of the Emmy Awards in fiscal 2005 which was telecast on FOX in the corresponding period of fiscal 2004. These decreases were partially offset by a higher number of advertising units sold during prime time and higher pricing for the advertising units and an increase in NFL revenue due to higher pricing for advertising units. Operating losses for the Television Broadcast Network segment improved $10 million to $168 million and Operating losses before depreciation and amortization improved $13 million to $156 million compared to the corresponding period of fiscal 2004. This increase was driven by improved sports programming performance and lower advertising costs offset by the non-recurrence of the Emmy Awards which was broadcast in fiscal 2004.

Cable Network Programming. Total revenues for the Cable Network Programming segment increased by $83 million or 7% from $1,161 million to $1,244 million for the six months ended December 31, 2004. Fox News, FX's and the RSNs' revenues increased 21%, 17% and 7%, respectively, over the corresponding period of fiscal 2004, partially offset by the absence of revenues from the Dodgers, which was sold in February 2004.

At Fox News, advertising revenues increased 26% from the corresponding period of fiscal 2004 due to increased advertising sales, which was driven primarily by increased national pricing. Affiliate revenue increased by 14%, which was attributed to an increase in subscribers from the corresponding period of fiscal 2004. As of December 31, 2004, Fox News reached approximately 87 million Nielsen households, a 2% increase over fiscal 2004.

At FX, advertising revenues increased 22% from the corresponding period of fiscal 2004 due to higher ratings and improved pricing. Affiliate revenues increased 12% over the corresponding period of fiscal 2004, reflecting an increase in subscribers and average rates per subscriber. As of December 31, 2004, FX reached approximately 85 million Nielsen households, a 3% increase over the corresponding period of fiscal 2004.

At the RSNs, affiliate revenues increased 11% over the corresponding period of fiscal 2004 primarily from an increase in subscribers and higher average rates per subscriber. This improvement was partially offset by a 5% decrease in advertising revenues from the absence of NHL telecasts in the current period as a result of the lockout.

The Cable Network Programming segment reported Operating income of $393 million, an increase of $136 million from the corresponding period of fiscal 2004. This improvement was primarily driven by the revenue increases noted above as well as the absence of losses due to the sale of the Dodgers, lower programming costs at the RSNs primarily due to the NHL lockout and lower programming costs at FX due in part to costs associated with the fiscal 2004 cancellation of Lucky and The Orlando Jones Show. Partially offsetting these improvements were increased programming costs for political coverage at Fox News and the partial recovery in the corresponding period of fiscal 2004 of approximately $15 million of certain receivable claims against Adelphia which were previously written off. Operating income before depreciation and amortization increased $130 million to $471 million from $341 million in the corresponding period of fiscal 2004.

Interest expense, net. Interest expense, net increased $113 million for the six months ended December 31, 2004 from $23 million to $136 million due to an increase in interest on the notes issued to News Corporation upon receipt of the DIRECTV investment in connection with the DIRECTV acquisition.

Equity earnings (losses) of affiliates. Equity losses of affiliates of $126 million for the six months ended December 31, 2004 declined $131 million from earnings of $5 million from the corresponding period of the fiscal 2004. This decline was primarily due to losses from the inclusion of the Company's share of the results of DIRECTV, which was acquired on December 22, 2003. These losses were partially offset by increased earnings at RPP.

The Company's share of DIRECTV's losses for the six months ended December 31, 2004 was $176 million and includes the Company's share of DIRECTV's increased loss from its sale of PanAmSat resulting from a reduction in the sales proceeds, the Company's portion of the SPACEWAY program impairment and the amortization of certain finite-lived intangibles. These results reflect the Company's allocation of the fair value of DIRECTV's assets and liabilities as of December 22, 2003 and, as required, excludes certain items that were recognized by DIRECTV as income and expense within its results.

Table of Contents

The Company's share of the RPP income increased primarily due to lower programming costs resulting from higher charges in the corresponding period of fiscal 2004 for player and management changes at Madison Square Garden's professional teams division and lower costs during the six months ended December 31, 2004 due to the termination of its professional team rights at the Chicago RSN effective September 2004.

Other, net. Other, net was a gain of $39 million for the six months ended December 31, 2004 due to the sale of the Company's investment in Rogers Sportsnet. There was a gain of $19 million for the six months ended December 31, 2003 due to a gain of $9 million on the sale of the Company's interests in the SportsChannels as well as a gain of $26 million related to the settlement of the Company's insurance claim primarily for its broadcast tower at the World Trade Center in New York, New York. These gains were partially offset by an estimated loss of $16 million on the sale of the Dodgers.

Provision for income tax on a stand-alone basis. The effective tax rate for the six months ended December 31, 2004 is 37.2% as compared to 37.3% for the corresponding period of fiscal 2004. The difference between the statutory federal income tax rate and the effective income tax rates, for both periods, is primarily the result of state income taxes.

Table of ContentsLIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCESCurrent Financial Condition

At December 31, 2004, the Company had $4,724 million and $153 million of amounts due to affiliates of News Corporation and borrowings from the Company's film production financing facility, respectively, as well as $161 million of cash and cash equivalents and $18.8 billion of shareholders' equity.

The Company's principal sources of cash are internally generated funds and borrowings from News Corporation and its subsidiaries. As of December 31, 2004, News Corporation had consolidated cash and cash equivalents of approximately $5.0 billion, excluding the cash of the Company, and a revolving credit facility of $1.75 billion. We believe that cash from operations and the funds available from News Corporation will be adequate for the Company to conduct its operations. The Company's internally generated funds are highly dependent upon the state of the advertising market and public acceptance of film and television products. Any significant decline in the advertising market or the performance of its films could adversely impact its cash flows from operations.

The principal uses of cash that affect the Company's liquidity position include the following: investments in the production and distribution of new feature films and television programs, the acquisition of and payments under programming rights for entertainment programming and sporting events, operational expenditures, interest and income tax payments.

Sources and Uses of Cash

Net cash provided by (used in) operating activities for the six months ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 is as follows (in millions):

For the six months ended December 31,	2004	2003
Net cash provided by (used in) operating activities	$ 172	$(80)

The increase in net cash provided by operating activities reflects higher cash collections primarily from the increased sale of home entertainment product and increased cash receipts from fiscal 2004 theatrical releases, including Day After Tomorrow, Dodgeball and Garfield, at the Filmed Entertainment segment during the six months ended December 31, 2004. This increase was offset by higher sports rights payments, higher film participation payments, higher interest payments, higher tax payments and higher pension contributions. The higher sports rights payments reflect contractually scheduled increases on the Company's national sports contracts as well as the renewal of several sports teams' local rights agreements. Increased interest payments are directly attributed to the notes issued in December 2003 for the acquisition of DIRECTV. Amounts paid in accordance with the tax sharing agreement between the Company and News Corporation were $292 million and $277 million during the six months ended December 31, 2004 and 2003, respectively. The Company made pension contributions of approximately $49 million during the six months ended December 31, 2004 as compared to $25 million in the corresponding period of fiscal 2004.

Acquisitions, net of cash acquired represents the acquisition of an international cable channel during the six months ended December 31, 2004. There were no significant acquisitions during the corresponding period of fiscal 2004. During the six months ended December 31, 2004, the Company made payments for cable distribution investments and funded its investments in Regency Television and National Sports Partners. Proceeds from the sale of investments include proceeds from the sale of the Company's investment in Rogers Sportsnet and the sale of an international joint venture. Expenses related to sale of business are contractual payments made in connection with the sale of the Dodgers. There were no significant asset sales in the corresponding period of fiscal 2004.

Commitments

Edgar Filing: FOX ENTERTAINMENT GROUP INC - Form 10-Q

In November 2004, the Company entered into a six-year follow-on contract with the National Football League commencing with the 2006 season, increasing the Company's commitments with respect to sports programming rights by approximately $4.3 billion.

In November 2004, the Company entered into an agreement with the Bowl Championship Series from fiscal 2007 through fiscal 2010, increasing the Company's commitments with respect to sports programming rights by approximately $330 million.

Contingencies

The Company is party to several purchase and sale arrangements, which become exercisable over the next ten years by the Company or the counter-party to the agreement. Total contingent receipts/payments under these agreements (including cash and stock) have not been included in the Company's financial statements. In fiscal 2005, one arrangement is exercisable, which would not have a material impact on the Company's financial statements. In fiscal 2006, the 40% equity interest in RPP, which is owned by the Company's majority owned subsidiary, can be purchased by a subsidiary of Cablevision Systems Corporation (Cablevision) and Cablevision can, independently, put to the Company's majority owned subsidiary their equity interest in both National Sports Partners and National Advertising Partners in accordance with the terms of the respective partnership agreement. If Cablevision does not elect to purchase the Company's equity interest in RPP, the Company can put to Cablevision its equity interest.

Intercompany Financing - The Company is funded primarily by cash generated from operations and by loans from other affiliates of News Corporation. Interest on outstanding intercompany balances has been charged at commercial market rates not to exceed News Corporation's average cost of borrowing as set forth in the Master Intercompany Agreement between the Company and News Corporation. For the three months ended December 31, 2004, the weighted average intercompany interest rate was 8%. The Company anticipates that operating cash flows and borrowings from News Corporation will be sufficient to meet its working capital requirements. In addition to the agreed upon intercompany interest rate and in connection with the DIRECTV acquisition, the Company issued two promissory notes to News Corporation totaling $4.5 billion. One promissory note is in the amount of $2 billion and bears interest at a rate of LIBOR plus 1% per annum. The other promissory note is in the amount of $2.5 billion and bears interest at 8% per annum.

Film Production Financing Considering the competitive environment and costs associated with film production, film studios, including the Company, constantly evaluate the risks and rewards of film production. Various strategies are used to balance risk with capital needs, including, among other methods, co-production, contingent profit participations, acquisition of distribution rights only and insurance. Historically, the Company has funded its film production by borrowing under a commercial paper facility (the Facility) but is presently funding film production through operating cash flows or through borrowings from News Corporation. In May 2004, the Company ended the transfer term under the New Millennium II Agreement and will no longer draw any borrowings under the Facility. In accordance with the terms of the termination, the Company will repay the $153 million currently outstanding.

Ratings of News Corporation Public Debt

The table below summarizes News Corporation's credit ratings as of December 31, 2004.

Rating Agency	Senior Debt	Outlook
Moody's	Baa 3	Positive
S&P	BBB-	Positive

Guarantees

The Company, News Corporation and certain of News Corporation's other subsidiaries are guarantors of various debt obligations of News Corporation and certain of its subsidiaries. The principal amount of indebtedness outstanding under such debt instruments as of December 31, and June 30, 2004 was approximately $11 billion and $10 billion, respectively. The debt instruments limit the ability of guarantors, including the Company, to subject their properties to liens, and certain of the debt instruments impose limitations on the ability of News Corporation and certain of its subsidiaries, including the Company, to incur indebtedness in certain circumstances. Such debt instruments mature at various times between 2005 and 2096, with a weighted average maturity of 20 years.

In August 2004, the Company, along with News Corporation and certain of News Corporation's other subsidiaries, issued a guarantee for the obligations of Sky Brasil, an equity affiliate of News Corporation, under a $210 million three-year credit agreement with JPMorgan Chase Bank and Citibank NA. In October 2004, News Corporation and DIRECTV announced a series of transactions that will result in the reorganization of the companies' direct-to-home satellite television platforms in Latin America. As a part of these transactions, DIRECTV will acquire News Corporation's interests in Sky Brasil, the completion of which is subject to regulatory approval, and will assume all of News Corporation's obligations thereof, including those under the credit agreement guaranteed by the Company at closing. The completion of certain of these transactions is subject to regulatory approvals and other conditions. Given the strong financial position of the other guarantors, the Company believes it is highly unlikely it will be required to perform any of the obligations under the guarantee.

In the case of any event of default under such debt obligations, the Company will be directly liable to the creditors or debtholders. News Corporation has agreed to indemnify the Company from and against any obligations it may incur by reason of its guarantees of such debt obligations. As of December 31, 2004, News Corporation was in compliance with all of its debt covenants and had satisfied all financial ratios and tests and expects to remain in compliance and satisfy all such ratios and tests.

Cash Management and Financing

Pursuant to the Master Intercompany Agreement, the Company may utilize the worldwide treasury and cash management function, including the use of bank overdraft facilities, of News Corporation and its subsidiaries, subject to certain limitations. In addition, the Company's cash balances are available to News Corporation and its subsidiaries. From November 11, 1998, interest on outstanding intercompany balances has been charged at commercial market rates not exceeding News Corporation's average cost of borrowing as set forth in the Master Intercompany Agreement.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURE OF MARKET RISK

The Company is exposed to the impact of foreign currency fluctuations and utilizes derivative instruments in a limited manner to modify its exposure to foreign exchange rate movements. The Company's policy is to enter into derivative and other financial instruments only to the extent considered necessary to meet its business objectives. The Company does not enter into these transactions for speculative purposes.

Foreign Exchange Rate Risk

The Company uses foreign exchange forward contracts and options principally to hedge the costs of producing films abroad. The Company hedges its anticipated foreign currency exposures related to filmed entertainment production costs over the life of the production (the hedging period). To hedge this exposure the Company uses foreign exchange contracts that generally have maturities of 1 week to 9 months providing continuing coverage throughout the hedging period. The Company designates forward contracts and options used to hedge future production costs as cash flow hedges. At December 31, 2004, the Company had no foreign exchange forward contracts outstanding.

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

The Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have evaluated the effectiveness of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) as of the end of the period covered by this quarterly report and, based on this evaluation, have concluded that the disclosure controls and procedures are effective.

There have been no changes in the Company's internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the Company's second fiscal quarter that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

Part II. Other Information

ITEM 1. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

Following the end of the period covered by the report, on January 10, 2005, the Company received complaints relating to a number of purported class actions filed in Court of Chancery in the State of Delaware. The complaints generally allege, among other things, that News Corporation and the members of the Company's board of directors have breached fiduciary duties owed to the public stockholders of the Company, including as a result of News Corporation offering to acquire shares of the Company's Class A common stock at an unfair price and at a time that disadvantages the Company's stockholders. The complaints generally seek, declaratory and injunctive relief and damages in an unspecified amount. The Company believes that these claims are without merit and intends to vigorously contest the allegations.

The Company is currently aware of seventeen purported class action complaints that have been filed in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware challenging the Offer. The Delaware complaints are captioned: Allen v. News Corp., et al., No. 979-N; Mascarenhas v. Fox Entertainment Group, et al., No. 980-N; Shemesh v. Fox Entertainment Group, et al., No. 981-N; Striffler v. FEG Holdings, et al., No. 982-N; Howard Vogel Retirement Plan v. Powers, et al., No. 984-N; Doniger v. News Corp., et al., No. 985-N; Engle v. Murdoch, et al., No. 986-N; Shrank v. Murdoch, et al., No. 988-N; Blackman v. Fox Entertainment Group, et al., No. 991-N; Fishbone v. News Corp., et al., No. 994-N; Kennel v. News Corp., et al., No. 995-N; Millner v. News Corp., et al., No. 996-N; Pipefitters Locals v. Fox Entertainment Group, et al., No. 1003-N; Molinari v. News Corp., et al., C.A. No. 1018-N; Seaview Services v. Fox Entertainment, et al., C.A. No. 1026-N; Teachers Retirement System of Louisiana v. Powers, et al., C.A. No. 1033-N; and New Jersey Building Laborers Pension Fund v. Powers, et al., C.A. No. 1034. The Shrank action, No. 988-N, was voluntarily dismissed on January 19, 2005. The Company is also currently aware of two purported class action complaints raising substantially similar claims that have been filed in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, County of New York. The New York complaints are captioned: Shrank v. Murdoch, et al., Index No. 600114/2005; and Green Meadows Ptr. v. Fox Entertainment, et al., No. 100706/2005. On January 21, 2005, certain plaintiffs in the Delaware lawsuits filed a motion that seeks to consolidate the Delaware actions. In addition, News Corporation has filed motions to dismiss and to stay discovery, and the plaintiffs have filed a motion for expedited proceedings. On February 3, 2005, the Court of Chancery denied News Corporation's motion to stay discovery, and granted the plaintiffs' motion for expedited discovery and motion to consolidate.

All of the complaints generally allege, among other things, that News Corporation and the members of the Company's board of directors purportedly breached fiduciary duties owed to the public stockholders of the Company in connection with the Offer by: (1) offering to acquire their shares at an unfair price; (2) offering to acquire their shares at a time that disadvantages the public stockholders; (3) having the Company appoint directors who are neither independent nor disinterested to a special committee created to consider the Offer; and (4) failing to adequately disclose information material to the Offer, including disclosure with respect to the Company's 2005 budget.

As for relief, the plaintiffs seek, among other things: (1) an order that the complaints are properly maintainable as a class action; (2) a declaration that defendants have breached their fiduciary duties and other duties to the plaintiffs and other members of the purported class; (3) injunctive relief; (4) unspecified monetary damages; (5) attorneys' fees, costs and expenses; and (6) such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper. The Company believes that these claims are without merit and intends to vigorously contest these allegations.
