SEC 1344 (07-03) Persons who are to respond to the collection of information contained in this form are not required to respond unless the form displays a currently valid OMB control number.

PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Company's report on Form 10-Q for the period ended March 31, 2005 could not be filed within the prescribed time period because the Company requires additional time to complete its review of its accounting treatment for operating leases in light of recent guidance from the SEC to the AICPA, including a review of such accounting by the Company's independent registered public accounting firm. The Company does not anticipate that any changes it makes as a result of this review will have an impact on previously reported earnings; however, it may result in changes to the classification of amounts in the Company's balance sheets and statements of cash flows. The Company expects to file within the five-day extension period. This delay could not be eliminated without unreasonable expense or effort.
