Administrative Disciplinary Actions Imposed on ORIX Asset Management

TOKYO, Japan July 21, 2006 ORIX Asset Management Corporation (OAM), a group company of ORIX Corporation, today announced that it had received business suspension and business improvement orders from the Financial Services Agency based upon Item 1, Paragraph 1 of Article 42 and Paragraph 1 of Article 40, respectively of the Investment Trust and Investment Corporation Act.

The business suspension order prohibits OAM from entering into any new asset management contracts for a period of three months and the asset management contact with ORIX JREIT Inc., in which OAM presently acts as the asset manager, will not be subject to this business suspension order. ORIX has accepted these orders with sincerity and will strengthen its support for OAM to ensure that this company develops into a better and trustworthy company.

Furthermore, for details on business suspension and business improvement orders please refer to the press release entitled, Notice of Administrative Disciplinary Actions Taken Against ORIX Asset Management Corporation made public by OAM (URL: www.orix.co.jp/oam/e_html/index.htm) on July 21, 2006.
