Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Amendment of Existing Loan Agreement

On March 21, 2007, MGAM Systems, Inc. and Megabingo, Inc. (together, the Subsidiaries), each a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Multimedia Games, Inc., a Texas corporation (Multimedia Games), entered into a Second Amendment (the Amendment) to that certain Amended and Restated Loan Agreement dated November 16, 2005, by and between the Subsidiaries and Comerica Bank (the Bank), as amended by that certain First Amendment to Amended and Restated Loan Agreement by and between the Subsidiaries and the Bank dated June 27, 2006 (the Existing Loan Agreement).

The Amendment amends the Existing Loan Agreement to reduce the minimum EBIDTA (determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principals; on a trailing twelve month basis) that Multimedia Games and its subsidiaries, on a consolidated basis, must maintain from $60 million to $52 million through the quarter ending September 30, 2007, after which the minimum EBIDTA requirement will return to $60 million. As under the Existing Agreement, the Amendment provides that the Bank may reset the minimum EBITDA amount annually (or more frequently upon an Event of Default (as defined in the Existing Loan Agreement, as amended by the Amendment)) upon receipt and review of the financial projections and statements delivered by Multimedia Games and the Subsidiaries to the Bank in accordance with the Existing Loan Agreement, as amended by the Amendment.

In connection with the Amendment, Multimedia Games and Multimedia Services, L.L.C., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Multimedia Games (together, the Guarantors), executed and delivered to the Bank an Affirmation of Guaranty dated March 21, 2007 (the Affirmation of Guaranty) pursuant to which the Guarantors consented to the Amendment and agreed that their guaranty under that certain Unconditional Guaranty dated June 25, 2003, as amended by that certain Affirmation and Amendment of Guaranty dated November 16, 2005, will remain effective.

The foregoing descriptions of the Amendment and Affirmation of Guaranty do not purport to be complete and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the Amendment and Affirmation of Guaranty, which are filed as Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2 to this Current Report on Form 8-K, respectively, and are incorporated into this report by reference.

Commitment for New Credit Facility

On March 21, 2007, the Subsidiaries and the Bank also entered into a Commitment Letter, dated as of such date (the Commitment Letter), pursuant to which the Bank has provided the Subsidiaries with a commitment to arrange and syndicate, on a fully underwritten basis, a new $150 million, five-year senior secured revolving credit facility. The new facility, which Multimedia Games expects will close by mid-April, 2007, will replace Multimedia Games' existing $75 million revolving credit facility under the Existing Loan Agreement, as amended by the Amendment. The Commitment Letter provides that the new facility will include a first perfected security interest on all tangible and intangible assets of the Subsidiaries and a first perfected pledge of stock of certain domestic and international subsidiaries and will be covered by secured guaranties of Multimedia Games and all its significant domestic subsidiaries. The Commitment Letter provides that the new facility shall bear interest at various rates, over the applicable base rate (the higher of the Bank's prime rate or the federal funds rate plus 50 basis points) or over a Eurodollar rate, and includes customary representations and warranties, conditions to borrowing, covenants and events of default.

A copy of the press release announcing the Commitment Letter is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.
