Nomura Announcement on Stock Options (Stock Acquisition Rights)

Tokyo, May 15, 2007 Nomura Holdings, Inc. (the Company) today announced that at a Board of Directors Meeting held earlier today it was decided to make a proposal to the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders that in accordance with provisions of Articles 236, 238, and 239 of the Corporation Law, upon the issuance of stock acquisition rights under stock option to executives (directors, executive officers, corporate auditors), and employees of subsidiaries of the Company, the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders approve the arrangement whereby the determination of solicitation plan will be delegated to the Board of Directors of the Company.

1. Outline of stock acquisition rights to be issued as stock options to executives and employees of subsidiaries

Two types of stock acquisition rights (Stock Acquisition Rights) are to be issued.

Stock Option A Plan

The value of assets to be financed upon the exercise of stock acquisition rights at the time of issuance shall be determined based on the market price of the common stock of the Company, and therefore qualify as stock acquisition rights under the tax system of Japan.

Stock Option B Plan

The value of assets to be financed upon the exercise of stock acquisition rights at the time of issuance shall be one (1) yen per share.

The Stock Option B Plan will have the same economic effect as restricted stocks. Accordingly, the exercise price will be one yen and a non-exercise period of two (2) years from the determination of solicitation plan has been set. Grantees who leave the company before the start of the exercise period will, in principle, forfeit their right to the stock acquisition rights. These stock options will be granted in lieu of a portion of cash compensation, making for a quasi-deferred payment to link compensation to the Company's stock price. This will be an effective means to retain talented personnel over the medium- to long-term and link a portion of compensation to the Company's stock price. If the Company's stock price rises, grantees' compensation will also increase, thereby making it possible to align interests with shareholders. The use of stock acquisition rights as stock options is commonplace in Europe and the United States. If this system is not used, cash payments for compensation will increase.

Table of Contents

Stock Options for Executives and Employees of the Company

Stock options (Plan A and Plan B) granted to executives (directors, and executive officers) of the Company are deemed under the Corporation Law to be remuneration for duties performed, and the granting of these stock options is not classified as being under especially favorable conditions as prescribed in Article 238-3-1 of the Corporation Law. Accordingly, this has not been put up for resolution at the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders. As the Company is organized under the Committee System, stock options are granted to executives on an individual basis by the Compensation Committee, which comprises a majority of outside directors, taking into account a balance between equity-linked compensation related to levels of consolidated net income and ROE and basic salary and annual bonus in accordance with the Policy regarding Decisions on Individual Compensation for Directors and Executive Officers set out by the Compensation Committee. Stock options for employees of the Company are granted on an individual basis following various considerations. Decisions made by the Compensation Committee and executive officers regarding stock options are reported to the Board of Directors.

In addition, in line with the aforementioned Policy, 990 Stock Option A Plans and 2,584 Stock Option B Plans have been issued to executives and employees of the Company during the 103rd term.

2. Reasons why it is necessary to solicit persons to subscribe for acquisition rights under especially favorable conditions

By linking a portion of compensation for executives and employees of subsidiaries of the Company, interests can be aligned with shareholders and a common incentive to improve performance across Nomura Group can be created for executives and employees working in different divisions and geographic regions. Accordingly, the two types of stock acquisition rights, Stock Option A Plan and Stock Option B Plan, are being issued to executives and employees of subsidiaries of the Company to retain talented personnel and improve business performance. Issuance will be determined by executive officers of the Company following appropriate deliberation by the Compensation Committees of each subsidiary of the Company regarding profit levels of the subsidiary and the contribution and compensation levels of executives and employees.

When the Company issues stock acquisition rights to executives and employees of subsidiaries of the Company whereby the payment of moneys will not be required to be paid-in, a proposal will be submitted to the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders to approve the arrangement under especially favorable conditions as labor is not provided directly to the Company.

Table of Contents

3. Maximum number of stock acquisition rights that can be issued through solicitation plan authorized by resolution at the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders

By resolution at the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders, the maximum aggregate number of stock acquisition rights that can be issued in Stock Option A Plan and Stock Option B Plan is 175,000.

In addition, the maximum aggregate number of shares of common stock of the Company that can be issued through exercise of the stock acquisition rights for Stock Option A Plan and Stock Option B Plan is a combined total of 17,500,000 (0.89% of outstanding shares). The breakdown for Stock Option A Plan and Stock Option B Plan is as outlined below.

3.1 Maximum number of stock acquisition rights for Stock Option A Plan
Maximum number of stock acquisition rights

A maximum of 25,000 stock acquisition rights has been set.

In addition, the maximum number of shares of the Company's common stock to be issued upon exercise if the stock acquisition rights is 2,500,000. However, in accordance with 5 (1) (i) below, should an adjustment be made to the number of stocks granted, the final number will be the adjusted number of stocks granted in relation to the stock acquisition rights multiplied by the maximum number of stock acquisition rights above.

(Reason)

A maximum of 25,000 stock acquisition rights for Stock Option A Plan was authorized for last fiscal year and a total of 18,320 stock acquisition rights had been issued as of April 31, 2007. The Company proposes to once again authorize a maximum of 25,000 stock acquisition rights in order to use as incentives for executives and employees of subsidiaries of the Company.

3.2 Maximum number of stock acquisition rights for Stock Option B Plan
Maximum number of stock acquisition rights

A maximum of 150,000 stock acquisition rights has been set.

In addition, the maximum number of shares of the Company's common stock to be issued upon exercise if the stock acquisition rights is 15,000,000. However, in accordance with 5 (2) (i) below, should an adjustment be made to the number of stocks granted, the final number will be the adjusted number of stocks granted in relation to the stock acquisition rights multiplied by the maximum number of stock acquisition rights above.

Table of Contents

(Reason)

A maximum of 75,000 stock acquisition rights for Stock Option B Plan was authorized for last fiscal year and a total of 47,139 stock acquisition rights had been issued as of April 31, 2007.

Stock Option B Plan is effective in controlling payments of cash compensation and is becoming established within the Group as a means to retain talented personnel principally in international operations over the medium- to long-term as equity-linked compensation is commonplace outside Japan. To gain global competitiveness, the Company needs to enhance its international strategy and will make effective use of Stock Option B Plan while providing a common incentive plan for the Group aimed at talented personnel of new overseas subsidiaries added to the Group.

This will allow the Company to maintain an appropriate balance between cash compensation and equity-linked compensation in order to prevent compensation for talented personnel in international operations from being excessively weighted towards cash compensation. Accordingly, the Company proposes to increase the limit as outlined above after taking into consideration the ratio in terms of outstanding shares.

Further, in regards to stock acquisition rights exercised during the 103rd term, treasury stocks were issued in lieu of issuing new shares.

* As of March 31, 2007, Nomura Holdings has 57,730,371 shares as treasury stock.

4. Payment of moneys shall not be required for Stock Acquisition Rights.
