Section 1 Registrant's Business and Operations

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On August 6, 2007, Indevus Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (the Company) entered into an Indenture (the Indenture) with The Bank of New York Trust Company, N.A., as trustee, relating to the issuance of up to $72,000,000 principal amount of 6.25% Convertible Senior Notes due 2009 (the New Notes). The New Notes were issued pursuant to an exchange offer (the Exchange Offer) in which the Company offered to exchange the New Notes for any and all currently outstanding 6.25% Convertible Senior Notes due 2008 (the Old Notes). The Exchange Offer expired on August 6, 2007.

The Indenture governs the terms of the New Notes. The New Notes will bear interest from August 6, 2007 at the rate of 6.25% per year. The Company will pay interest semiannually in arrears on January 15 and July 15 of each year to the holders of record at the close of business on the preceding January 1 and July 1, respectively, beginning January 15, 2008. The New Notes are senior unsecured obligations, ranking equally with all of the Company's existing and future senior unsecured indebtedness (including the old notes) and senior in right of payment to any subordinated indebtedness, but as indebtedness of the Company, the New Notes will be effectively subordinated to all future secured indebtedness to the extent of the value of the related security and to all existing and future indebtedness and liabilities of the Company's subsidiaries.

The obligations under the New Notes and the Indenture may be satisfied by (i) payment on July 15, 2009 (the stated maturity date), any applicable redemption date or change of control purchase date, as the case may be, or (ii) conversion. The Indenture provides for the acceleration of the payment of the principal amount of the New Notes upon the occurrence of certain specified events of default. Certain additional terms of the New Notes are summarized under Item 3.02 below and are incorporated herein by reference. A copy of the form of Indenture is included as Exhibit 4.1 to this Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.

Section 2 Financial Information

Item 2.03 Creation of Direct Financial Obligation.

The response to Item 1.01 above is incorporated by reference.

Section 3 Securities and Trading Markets

Item 3.02 Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities.

On August 6, 2007, the Company concluded the Exchange Offer. During the offering period, approximately $71,925,000 principal amount of Old Notes were tendered for New Notes. The Company has accepted all tendered Old Notes, and in exchange, has issued a like principal amount of New Notes.

The New Notes have been issued solely to existing security holders of the Company pursuant to an exemption from registration under Section 3(a)(9) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. The Company did not pay or give, directly or indirectly, any commission or other remuneration, including underwriting discounts, in connection with the Exchange Offer.

The New Notes are convertible into common stock of the Company. Holders of the New Notes may convert any outstanding New Notes (or portions of outstanding New Notes) into the Company's common stock, initially at the conversion price of $6.656 per share, equal to a conversion rate of approximately 150.2404 shares per $1,000 principal amount of New Notes. The conversion price will be subject, however, to adjustment. The Company will not issue fractional shares of common stock upon conversion of New Notes. Instead, the Company will pay cash to holders in an amount equal to the market value of that fractional share based upon the closing sale price of the Company's common stock on the trading day immediately preceding the conversion date. Holders may convert New Notes only in denominations of $1,000 and whole multiples of $1,000.

Holders may exercise conversion rights at any time prior to the close of business on the business day prior to the final maturity date of the New Notes. However, if New Notes have been called for redemption, holders must exercise their conversion rights prior to the close of business on the second business day preceding the redemption date, unless the Company defaults in payment of the redemption price on the redemption date. In addition, if holders have exercised their rights to require the Company to repurchase their new notes because a change of control has occurred, they may convert their new notes into the Company's common stock only if they withdraw their notice and convert their new notes prior to the close of business on the business day immediately preceding the change of control repurchase date.

The information under the heading "Description of the New Notes - Conversion Rights" in the Company's Offer to Exchange dated July 6, 2007, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission as Exhibit (a)(1)(i) to the Company's Schedule TO, originally dated July 6, 2007, as amended, is incorporated herein by reference and more fully describes the terms of conversion of the New Notes.

Section 8 Other Events

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On August 7, 2007, Indevus issued a press release announcing the final results of its exchange offer with respect to the Company's 6.25% Convertible Senior Notes due 2009. The press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
