SPECIAL RESOLUTION

11. As special business, to authorize the Board of Directors of the Company to determine if the Company shall allot, issue and deal with domestic shares and overseas listed foreign shares (H Shares) independently or concurrently, according to the market conditions and the needs of the Company, provided that the respective number of shares shall not exceed 20% of the domestic shares or H Shares of the Company in issue on the date of the passing of this special resolution. However, notwithstanding the granting of the general mandate to the Board of Directors, any issue of new domestic shares would require another shareholders' approval at a shareholders' meeting in accordance with the relevant PRC laws and regulations.

The special resolution is as follows:

(1) Subject to paragraphs (3) and (4) below and pursuant to the Company Law of the People's Republic of China (the Company Law) and the relevant regulatory stipulations (as amended from time to time) of the places where the Company is listed, the Board of Directors be granted a general and unconditional mandate to exercise all the powers of the Company to allot, issue and deal with new shares during the Relevant Period (as hereinafter defined) and to determine the terms and conditions for the allotment and issue of new shares which include, without limitation, the following terms:

- (a) class and number of new shares to be issued;
- (b) price determination method of new shares and/or issue price (including price range);
- (c) the starting and closing dates for the issue;
- (d) class and number of the new shares to be issued to existing shareholders; and
- (e) the making or granting of offers, agreements and options which might require the exercise of such powers.

(2) The approval in paragraph (1) shall authorize the Board of Directors during the Relevant Period to make or grant offers, agreements and options which would or might require the exercise of such powers after the end of the Relevant Period.

(3) The aggregate nominal amount of the new domestic shares and new H Shares allotted, issued and dealt with conditionally or unconditionally (whether pursuant to an option or otherwise) by the Board of Directors pursuant to the approval in paragraph (1), other than the shares issued pursuant to the Rights Issue (as hereinafter defined) or the rights to purchase the shares of the Company under any option scheme or similar arrangement, shall not exceed 20% of each class of the domestic shares and H Shares of the Company in issue as at the date of passing this resolution.

(4) In exercising the powers granted in paragraph (1), the Board of Directors must (a) comply with the Company Law and the relevant regulatory stipulations (as amended from time to time) of the places where the Company is listed; and (b) obtain approval from China Securities Regulatory Commission and other relevant PRC government departments.

Table of Contents

(5) For the purpose of this resolution:

Relevant Period means the period from the date of passing this resolution until the earlier of:

- (a) the conclusion of the next annual general meeting of the Company;
- (b) the expiration of the 12-month period following the passing of this resolution; and
- (c) the revocation or variation of the mandate granted under this resolution by a special resolution of the Company's shareholders in a general meeting.

Rights Issue means the allotment or issue of shares in the Company or other securities which would or might require shares to be allotted and issued pursuant to an offer made to all the shareholders of the Company (excluding for such purpose any shareholder who is resident in a place where such offer is not permitted under the law of that place) and, where appropriate, the holders of other equity securities of the Company entitled to such offer, pro-rata (apart from fractional entitlements) to their existing holdings of shares or such other equity securities.

(6) The Board of Directors, subject to the approval of the relevant authorities of the PRC and in accordance with the Company Law, be authorized to increase the registered capital of the Company to the required amount upon the exercise of the powers pursuant to paragraph (1) above.

(7) The Board of Directors be authorized to sign the necessary documents, complete the necessary formalities and take other necessary steps to complete the allotment, issue and listing of new shares, provided that the same do not violate the relevant laws, administrative regulations, the relevant regulatory stipulations (as amended from time to time) of the places where the Company is listed and the Articles of Association of China Life Insurance Company Limited.

(8) Subject to the requirement of the relevant PRC authorities, the Board of Directors be authorized to make appropriate and necessary amendments to the Articles of Association of China Life Insurance Company Limited after completion of the allotment and issue of new shares according to the method, type and amount of the allotment and issue of new shares by the Company and the actual situation of the shareholding structure of the Company at the time of completion of the allotment and issue of new shares in order to reflect the alteration of the share capital structure and registered capital of the Company pursuant to the exercise of this mandate.

By Order of the Board

Heng Kwo Seng
Company Secretary

8 April 2008

(3) Strengthening the statistical work and internal audit of the financial data of connected transactions. Since the Company was listed in Hong Kong and US in December 2003, it has commenced the management and compilation of financial information statistics of connected transactions. Material connected transactions were disclosed in the corresponding interim reports and annual reports. Connected transactions form an important part of financial disclosure and the Company has included this into the scope of testing US Sarbanes-Oxley Act (Section 404) compliance. In addition, the Company's external auditors also performed an independent internal control assessment on the above workflow, and carried out financial audit to ensure the correctness, legality and effectiveness of the financial data on connected transactions.

(4) Performing the duties of disclosure, announcement and reporting required by various regulatory rules. For those connected transactions which reached the point where disclosure was required pursuant to the regulatory rules of the place of listing, the Company made disclosure or announcement in a timely manner. During the year 2007, there were 4 provisional announcements involving 4 new connected transactions; in the 2006 annual report and 2007 interim report, 5 continuing connected activities were disclosed. The Company also made a conclusion and reported to China Insurance Regulatory Commission regarding the status of execution of connected transactions management system pursuant to China Insurance Regulatory Commission's requirements in its Notice of Implementing Guided Opinion on Standardizing the Governance Structure of Insurance Companies (Trial). For those material connected transactions meeting the requirements of Provisional Measures on Connected Transactions of Insurance Companies of the China Insurance Regulatory Commission, the Company also submitted report to the Commission in a timely manner.

(5) Strengthening management training on connected transactions, improving the standard and efficiency of connected transactions management. In order to enhance the understanding and compliance with the regulatory rules of China Insurance Regulatory Commission, the regulatory rules of China and overseas countries and the Company's Trial Management Measures on Connected Transactions and to improve connected transactions management, the Company arranged a special training for the relevant departments of the head office and the Group as well as the Group's principal units in June 2007. The Company specially invited personnel from regulatory bodies as well as legal and accounting experts to deliver classes to attendants. Such trainings raised the awareness of the relevant departments of the Company and affiliated companies under China Life on the management of connected transactions, such that they understand the workflow and various scopes of connected transactions management, fully master the identification and analysis skills of connected parties. The above-mentioned training played an active facilitating role in ensuring the Company's compliance with the relevant laws and regulations and various regulatory rules.

3. RESULTS OF THE COMPANY'S CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS MANAGEMENT

(1) The awareness of connected transactions management in the relevant departments of the Company was greatly enhanced. Given the high degree of professionalism and required in connected transactions management, this was a new area for the majority of the Company's staff and management. In 2007, through continuously improving the organization and establishing system, defining the duties of various companies and departments, making great efforts in promoting special training on connected transactions, among others, the relevant departments of the Company have paid more attention to connected transactions management, their understanding of the necessity and urgency of strengthening connected transactions management also greatly increased.
