NANOMETRICS INCORPORATED

PROXY STATEMENT

INFORMATION CONCERNING SOLICITATION AND VOTING

General

This proxy statement is being provided to the stockholders of Nanometrics Incorporated (Nanometrics , the Company , we , us or our) as part of the solicitation of proxies by our board of directors for use at our 2008 annual meeting of stockholders. This proxy statement provides stockholders with information they need to know to be able to vote or instruct their vote to be cast at the annual meeting. This proxy statement and the enclosed form of proxy are first mailed to stockholders of record on or about May 29, 2008.

Date, Time and Place

The annual meeting will be held on Thursday, June 26, 2008 at 1:00 p.m., local time, at Nanometrics' principal offices located at 1550 Buckeye Drive, Milpitas, California 95035.

Purpose; Other Matters

The annual meeting is being held to consider and vote upon the following:

1. A proposal to elect three Class I directors of Nanometrics each to serve for a term of three years and until their successors have been duly elected and qualified.
2. A proposal to ratify the appointment of BDO Seidman, LLP as Nanometrics' independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 27, 2008.

Stockholders will also be asked to consider and vote upon any other business that may properly come before the annual meeting or any adjournments or postponements of the annual meeting. We do not expect that any matter other than the proposals presented in this proxy statement will be brought before the annual meeting. However, if other matters incident to the conduct of the annual meeting are properly presented at the annual meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the annual meeting, the persons named as proxies will vote in accordance with their best judgment with respect to those matters.

If you vote AGAINST any of the proposals, the proxy holders will not be authorized to vote for any adjournments or postponements of the annual meeting, including for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies, unless you so indicate by marking the appropriate box on the proxy card for the annual meeting.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors

The board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote:

FOR the election of the three nominees named in this Proxy Statement to serve as directors on our board of directors.

FOR the proposal to ratify the appointment of BDO Seidman, LLP as Nanometrics' independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 27, 2008.

Record Date; Outstanding Shares; Voting Rights

Only holders of record of common stock at the close of business on the record date for the annual meeting, May 14, 2008, are entitled to notice of and to vote at the annual meeting. As of the record date, there were 18,660,949 shares of common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the annual meeting, held by approximately 371 holders of record. Each record holder of common stock on the record date is entitled to one vote for each share of common stock held as of the record date with respect to all proposals.

The candidates receiving the three highest vote totals will be elected to the board of directors.

A list of stockholders will be available for review at the annual meeting and our executive offices during regular business hours for a period of ten days before the annual meeting.

Admission to the Annual Meeting

Only stockholders, their designated proxies and guests of Nanometrics may attend the annual meeting. If you plan to attend the annual meeting and wish to vote in person, you will be given a ballot at the annual meeting. Please note, however, that if your shares are held in street name, which means your shares are held of record by a broker, bank or other nominee, and you wish to vote at the annual meeting, you must bring to the annual meeting a legal proxy from the record holder of your shares authorizing you to attend and vote at the annual meeting.

Quorum and Vote Required

A quorum of stockholders is necessary to hold a valid annual meeting of stockholders. In order to have a quorum for the transaction of business at the annual meeting, a majority of shares of common stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote on the record date must be present in person or by proxy at the annual meeting. Shares that are voted FOR, AGAINST, ABSTAIN or WITHHOLD AUTHORITY a matter are treated as being present at the annual meeting for purposes of establishing a quorum.

In addition, the vote required to approve each proposal is as follows:

Proposal 1

In the election of directors, the three nominees receiving the highest number of FOR votes will be elected. Abstentions and proxies marked WITHHOLD AUTHORITY will have no effect on the election of directors.

Proposal 2

Approval by the stockholders of the selection of Nanometrics independent registered public accounting firm is not required, but we believe it is desirable as a matter of good corporate governance to submit this matter to the stockholders. If holders of a majority of the shares present in person or by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote at the annual meeting do not ratify the appointment of BDO Seidman, LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 27, 2008, the Audit Committee of the board of directors will consider whether it should select another independent registered public accounting firm.

Voting

General

Stockholders of record as of the record date may vote their shares by attending the annual meeting and voting their shares in person or by completing, signing and dating their respective proxy cards for the annual meeting and mailing them in the postage pre-paid envelope enclosed for that purpose. Stockholders holding shares of common stock in street name, which means that their shares are held of record by a broker, bank, or other nominee, may vote by mail by completing, signing and dating the voting instruction forms for the annual meeting provided by their respective brokers, banks, or other nominees and returning their respective voting instruction forms to the record holders of their shares of common stock. Even if you plan to attend the annual meeting, we recommend that you vote by proxy prior to the annual meeting. You can always change your vote as described below.

Voting by Proxy

All properly executed proxies that are received prior to the annual meeting and not revoked will be voted at the annual meeting according to the instructions indicated on the proxies. If your proxy does not specify how you wish us to vote your shares, your shares will be voted:

FOR the election of the three nominees named in this Proxy Statement to serve as Class I directors on our board of directors; and

FOR the proposal to ratify the appointment of BDO Seidman, LLP as Nanometrics independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 27, 2008.

You may receive more than one proxy card depending on how you hold your shares of common stock. Generally, you need to sign and return all of your proxy cards to vote all of your shares. For example, if you hold shares through someone else, such as a broker, you may get proxy material from that person.

Changing Your Vote

If you are the record holder of your shares of common stock, you can change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at the annual meeting by:

delivering to our corporate secretary a signed notice of revocation;

granting the proxy holders a new, later-dated proxy, which must be signed and delivered to our corporate secretary in advance of the vote at the annual meeting; or attending the annual meeting and voting in person.

Your attendance alone, however, will not revoke your previously granted proxy. If you hold your shares in street name and you have provided voting instructions to your broker, bank or other nominee for the annual meeting, you must follow the instructions provided by your broker, bank or other nominee in order to change your vote or revoke your proxy for the annual meeting.

Proxy Solicitation

Nanometrics is soliciting proxies for the annual meeting from our stockholders. We will bear the entire cost of soliciting proxies from the stockholders. In addition to the solicitation of proxies by mail, we will request that brokers, banks and other nominees send proxies and proxy materials to the beneficial owners of common stock held by them and secure their voting instructions, if necessary. We also may use several of our regular employees, who will not be specially compensated, to solicit proxies from stockholders, either personally or by telephone, internet, telegram, facsimile or special delivery letter.

Assistance

If you need assistance in completing your proxy card or have questions regarding the annual meeting, please contact Investor Relations at (408) 545-6000 or write to Nanometrics Incorporated, 1550 Buckeye Drive, Milpitas, California 95035, Attn: Investor Relations.

Householding of Proxy Materials

The Securities and Exchange Commission has adopted rules that permit companies and intermediaries such as brokers to satisfy delivery requirements for proxy statements with respect to two or more stockholders sharing the same address by delivering a single proxy statement addressed to those stockholders. This process, which is commonly referred to as householding, potentially provides extra convenience for stockholders and cost savings for companies. Nanometrics and some brokers household proxy materials, delivering a single proxy statement to multiple stockholders sharing an address unless contrary instructions have been received from the affected stockholders. Upon written or oral request to our Investor Relations department, by mail at 1550 Buckeye Drive, Milpitas, California, 95035 or by telephone at (408) 545-6000, we will promptly deliver a copy of our proxy statement to a stockholder if that stockholder shares an address with another stockholder to which a single copy of the proxy statement was delivered. A stockholder may notify us as described above if the stockholder wishes to receive a separate copy of the proxy statement in the future or, alternatively, if the stockholder wishes to receive a single copy of the materials instead of multiple copies.

Stockholder Proposals

Stockholders are entitled to present proposals for action at the 2009 annual meeting of stockholders. For any proposal to be considered for inclusion in our proxy statement and form of proxy for submission to the stockholders at the 2009 annual meeting of stockholders, the proposal must comply with the requirements of Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act and be submitted in writing by notice delivered or mailed by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, to Nanometrics Incorporated, 1550 Buckeye Drive, Milpitas, California 95035, Attention: Office of the Secretary. Typically, proposals must be received by us no later than 120 calendar days before the date the proxy statement was released to stockholders in connection with the previous year's annual meeting. If we change the date of our annual meeting to a date more than 30 days from the date of our previous year's annual meeting, then the deadline for receipt of stockholder proposals will be changed to a reasonable time before we begin to print and mail our proxy. The submission of a stockholder proposal does not guarantee that it will be included in our proxy statement. Additionally, stockholder proposals to be considered at the annual meeting outside the processes of Rule 14a-8 (which are not intended to be included in the proxy materials for such annual meeting) must be delivered to or mailed and received at our executive offices at least 45 days before the date that the proxy statement was released to stockholders in connection with the previous year's annual meeting.

Material Proceedings

To the best of management's knowledge, there are no material proceedings to which any director, officer or 5% stockholder is a party and (i) is adverse to Nanometrics or any of its subsidiaries or (ii) has a material interest adverse to Nanometrics or any of its subsidiaries.

PROPOSAL I

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

At the 2008 annual meeting of stockholders, unless otherwise instructed, the proxy holders will vote the proxies received by them for the three nominees named below, each of whom has been nominated by our board of directors and is presently a director of Nanometrics. Each of these nominees was recommended by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the board of directors. Board of Directors Meetings and Committees

The board of directors met (or acted by written consent) a total of 18 times during the fiscal year ended December 29, 2007. During the fiscal year ended December 29, 2007, all incumbent directors attended at least 75% of meetings of the board of directors and meetings of committees, if any, upon which such directors served. The standing committees of the board of directors include an Audit Committee, a Compensation/Stock Option Committee and a Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee.

The board of directors has determined that all of its directors meet the independence requirements of the NASDAQ Global Market, with the exception of Timothy J. Stultz, Ph.D.

It is our policy to encourage our directors to attend our annual meetings absent a valid reason, such as a schedule conflict. With the exception of Bruce C. Rhine, none of the directors who served on the board of directors for the entire fiscal year attended the 2007 annual meeting of stockholders.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee of the board of directors, which was established in accordance with Section 3(a)(58)(A) of the Exchange Act, reviews and monitors our financial reporting as well as our internal and external audits, including among other things, our internal audit and control functions, the results and scope of the annual audit and other services provided by our independent auditors, and our compliance with legal matters that may have a significant impact on our financial reports. In addition, the Audit Committee has the responsibility to consider and recommend the employment of, and to review fee arrangements with, our independent auditors. The Audit Committee also monitors transactions between Nanometrics and our officers, directors and employees for any potential conflicts of interest. The Audit Committee met (or acted by written consent) nine times during the fiscal year ended December 29, 2007.

The members of the Audit Committee during the fiscal year ended December 29, 2007 were William G. Oldham, Edmond R. Ward, J. Thomas Bentley and Joseph F. Dox. In May 2007, Dr. Oldham resigned from the Audit Committee and was replaced by Mr. Dox. In October 2007, Mr. Bentley resigned from his positions as the Audit Committee financial expert and chairman and was replaced by Mr. Dox. In April 2008, the board of directors appointed Howard A. Bain III to the Audit Committee and appointed Mr. Bain to serve as the Audit Committee financial expert and chairman. The Audit Committee currently consists of Howard A. Bain III, J. Thomas Bentley, Joseph F. Dox and Edmond R. Ward, with Mr. Bain serving as the Audit Committee financial expert and chairman. On February 26, 2008, Mr. Dox notified the board of directors of his decision not to stand for re-election to our board of directors and will no longer be a member of Audit Committee when his term as a director expires on the date of this annual meeting of stockholders.

Our board of directors has determined that each member of our Audit Committee is independent within the meaning of the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Marketplace Rules of NASDAQ. Our board of directors has also determined that each member of the Audit Committee is able to read and understand financial statements. Further, the board of directors has determined that Mr. Bain, Chairman of the Audit Committee, qualifies as an Audit Committee financial expert as that term is used in Item 7(d)(3)(iv) of Schedule 14A under the Exchange Act.

The Audit Committee has adopted a written charter, which is available on our website at www.nanometrics.com/investor/governance.html.

Compensation/Stock Option Committee

Our Compensation/Stock Option Committee, or Compensation Committee, reviews and makes recommendations to the board of directors regarding our compensation policies and programs as well as the compensation of the chief executive officer and other executive officers of Nanometrics, and recommend to the board of directors a compensation program for outside members of the board of directors. The Compensation Committee may form and delegate authority to subcommittees or, with respect to compensation for employees and consultants who are not named executive officers for purposes of Section 16 of the Exchange Act, to Nanometrics officers, in either instance as the Compensation Committee determines appropriate.

The Compensation Committee is responsible for approving the grant of stock options to our employees under our 2000 Employee Stock Option Plan, 2002 Nonstatutory Stock Option Plan and 2005 Equity Incentive Plan.

The Compensation Discussion and Analysis included in this proxy statement includes additional information regarding the Compensation Committee's processes and procedures for considering and determining executive officer compensation.

The members of the Compensation Committee serving in the fiscal year ended December 29, 2007 were Edmond R. Ward, J. Thomas Bentley and Stephen J Smith, each of whom is a non-employee member of our board of directors. Dr. Ward was appointed as chairman of the Compensation Committee by the board of directors. Each member of our Compensation Committee is an outside director as defined in Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and a non-employee director within the meaning of Rule 16b-3 of the Exchange Act. Our board of directors has determined that each of the directors serving on our Compensation Committee is independent within the meaning of the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Marketplace Rules of NASDAQ. The Compensation Committee met (or acted by written consent) 13 times during fiscal 2007.

The Compensation Committee has adopted a written charter, which is available on our website at www.nanometrics.com/investor/governance.html.

Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee

We also maintain a standing Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee that assists the board of directors in identifying and qualifying candidates to join the board of directors and addressing governance issues. Our board of directors has determined that each of the directors serving on our Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is independent within the meaning of the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Marketplace Rules of NASDAQ. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee utilizes a variety of methods for identifying and evaluating nominees. Its general policy is to assess the appropriate size of the board of directors and whether any vacancies are expected due to retirement or otherwise. In the event those vacancies are anticipated, or otherwise arise, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will consider recommending various potential candidates to fill such vacancies. Candidates may come to the attention of the nominating committee through its current members, stockholders or other persons. The board of directors may consider properly submitted stockholder nominations for candidacy. Nominees may be submitted by stockholders in accordance with the stockholder communication policy described below. Director candidates submitted by stockholders will be considered under the same criteria as candidates recommended by directors or others.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee has no specific, minimum qualifications for director candidates. In general, however, persons considered for board of directors positions must have demonstrated leadership capabilities, be of sound mind and high moral character, have no personal or financial interest that would conflict or appear to conflict with the interests of Nanometrics and be willing and able to commit the necessary time for board of directors and committee service.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee believes that board members should represent a balance of diverse backgrounds and skills, including marketing, finance, manufacturing, engineering, science, and international experience. The members of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee during the fiscal year ended December 29, 2007 were William G. Oldham, Edmond R. Ward, Stephen J. Smith and Joseph F. Dox. Dr. Oldham was appointed as chairman of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee by the board of directors. In May 2007, Dr. Ward resigned from the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and was replaced by Joseph F. Dox. The nominating and governance committee currently consists of William G. Oldham, Joseph F. Dox and Stephen J. Smith. Dr. Oldham continues to serve as the nominating and governance committee chairman. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee met seven times in the fiscal year ended December 29, 2007. On February 26, 2008, Mr. Dox notified the board of directors of his decision not to stand for re-election to our board of directors and will no longer be a member of Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee when his term as a director expires on the date of this annual meeting of stockholders.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee has adopted a written charter, which is available on our website at www.nanometrics.com/investor/governance.html.

Lead Independent Director

In March 2007, the board of directors appointed William G. Oldham to serve in a lead capacity to work with the chairman of the board of directors in formulating the agendas of upcoming meetings of the board of directors and undertake such other duties as the chairman or the independent directors of the board of directors may request.

Code of Ethics

We have adopted a code of business conduct and ethics that applies to all executive officers and employees. We post our code of business conduct and ethics on our website at www.nanometrics.com. We intend to disclose any amendment to the provisions of the code of business conduct and ethics that apply specifically to executive officers by filing such information on a Current Report on Form 8-K with the SEC, to the extent such filing is required by SEC Rules or the NASDAQ Stock Market LLC's listing requirements; otherwise, we will disclose such waiver by posting such information on our website.

Stockholder Communication Policy

We have established a formal process for stockholders to send communications to the board of directors or to individual directors. The names of all directors are available to stockholders in this proxy statement. Stockholder communications may be submitted in writing by notice delivered or mailed by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, to Nanometrics Incorporated, 1550 Buckeye Drive, Milpitas, California 95035, Attention: Office of the Secretary. If we receive any stockholder communication intended for the full board of directors or any individual director, we will forward the communication to the full board of directors or the individual director, unless the communication is clearly of a marketing nature or is unduly hostile, threatening, illegal or similarly inappropriate, in which case we have the authority to discard the communications or take appropriate legal action regarding the communication.

Report of the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors

The following is the report of the Audit Committee of the board of directors describing its review of materials and determinations with respect to its auditors and financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 29, 2007. The information contained in this report shall not be deemed to be soliciting material or to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, nor shall such information be incorporated by reference into any future filing under the Securities Act or Exchange Act, except to the extent that we specifically incorporate it by reference into such filing.

In accordance with its written charter adopted by the board of directors, the Audit Committee assists the board of directors in fulfilling its responsibility for oversight of the quality and integrity of the accounting, auditing and financial reporting practices of Nanometrics. During the fiscal year ended December 29, 2007, the Audit Committee met (or acted by written consent) nine times, and the Audit Committee chairman, as representative of the committee, discussed the interim financial information contained in quarterly earnings announcements with the chief financial officer and independent auditors prior to public release.

The Audit Committee received from our independent auditors a formal written statement, consistent with Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, which describes all relationships between the auditors and Nanometrics that, in the auditors' professional opinion, might reasonably be thought to bear on the auditors' independence. The Audit Committee discussed with the auditors these relationships and satisfied itself as to the auditors' independence.

The Audit Committee also discussed and reviewed with the independent auditors all communications required by generally accepted auditing standards, including those described in Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, as amended, Communication with Audit Committees and, with and without management present, discussed and reviewed the results of the independent auditors' examination of our financial statements.

Additionally, the Audit Committee reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements of Nanometrics as of and for the fiscal year ended December 29, 2007 with management and the independent auditors. Management has the responsibility for the preparation of our financial statements and the independent auditors have the responsibility for the examination of those statements.

Based on the foregoing review and discussions with management and the independent auditors, the Audit Committee recommended to the board of directors that our audited financial statements as of and for the year ended December 29, 2007 be included in its Annual Report on Form 10-K, as amended, for the fiscal year ended December 29, 2007 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Audit Committee also recommended the appointment, subject to stockholder approval, of the independent registered public accounting firm and the board of directors concurred in such recommendation.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires our executive officers and directors, and persons who own more than 10% of a registered class of our equity securities, to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Executive officers, directors and greater than 10% stockholders are required by Securities and Exchange Commission regulations to furnish Nanometrics with copies of all Section 16(a) forms that they file. Based solely on our review of the copies of such forms received by it or written representations from certain reporting persons, we believe that during the fiscal year ended December 29, 2007, our executive officers, directors and greater than 10% stockholders complied with all applicable filing requirements, except for a Form 4 filed on behalf of Mr. Coates reporting an open market purchase of shares, a Form 4 filed on behalf of Mr. Crawford reporting the vesting commencement of a performance based option grant and Forms 4 filed on behalf of Messrs. Crawford, Dox and Rhine reporting forfeiture of shares pursuant to an escrow agreement in connection with the acquisition of Accent Optical Technologies, Inc. that were inadvertently filed late by us.

COMPENSATION DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Overview

Nanometrics' executive compensation program is intended to enable us to attract, retain and motivate high-quality executives and to align their compensation with our short-term and long-term performance. In accordance with the Compensation Committee Charter, a copy of which may be obtained on our website at www.nanometrics.com, the Compensation Committee acts on behalf of the board of directors and, by extension, our stockholders to establish, implement and continually monitor adherence with our compensation philosophy. The Compensation Committee ensures that the total compensation paid to our named executive officers is competitive and consistent with our compensation philosophy. In addition to being independent directors as defined by the NASDAQ Stock Market, all members of the Compensation Committee are non-employee, outside directors. The Compensation Committee relies upon our employees and our human resources department to provide information and recommendations to establish specific compensation packages for executives.

Philosophy and Objectives

Nanometrics' compensation philosophy is set by the Compensation Committee and approved by the board of directors. The Compensation Committee believes that the most effective executive compensation program is one that is designed to align executives' interest with that of the stockholders in terms of producing short-term and long-term enhanced stockholder value. The Compensation Committee also recognizes that competitive compensation is critical to our ability to attract, motivate and retain key employees who are crucial to our long-term success.

Accordingly, in 2007, the Compensation Committee continued its efforts to refine the overall executive compensation structure and process consistent with evolving good governance practices. The Compensation Committee's principal objectives are to: (1) develop and approve compensation packages that will attract and retain key executive talent; (2) reward and motivate these individuals to achieve short-term and long-term corporate objectives that enhance stockholder value; (3) link executive compensation to the achievement of financial, management or other performance goals; and (4) support our culture and core values, by promoting equity among the executive team and maintaining the competitiveness of our overall compensation when compared with external opportunities.

Role of Executive Officers in Compensation Decisions

The Compensation Committee makes all compensation decisions for our executive officers, including the named executive officers, and approves recommendations regarding equity awards to all executive officers. The Compensation Committee has delegated its authority to grant stock options to non-executive level employees or consultants to the management Stock Option Committee composed of our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer currently Timothy J. Stultz and Gary C. Schaefer, respectively. Each year, the Compensation Committee reviews the total compensation of our named executive officers, including salaries, target bonus award opportunities, target annual long-term incentive award values, perquisites and other benefits (including retirement, health, and welfare benefits), and severance arrangements. The Compensation Committee then sets each executive's compensation target for the current year. Typically, this involves establishing their annual bonus opportunities and granting long-term equity incentive awards. The Compensation Committee's decisions are reviewed and ratified by the board of directors.

The Chief Executive Officer annually reviews the performance of each executive officer (other than the Chief Executive Officer whose performance is reviewed by the board of directors) using the elements described under "2007 Executive Compensation Components" below and makes recommendations about the structure of the overall compensation program and individual compensation arrangements to the Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee decisions are based in part, on these annual performance reviews, including with respect to salary adjustments, annual bonus amounts, annual stock option grants and annual restricted stock unit grants. The Chief Executive Officer is generally present at Compensation Committee meetings when compensation, other than his own, is considered and approved; however, the Compensation Committee can exercise its discretion in modifying any recommendations of the Chief Executive Officer and has done so in the past and will continue to do so when appropriate.

Setting Executive Compensation

Based on the foregoing philosophy and objectives, the Compensation Committee has structured our overall executive compensation in order to motivate executives to achieve the business goals set by us; to reward the executives for achieving such goals and to make us attractive from a compensation standpoint when compared to its peers. In order to aid the Compensation Committee in obtaining its objectives, the Compensation Committee consulted with our human resources department to evaluate equity grant information and to make recommendations with respect to compensation matters. The Compensation Committee also analyzes data and suggestions from our human resources department, including benchmarking against the compensation peer group of publicly-traded and privately-held semiconductor equipment manufacturing companies. This peer group consists of companies against which the Compensation Committee believes we must compete for talent and for stockholder investment. In 2007, the companies that comprised our peer group were various semiconductor equipment and materials industry companies of similar size as follows:

Advanced Micro Devices, Inc.
Atmel Corporation
Cymer, Inc.
Mattson Technology, Inc.
Photon Dynamics, Inc.
Therma-Wave, Inc.
Zygo Corporation

Asyst Technologies, Inc.
Cascade Microtech, Inc.
Intevac, Inc.
Novellus Systems, Inc.
Rudolph Technologies, Inc.
Vitesse Semiconductor Corporation

Data on the compensation practices of the above-mentioned peer group generally is gathered through searches of publicly available information, including publicly available databases. Publicly available information does not typically include information regarding target cash compensation, so Nanometrics relies upon compensation surveys to benchmark target cash compensation levels against the above peer group. Peer group data is gathered with respect to base salary, bonus targets and all equity awards, including stock options and restricted stock units. It does not include deferred compensation benefits or generally available benefits such as 401(k) plans or health care coverage.

Using the information from the peer group surveys, the Compensation Committee compares each executive officers position to similar positions. Where there is no similar position, the Compensation Committee compares the Nanometrics position to a range of positions in the peer group that are the closest matches. The Compensation Committee uses these comparisons in its determinations of preliminary salary recommendations, preliminary bonus award opportunities, and the target long-term equity incentive award value for each executive position. This framework provides a guide for the Compensation Committee's deliberations. The actual total compensation and/or amount of each compensation element for an individual executive officer may be more or less than these comparative figures.

Nanometrics' compensation program generally reflects base pay at the 60th to 75th percentile among its peer group and total target cash compensation at the market's 65th percentile. However, in determining base salary, the Compensation Committee also considers other factors such as job performance, skill set, prior experience, the executive's time in his position and/or with Nanometrics, internal consistency regarding pay levels for similar positions or skill levels with Nanometrics, external pressures to attract and retain talent, and market conditions. Positioning base pay at approximately the 60th to 75th percentile of peer companies aids Nanometrics in controlling fixed costs. Targeting total cash compensation at approximately the 65th percentile, and therefore providing higher incentive compensation opportunity, rewards exceptional goal achievement and allows total compensation to be more competitive as a whole, while taking into account business cyclicality. Base pay and target cash compensation are analyzed by management to determine variances to our compensation targets using the combination of publicly available information and survey data as described above.

Nanometrics competes with many larger companies for top executive-level talent. As such, the Compensation Committee generally sets compensation for its executive officers within a competitive range of compensation paid to similarly situated executives of the companies comprising the peer group. The Compensation Committee's process also includes an evaluation of our overall performance as well as the individual performance of its executive officers. That evaluation is taken into account when determining cash bonuses, salary adjustments and equity awards.

Decisions about individual compensation elements and total compensation are ultimately made by the Compensation Committee using its judgment, focusing primarily on the executive officer's performance against his or her individual financial and strategic objectives, as well as Nanometrics' overall performance. The Compensation Committee also considers a variety of qualitative factors, including the business environment in which the results were achieved. Thus, the compensation of our executives is not entirely determined by any formula.

2007 Executive Compensation Components

Nanometrics' approach to total compensation is to create a comprehensive compensation package designed to reward individual performance based on our short-term and long-term performance and how this performance links to Nanometrics' corporate strategy. For the fiscal year ended December 29, 2007, the principal components of compensation for named executive officers were:

Base salary;

Cash bonus;

Stock option grants;

Restricted stock unit awards;

Retirement and other benefits; and

Perquisites and other personal benefits.

Nanometrics has chosen these components because we believe that each supports achievement of one or more of our compensation objectives, and that together they have been and will continue to be effective in this regard. The use and weight of each compensation component is based on a determination by the Compensation Committee of the importance of each compensation objective in supporting our business and talent strategies, as well as the use of these elements for executives at peer companies. This determination varies for each executive officer depending on a number of factors, including but not limited to, scope of his or her responsibilities, leadership skills and values, performance and length of service with Nanometrics.

Base Salary

Base salaries serve as the foundation of Nanometrics' compensation program. The majority of other executive compensation elements, including annual short-term incentives, long-term incentives, and retirement benefits are driven from base salary. Nanometrics provides named executive officers and other employees with base salary to compensate them for services rendered during the fiscal year and are set at a level which the Compensation Committee believes will effectively attract and retain top talent. Base salaries for named executive officers are determined for each executive based on their position and responsibility. Base salary ranges are designed to be competitive with the salaries paid to high tech executives of similarly-sized companies in our peer group. During its review of base salaries for executives, the Compensation Committee primarily considers:

the salaries of executive officers in similar positions at comparably-sized peer companies;

our financial performance over the past year based upon revenues and operating results; and the individual's performance of the executive officer's duties and areas of responsibility as evaluated by the Chief Executive Officer (except in the case of the Chief Executive Officer whose performance is evaluated by the board of directors).

Salary levels are typically considered annually as part of our performance review process as well as upon a promotion or other change in job responsibility. Stock price performance has not been a factor in determining annual base salary compensation because the price of our common stock is subject to a variety of factors outside of our control.

Salary increases for Nanometrics' named executive officers in 2007 were determined by the Compensation Committee after considering salary data from our peer comparison groups, as well as consideration of the internal pay relationships for our executives based on their relative duties and responsibilities.

Cash Bonus

The Compensation Committee also approves cash bonuses awarded to certain named executive officers. The Compensation Committee views such bonuses as an integral part of its performance based compensation program and is designed to align participants' interests with our annual goals and objectives and stockholders' interests. Such bonuses are based on our financial and operational performance for the year and are determined as a percentage of the executive officer's salary.

The Compensation Committee recommends and the board of directors approve cash bonus targets for all named executive officers based on an evaluation of competitive market data. Such bonuses are earned based on the achievement of performance goals set by the Compensation Committee. At the conclusion of each performance period, the cash bonus award for each named executive officer is reviewed by the Compensation Committee and approved by the board of directors.

The actual bonuses paid to Nanometrics' named executive officers for 2007 were determined by the Compensation Committee based on its subjective evaluation of each executive's performance with input from our then serving Chief Executive Officer, the director of our human resources department and the board of directors. Based on the Chief Executive Officer's evaluation of each executive's performance against goals established for the year, Mr. Rhine and Dr. Stultz submitted proposed bonus recommendations to the Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee exercised its judgment to adjust these recommendations based on its own evaluation of each executive's performance, the executive's relative contribution to our overall performance and the executive's response to unplanned or unforeseen events.

On May 24, 2007, the Compensation Committee approved an incentive cash award program for the remainder of 2007. Under the terms of the program, a pool of 5% of our operating profitability as measured on a quarterly basis was available to pay cash bonuses to participating individuals. The Compensation Committee also determined the applicable percentage of the bonus pool available for payment of these quarterly bonuses to participating individuals as follows: Bruce C. Rhine, Chairman of the Board of Directors, former Chief Strategy Officer and Chief Executive Officer 20%; Quentin B. Wright, Vice President External Reporting and Strategic Projects and former interim Chief Financial Officer 20%; Bruce A. Crawford, Chief Operating Officer 20%; and the remaining 40% to be distributed at the discretion of the Chief Executive Officer among certain other senior-level employees other than the aforementioned executive officers. No bonus was paid under this program in a quarter in which we incurred a loss.

For fiscal year 2008, the Compensation Committee approved a 2008 Executive Bonus Plan (the 2008 Plan). Under the terms of the 2008 Plan, quarterly bonus payments are based on the quarterly achievement by Nanometrics of certain financial goals based on our annual operating plan and individualized program objectives for certain named executive officers. Subject to the minimum amounts referenced below, no bonus will be paid in a particular quarter under the 2008 Plan if we are not profitable in such quarter, as determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principals, or GAAP.

The maximum available annual payout under the 2008 Plan to Dr. Stultz is $420,000, which is based on 150% achievement of target goals in each quarter. At 100% achievement of target goals in each quarter, Dr. Stultz's annualized aggregate bonus payout will be $200,000. For each of the first and second quarters of 2008, Dr. Stultz's minimum bonus payout will be $50,000 and for each of the third and fourth quarters of 2008, his minimum bonus payout will be $25,000. Stock Option Grants

The Compensation Committee believes that equity compensation plans are an essential tool to link the long-term interests of stockholders and employees, especially the executive officers, including the named executive officers, and serve to motivate executives to make decisions that will, in the long run, give the best returns to stockholders.

Grants under Nanometrics' Stock Option Plans enable us to:

enhance the link between the creation of stockholder value and long-term executive incentive compensation;

provide an opportunity for increased equity ownership by executives; and maintain competitive levels of total compensation.

Stock option award levels are determined based on market data and on our guidelines. Option awards vary among participants based on their positions within Nanometrics and are granted at the Compensation Committee's regularly scheduled and special meetings throughout the year. Management recommends that the Compensation Committee approve grants to newly hired or promoted executives, at the first meeting following their hire or promotion. Management recommends to the Compensation Committee that newly hired executive officers who are eligible to receive options are awarded such options at the next regularly scheduled Compensation Committee meeting following their hire date, unless the Compensation Committee has acted previously to approve their grants.

Options are awarded at the closing price of our common stock on the date of the grant. We have never granted options with an exercise price that is less than the closing price of our common stock on the grant date and do not intend to do so in the future.

The majority of the options granted by the Compensation Committee vest at a rate of 33 1/3% per year over the first three years of the seven-year option term. Vesting ceases upon termination of employment and, except in the case of death (subject to a one year limitation), disability or retirement, the vested stock options may generally be exercised for 90 days following the date of termination. Prior to the exercise of an option, the holder has no rights as a stockholder with respect to the shares subject to such option, including voting rights and the right to receive dividends or dividend equivalents.

Restricted Stock Unit Grants

In 2007, the Compensation Committee began awarding restricted stock units or RSUs to our named executive officers. Similar to stock options, the Compensation Committee believes that RSUs, which increase in value as the market price of our common stock increases, create the proper incentive for the executive officers to work towards the goal of creating stockholder value. RSUs also provide retention value even if our stock price does not increase or declines, and subjects executive officers to the same downside risk experienced by stockholders. In addition, the Compensation Committee believes that RSUs will be used increasingly by other companies and we will need to offer such incentives to remain competitive in attracting and retaining executive talent.

The majority of the RSUs awarded by the Compensation Committee vest at a rate of 33 1/3% per year over three years. Vesting ceases upon termination of employment and, except in the case of death (subject to a one year limitation), disability or retirement. Prior to the vesting of RSUs, the holder has no rights as a stockholder with respect to the shares subject to such RSUs, including voting rights and the right to receive dividends or dividend equivalents. However, the 20,000 RSUs awarded to Mr. Crawford in July 2007 will vest on the one year anniversary of the date of the award.

Profitability Bonus

In June 2007, the Compensation Committee also approved the issuance of non-qualified options to purchase up to an aggregate of 160,000 shares of our common stock under our 2005 Equity Incentive Plan. Under the program, option awards were made to Quentin B. Wright, our former Interim Chief Financial Officer, Bruce A. Crawford, our Chief Operating Officer, and other senior-level employees. Messrs. Wright and Crawford were each granted an option to purchase up to 25,000 shares. Each option grant vests in accordance with the following schedule: 25% of the shares subject to an option began vesting in accordance with the two-year time-based vesting described below upon the attainment of one of the four performance milestones. For each performance milestone that was not attained, 25% of the shares subject to an option did not vest and were forfeited immediately upon the determination that the performance milestone had not been attained. The first, second and third performance milestones were the determination by our Chief Financial Officer that we had attained quarterly operating profitability during the second fiscal quarter of 2007, the third fiscal quarter of 2007 and the fourth fiscal quarter of 2007, respectively. The fourth performance milestone was the determination by our Chief Financial Officer that we had attained quarterly operating profitability during each of the second, third and fourth fiscal quarters of 2007. Our Chief Financial Officer determined that the first and second milestones were attained, but the third and fourth were not, so a maximum of 50% of the shares subject to the option vest in accordance with the two-year time-based vesting described below and the remainder did not vest and were forfeited immediately. Upon attainment of the first and second performance milestones, 25% of the shares subject to an option began to vest ratably monthly over a two-year period beginning on the date of the determination by our Chief Financial Officer that the performance milestone was attained and subject, in each case, to the optionee's continued employment with Nanometrics on each relevant vesting date.

Retirement Benefits and Generally Available Benefits Programs

All employees in the United States, including the named executive officers, are eligible to participate in our 401(k) plan, as amended and restated in August 2007, medical, dental and vision insurance, employee stock purchase plan, as well as our life and disability insurance policy.

In fiscal 2007, all Section 16 officers and non-employee directors were also eligible to participate in an Exec-U-Care Reimbursement Plan to supplement our basic health plan by reimbursing expenses not covered under the underlying plan.

Nanometrics' 401(k) Plan and other generally available benefits programs allow us to remain competitive for employee talent, and we believe that the availability of these benefits programs generally enhances employee productivity and loyalty to Nanometrics. The main objectives of Nanometrics' benefits programs are to give employees access to quality healthcare, financial protection from unforeseen events, assistance in achieving retirement financial goals, enhanced health and productivity, and support global workforce mobility, in full compliance with applicable legal requirements. These generally available benefits typically do not specifically factor into decisions regarding an individual named executive officer's total compensation or equity award package.

Perquisites and Other Personal Benefits

Nanometrics provides named executive officers with a limited number of perquisites and other personal benefits that we and the Compensation Committee believe are reasonable and consistent with our overall compensation program and with other similar companies in our peer group. The Compensation Committee periodically reviews the levels of perquisites and other personal benefits provided to named executive officers to better enable us to retain and attract executive-level employees for key positions. Although the Compensation Committee seeks the advice of its human resources department on general market competitiveness for these benefits, it does not use formal benchmarking information.

The former President and Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Heaton was provided use of a company automobile and participation in the plans and programs described above. In addition, Mr. Heaton had access to a golf club membership sponsored by Nanometrics, as did Mr. Coates. Since May 2007, we do not provide or reimburse for country club memberships for any named executive officers.

Our Chairman of the Board of Directors and former Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Rhine, was provided limited use of private air transportation with a cost to us of approximately $99,010. The board of directors initially approved this perquisite in March 2007 as an incentive to recruit Mr. Rhine to serve as our Chief Executive Officer by providing transportation from his home in Bend, Oregon to our executive offices in Milpitas, California. In August 2007, in connection with Mr. Rhine's transitioning to and support of Dr. Stultz as the Chief Executive Officer, the board of directors approved the continuation of this perquisite to provide an efficient way to minimize travel time commitments, allowing more productive use of Mr. Rhine's time, which, in turn, allows greater focus on Nanometrics-related activities.

Attributed costs of the personal benefits described above for the named executive officers for the fiscal year ended December 29, 2007, are included in the Summary Compensation Table on page 25.

Chief Executive Officer Benefits and Perquisites

The board of directors determined that in addition to the benefits and perquisites detailed above, in order to attract Dr. Stultz to Nanometrics, relocation benefits, an automobile allowance and reimbursement for select expenses associated with his initial employment were appropriate and reasonable. As part of his employment, Dr. Stultz relocated his family from Verona, Wisconsin to the San Francisco Bay area in the proximity of the Nanometrics headquarters in Milpitas, California. As part of the relocation benefits, the board of directors approved a living allowance of $8,000 per month for up to 12 months, reimbursements for two house hunting trips, shipment of personal goods and storage of relocated personal goods in the San Francisco Bay Area for six months, and an automobile allowance of $1,200 per month or the use of a company-leased car of equivalent value. Dr. Stultz was also granted a one-time lump sum cash signing bonus payment of $100,000, less applicable withholdings, upon completion of one month of service with Nanometrics. We believe that these additional relocation benefits were a key incentive for Dr. Stultz to join us and also provide an efficient way to minimize travel time commitments and help mitigate business continuity risk.

Change in Control Severance Benefits

The Compensation Committee considers maintaining a stable and effective management team to be essential to protecting and enhancing the best interests of Nanometrics and its stockholders. Accordingly, the Compensation Committee decided to take appropriate steps to encourage the continued attention, dedication and continuity of members of our management to their assigned duties without the distraction that may arise from the possibility of termination of employment without cause or in connection with a change in control. As a result, we have entered into agreements with certain named executive officers which provide severance payments and benefits upon a termination of employment, including following a change in control of Nanometrics, as described in greater detail below in the section headed Employment Contracts and Termination of Employment and Change-in-Control Arrangements.

After considering industry practices and reviewing the policies and practices of the companies in our peer group, the Compensation Committee determined that these agreements were necessary and appropriate to provide competitive compensation to the types of individuals we wanted to recruit and retain. The Compensation Committee also believes that these agreements are consistent with our overall compensation philosophy. The Compensation Committee continues to periodically monitor industry practice in this area to ensure that these agreements remain consistent with our overall compensation philosophy of targeting the competitive median while preserving our ability to attract and retain key executives.

Tax and Accounting Implications

Deductibility of Executive Compensation

As part of its role, the Compensation Committee reviews and considers the deductibility of executive compensation under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, which provides that we may not deduct compensation of more than $1,000,000 that is paid to certain executive officers, unless certain exemption requirements are met. Exemptions to this deductibility limit may be made for various forms of performance-based compensation. We believe that compensation paid under the management incentive plans is generally fully deductible for federal income tax purposes. However, in certain situations, the Compensation Committee may approve compensation that will not meet these requirements in order to ensure competitive levels of total compensation for its executive officers.

Section 4999 and Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code provide that executives could be subject to additional taxes if they receive payments or benefits that exceed certain limits in connection with a change in control of Nanometrics and that we could lose an income tax deduction for such payments. We have not provided any executive with tax gross up or other reimbursement for tax amounts the executive might be required to pay under to Section 4999.

Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code imposes additional taxes and interest on underpayments in the event an executive defers compensation under a plan that does not meet the requirements of Section 409A. We believe we are operating in good faith compliance with Section 409A and have structured our compensation and benefits programs and individual arrangements in a manner intended to comply with the requirements thereof.

Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation

Beginning on January 1, 2006, we began accounting for stock-based payments in accordance with the requirements of FASB Statement 123(R).

Compensation of Executive Officers

The following table sets forth the compensation that we paid during the past three fiscal years to (i) our Chief Executive Officer, (ii) our Chief Financial Officer, and (iii) each of our three most highly compensated executive officers (or such lesser number of executive officers as we may have) not serving as Chief Executive Officer or Chief Financial Officer; and (iv) up to an additional two individuals that would have been included under item (iii) but for the fact that the individuals were not serving as executive officers as of December 29, 2007, all of whom are collectively referred to as the named executive officers.

Employment Contracts and Termination of Employment and Change-in-Control Arrangements

As part of Nanometrics' hiring efforts, we sometimes enter into employment agreements and severance agreements with our named executive officers that provide for certain severance benefits, including but not limited to, continuation of salary, continuation of bonus plan participation, continuation of health care benefits and acceleration of equity. The Compensation Committee decided, in its judgment, that these types of agreements are often needed to recruit executive officers to join Nanometrics and to mitigate the risks associated with leaving former employers and assuming the challenges of new executive positions.

Pursuant to the terms of an agreement between Nanometrics and Vincent J. Coates dated May 1, 1985, as amended and restated in August 1996 and April 1998, Nanometrics is obligated to continue to pay Mr. Coates his salary and benefits for five years from the date of his resignation as Chairman of the Board of Directors in the event Mr. Coates is required to resign under certain circumstances, including a change of control. Mr. Coates voluntarily resigned his position as Chairman of the Board of Directors on July 26, 2007 and no payments shall be required pursuant to this agreement.

In October 2006, Nanometrics entered into an agreement with John D. Heaton pursuant to which Nanometrics agreed to pay Mr. Heaton his annual salary of $404,250 for a period of twelve (12) months from the date that he is required or requested for any reason not involving good cause, including a change of control, to involuntarily relinquish his positions with Nanometrics as President, Chief Executive Officer and director, provided that Mr. Heaton executes a separation agreement and general release, refrains from disparagement of Nanometrics, and continues to comply with the terms of a certain confidential information agreement. Mr. Heaton's employment with Nanometrics terminated on March 26, 2007, and, on June 25, 2007, we entered into a Separation Agreement and Release with Mr. Heaton pursuant to which we paid Mr. Heaton his annual salary, less applicable withholdings, through March 26, 2008 and provided twelve (12) months accelerated vesting and an extended deadline to exercise with respect to his outstanding, unvested equity awards.

In September 2005, Douglas J. McCutcheon became Executive Vice President, Finance and Administration and Chief Financial Officer of Nanometrics. In connection with Mr. McCutcheon's employment agreement, Nanometrics agreed to pay Mr. McCutcheon twelve (12) months of continued salary at his then-effective annual rate if Nanometrics terminates him for any reason other than for good cause, provided that Mr. McCutcheon executes a general release. Mr. McCutcheon's employment with Nanometrics terminated on April 24, 2007 and we paid Mr. McCutcheon his annual salary through April 24, 2008.

In July 2007, the Compensation Committee approved and, in August 2007 Nanometrics entered into, an executive severance agreement with Bruce A. Crawford, our Chief Operating Officer, which provides for certain severance benefits following a termination without cause, including six months continuing salary, reimbursements for his premium payments under COBRA for twelve months and twelve months of equity award acceleration, provided that Mr. Crawford executes a general release.

In August 2007, we announced the appointment of Timothy J. Stultz, Ph.D. as our President, Chief Executive Officer and a director. In connection with his appointment, we offered Dr. Stultz a compensation package including certain severance benefits consisting of continued salary payments and equity award acceleration for termination without cause or for good reason, including in connection with a change in control. Specifically, Nanometrics agrees to pay Dr. Stultz (i) his annual salary, including bonuses earned or accrued, and reimbursements for his premium payments under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (COBRA) for twelve (12) months from the date of separation in the event that Dr. Stultz's employment with Nanometrics is terminated by us without cause or Dr. Stultz resigns for good reason within his first twelve months of employment with Nanometrics; (ii) his annual salary, including bonuses earned or accrued, and reimbursements for his premium payments under COBRA for nine months from the date of separation in the event that Dr. Stultz's employment with Nanometrics is terminated by us without cause or Dr. Stultz resigns for good reason during the period beginning one year and one day after Dr. Stultz's hire date until two years from Dr. Stultz's hire date; (iii) his annual salary, including bonuses earned or accrued, and reimbursements for his premium payments under COBRA for six months from the date of separation in the event that Dr. Stultz's employment with Nanometrics is terminated by us without cause or Dr. Stultz resigns for good reason during the period beginning two years and one day from Dr. Stultz's hire date or thereafter; and (iv) his annual salary, including bonuses earned or accrued, and reimbursements for his premium payments under COBRA for twelve (12) months and 100% acceleration of all equity awards, from the date of separation in the event that Dr. Stultz's employment with Nanometrics is terminated by us without cause or Dr. Stultz resigns for good reason with twelve months following a change of control, provided that Dr. Stultz executes a general release.

In November 2007, Gary C. Schaefer became Chief Financial Officer and Executive Vice President of Finance and Administration of Nanometrics. In January 2008, the Compensation Committee approved an employment agreement with Mr. Schaefer, which provides for certain severance benefits following a termination without cause, including twelve months continuing salary, performance bonus plan participation, reimbursements for his premium payments under COBRA and Exec-U-Care, and 100% acceleration of all equity awards, provided that Mr. Schaefer executes a general release.
