As officers and directors of Telemar, these members of the TNCP board of directors could have conflicts of interest in connection with decisions relating to the offer.

Item 4. The Solicitation or Recommendation.
Recommendation of TNCP

TNCP does not approve, disapprove or make any recommendation with respect to the tender offer and would advise each holder of preferred shares (including preferred shares represented by ADSs) to make his or her own decision as to whether or not to tender into the tender offer and, if so, the number of preferred shares (including preferred shares represented by ADSs) to tender.

In determining that TNCP would not approve, disapprove or make any recommendation with respect to the tender offer, TNCP noted that Brazilian law, which governs the duties and obligations of TNCP, does not impose any fiduciary or other duty or obligation on TNCP or TNCP's board of directors or board of executive officers to seek or obtain from Telemar any particular price or a fair price in the tender offer, to approve or disapprove the tender offer, to make any statement or recommendation or to otherwise play any role in connection with the tender offer. Furthermore, Brazilian law and applicable CVM rules do not impose any fiduciary or other duty or obligation on TNCP or TNCP's board of directors or board of executive officers to make any determination or analysis regarding the tender offer or the tender offer price, including whether or not the terms of the tender offer or the tender offer price are fair to unaffiliated security-holders, nor do they require either of them to obtain, or retain any outside person to prepare, any report, opinion or appraisal relating to the value of TNCP, the preferred shares and ADSs or to the fairness of the tender offer or to negotiate on behalf of the unaffiliated security-holders. Additionally, Telemar designates or appoints all but one of the members of TNCP's board of directors.

Intent to Tender

Each current director of TNCP, other than Paulo Conte Vasconcellos, only owns one preferred share of TNCP, which was purchased in order to satisfy a Brazilian law requirement that each individual standing for election as a director of a company at a General Meeting of Shareholders be a shareholder at such company. Because such preferred shares, other than the preferred shares of TNCP owned by Paulo Conte Vasconcellos, were purchased to comply with Brazilian law, TNCP understands that none of these directors intends to tender his preferred share. Mr. Vasconcellos has informed us that he does not intend to tender his preferred shares.

To TNCP's knowledge, after making reasonable inquiry, none of its affiliates or subsidiaries that owns preferred shares intends to tender any such preferred shares in the tender offer.

Item 5. Person/Assets, Retained, Employed, Compensated or Used.

Neither TNCP nor any person acting on its behalf has directly or indirectly employed, retained or compensated, or currently intends to employ, retain or compensate, any other person to make solicitations or recommendations to holders of preferred shares (including preferred shares represented by ADSs) on TNCP's behalf with respect to the tender offer.

Item 6. Interest in Securities of the Subject Company.

No transactions in the preferred shares or ADSs have been effected since May 16, 2008 (60 days prior to the commencement of the tender offer) by TNCP or, to the knowledge of TNCP, by any executive officer, director or affiliate of TNCP.

Item 7. Purposes of the Transaction and Plans or Proposals.

TNCP is not undertaking or engaged in any negotiations in response to the tender offer which relate to (i) a tender offer or other acquisition of securities of TNCP by TNCP, its subsidiaries or any other person, (ii) any extraordinary transaction, such as a merger, reorganization or liquidation, involving TNCP or its subsidiaries, (iii) any purchase, sale or transfer of a material amount of the assets of TNCP or its subsidiaries or (iv) any material change in the present dividend rate or policy, or indebtedness or capitalization of TNCP.

There are no transactions, board resolutions, agreements in principle or signed contracts that have been entered into in response to the tender offer that relate to one or more of the matters referred to in this Item 7.

Item 8. Additional Information.

Certain Legal Matters

TNCP is not aware of any licenses or other regulatory permits that appear to be material to the business of TNCP and that might be adversely affected by the acquisition of preferred shares (including preferred shares) represented by ADSs) by Telemar pursuant to the tender offer or of any approval or other action by any governmental, administrative or regulatory agency or authority that would be required for the acquisition or ownership of preferred shares by Telemar pursuant to the tender offer. Telemar's obligation under the tender offer to accept for payment and pay for preferred shares is subject to certain conditions that are set forth in Section 5 of the Offer to Purchase and are incorporated herein by reference.
