Antitrust in Israel. The Restrictive Trade Practices Law 5748-1988 and the regulations promulgated thereunder require the filing of a notice of merger with the Restrictive Trade Practices Commissioner where the applicable criteria are met. Parent and the Company each filed a notice of merger under said Act on June 7, 2009. On June 29, 2009, the Israel Antitrust Authority, in accordance with Section 20(b) of the Restrictive Trade Practices Law, 5748-1988 and the regulations promulgated thereunder, notified Parent that it consents to the Merger. Accordingly, the condition to the Offer relating to the expiration of the waiting period in Israel or the consent to the Merger from the Israel Antitrust Authority in accordance with the Restrictive Trade Practices Law 5748-1988 and the regulations promulgated thereunder has been satisfied.

2. Parent filed the German Notification on June 5, 2009, on behalf of itself and Seller. On July 2, 2009, Parent received notice from the FCO of approval of the Offer pursuant to the ARC. Accordingly, the condition to the Offer relating to the approval of the Offer in Germany arising under the ARC has been satisfied.

3. (a) Item 11 of the Schedule TO is hereby amended and supplemented to replace the existing disclosure regarding the Alameda County Actions and the litigation filed in Delaware Chancery Court on June 16, 2009 by plaintiff Robert H. Rosen personally and on behalf of SL Textile Corp. Salaried Employees Benefit Plan and (b) the subsection entitled Securities Class Action Litigation in Section 16 of the Offer to Purchase entitled Certain Legal Matters; Regulatory Approvals is hereby amended and supplemented to replace the existing disclosure in such subsection of Section 16 with the following text:

On June 4, 2009, a class action complaint was filed in the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Alameda, by Mark Harvey against Seller and all of its current directors. The complaint alleges that defendants breached their fiduciary duties to Seller's stockholders in connection with the negotiation and execution of the Merger Agreement and the Offer. The complaint seeks declaratory and injunctive relief, including declaring the Merger Agreement to be a breach of the fiduciary duties of the directors and thereby unlawful and unenforceable, rescinding the Offer and related documents, enjoining the directors from entering into the Offer until a fair price for the stockholders is obtained, directing the individual defendants to obtain a transaction in the best interest of Seller's stockholders, and requiring payment of plaintiff's costs and attorneys' fees. In addition, on June 5, 2009, a second substantially similar complaint was filed in the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Alameda, by Donald Smith against Seller, all of its current directors and Parent. The Court issued an order consolidating the Harvey and Smith actions, and a consolidated complaint was filed on June 19, 2009 that named Seller, its current directors, Parent and Purchaser as defendants. Further, on June 12, 2009, two additional substantially similar complaints were filed in the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Alameda, by Bakhtiar S. Alam and KBC Asset Management NV. On June 26, 2009, the Alam and KBC Asset Management NV cases were consolidated with the Harvey and Smith cases, and counsel in the Harvey case was appointed Lead Plaintiffs counsel for the four consolidated actions, hereafter referred to as the California actions. The parties to the California actions have agreed to expedited discovery. Seller filed a motion to stay the California actions, but on June 26, 2009 the California Court denied the stay, on condition that the plaintiffs in the California actions would not file a motion for a preliminary injunction to enjoin the consummation of the Offer while a similar preliminary injunction motion was being pursued in the Delaware actions described below.

On June 16, 2009, a complaint was filed in the Court of Chancery for the State of Delaware, by Robert H. Rosen and Robert H. Rosen on behalf of SL Textile Corp. Salaried Employees Benefit Plan against Seller and all of its current directors, Parent and Purchaser. The complaint alleges that Seller defendants breached their fiduciary duties, and Parent and Purchaser aided and abetted in such breach, to Seller's stockholders in connection with the execution of the proposed transaction and breached their duties of disclosure with respect to the information disseminated to Seller's stockholders. The complaint seeks declaratory and injunctive relief, including permanently enjoining defendants from consummating the proposed transaction, rescinding the proposed transaction if consummated and requiring defendants to pay damages to plaintiffs for the wrongs complained of, including reasonable costs and attorney's fees. On June 17, 2009, the plaintiff filed a motion for a preliminary injunction that sought to enjoin the consummation of the Offer and a motion for expedited proceeding. Seller moved to stay the action pending resolution of the California actions. On June 24, 2009, the Chancery Court issued a final order granting the plaintiff's motion for expedited proceedings and denying Seller's motion to stay, and set a hearing on the motion for a preliminary injunction for July 7, 2009. On June 26, 2009, the Chancery Court issued a final opinion denying Seller's motion to stay and confirmed the hearing, scheduled for July 7, 2009, on plaintiffs' motion for a preliminary injunction. Also, on June 24, 2009, a second substantially similar complaint, including additional requests for relief was filed in the Court of Chancery for the State of Delaware, by Laborers' District Council and Contractors Pension Fund of Ohio against Seller and all of its current directors, Parent and Purchaser. This second action was consolidated into the Rosen action by an Order of the Chancery Court on June 27, 2009.

On July 1, 2009, the parties in both the California actions and the Delaware actions reached an agreement-in-principle to settle both actions on terms and conditions set forth in the parties' memorandum of understanding concerning the settlement. Pursuant to the agreement-in-principle, Seller agreed to (a) make certain additional disclosures to its stockholders concerning the proposed transaction with Parent and Purchaser, and (b) pay or cause to be paid to plaintiffs' attorneys fees and expenses in an amount to be ordered by the Delaware Court of Chancery but not to exceed $700,000 for both the California and Delaware actions. Plaintiffs, in turn, agreed to (a) withdraw their motion for preliminary injunctive relief to prevent the closing of that transaction, and (b) dismiss all claims and actions relating to the proposed transaction upon final approval of the settlement by the Delaware Court of Chancery.
