On April 23, 2010, the Company held an earnings conference call in connection with its earnings for the quarter ended March 31, 2010. The following correction clarifies the Company's response to an analyst's question during the earnings conference call regarding the amount of the Company's substandard assets.

Clarification: In response to an analyst's question, the Company inadvertently stated during the earnings call that the amount of substandard assets was $51.0 million as of February 28, 2010. In fact, this amount represented only the Company's substandard loans, including all real estate owned, at February 28, 2010. The Company's total substandard assets was $80.8 million at March 31, 2010, which consists of substandard loans totaling $50.8 million plus $30.0 million of the Company's investment in investment securities with a credit rating below investment grade from one of the internationally-recognized credit rating services.
