Dear Valued Customer:

As you may know, Air Products recently revised its tender offer to acquire Airgas. Our Board of Directors, after careful consideration with its independent financial and legal advisors, has unanimously determined to reject Air Products' revised offer and has recommended that Airgas stockholders not tender their shares into the offer. The press release we issued detailing the reasons for the Board's decision is attached.

In our Board's judgment, the new Air Products offer, like Air Products' previous offers, is grossly inadequate and an extremely opportunistic attempt to cut off the Airgas stockholders' ability to benefit as the domestic economy continues its recovery.

As evidenced by our first quarter 2011 earnings results, we are seeing improvement across all areas of our business. This supports our view that actions taken and investments made during prior years have created an even stronger company, and even more businesses are choosing Airgas as their supplier. Recent events strengthen the Airgas Board's conviction that Airgas will generate more value for its stockholders by executing its strategic plan than by pursuing the revised Air Products tender offer.

As always, we remain focused on providing you with the same quality products and services that you have come to expect from Airgas. You are extremely important to us, and I want to assure you that the Air Products hostile takeover attempt has had no impact on what's most important to us—meeting and exceeding your expectations. We have worked very hard over the last several years to make Airgas the most customer-centric of all the gas and hardgoods suppliers, and we hope our efforts have made a difference for you. We thank you for your business and stand ready to fill all of your requirements.

We will continue to update you with information regarding the Air Products offer that we believe to be important, however, Airgas' most current materials are also available on our website at www.airgas.com. Of course, should you have any additional questions, please feel free to reach out to your local Airgas representatives.

Thank you for your continued confidence in Airgas.

Sincerely,

Mike Molinini
