Item 8.01 Other Events.

On June 20, 2011, the United States District Court for the Northern District of California issued a final judgment and order (the Order) approving the settlement of, and dismissing with prejudice the purported securities class action lawsuit known as In re Nuvelo Securities Litigation, pending against ARCA biopharma, Inc. (ARCA), and the other defendants. The Order will become effective on July 25, 2011, unless an appeal or motion to alter or amend the judgment is timely filed. The Order approves the settlement agreement entered into on February 25, 2011, between ARCA, the other defendants, and the plaintiffs, which was previously disclosed on ARCA's form 8-K filed March 3, 2011, the contents of which are incorporated by reference herein.

The Order and settlement agreement relate to the lawsuit brought on February 9, 2007, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, and naming as defendants ARCA's predecessor Nuvelo, Inc., and certain of Nuvelo's former and then current officers and directors. The suit alleged violations of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 related to the clinical trial results of the developmental drug alfimeprase, and sought damages and injunctive relief on behalf of the purchasers of Nuvelo's common stock during the class period. Three additional lawsuits were filed in the Southern District of New York, and all four lawsuits were later transferred to the Northern District of California and consolidated.

ARCA's insurance carriers have agreed to fund the settlement, subject to a reservation of rights by one carrier. No member of the class has opted out of the settlement, making the Order, once it becomes effective, binding on all members of the class.
