Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On July 19, 2012, WesBanco, Inc. (WesBanco) and Fidelity Bancorp, Inc. (Fidelity) entered into a definitive Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) providing for the merger of Fidelity with and into WesBanco (the Merger). As a result of the Merger, the separate corporate existence of Fidelity will cease and WesBanco will continue as the surviving corporation in the Merger. The Merger Agreement also provides that, promptly following the completion of the Merger, Fidelity Savings Bank, a Pennsylvania state-chartered stock savings bank and a wholly owned subsidiary of Fidelity, will merge with and into WesBanco Bank, Inc., a West Virginia banking corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of WesBanco (the Bank Merger), with WesBanco Bank, Inc. continuing as the surviving bank in the Bank Merger.

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, WesBanco will exchange a combination of shares of its common stock and cash for all of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of Fidelity. Shareholders of Fidelity common stock will be entitled to receive 0.8275 (the Exchange Ratio) shares of WesBanco common stock, plus cash in the amount of $4.50 per share, for each share of Fidelity common stock in the exchange. The receipt by Fidelity shareholders of shares of WesBanco common stock in exchange for their shares of Fidelity common stock is anticipated to qualify as a tax-free exchange. Upon completion of the Merger, each outstanding vested and unvested stock option to acquire a share of Fidelity common stock that is outstanding immediately prior to the Merger will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive, on the terms and conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, an amount in cash equal to the excess, if any, of $22.50 over the per share exercise price under such stock option.

The Merger Agreement provides that each outstanding share of Fidelity s Fixed Rate Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, Series B (the Fidelity TARP Preferred), unless purchased or redeemed prior to the Merger, will be converted into the right to receive one share of WesBanco s preferred stock with substantially the same rights, powers and preferences as the Fidelity TARP Preferred. The outstanding warrant (the Fidelity TARP Warrant) to purchase Fidelity common stock, which was issued on December 12, 2008 to the United States Department of the Treasury, will be converted into the right to exercise the Fidelity TARP Warrant to acquire a combination of WesBanco common stock and cash, subject to appropriate adjustments to reflect the Exchange Ratio. Subject to the receipt of requisite regulatory approvals, the parties have agreed to use their reasonable best efforts to have the Fidelity TARP Preferred and, at the election of WesBanco, the Fidelity TARP Warrant, either purchased by WesBanco or one of its subsidiaries, or repurchased or redeemed by Fidelity, in each case prior to or upon consummation of the Merger.

Fidelity and WesBanco have made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement, including covenants made by Fidelity not to solicit alternative transactions or, subject to certain exceptions, to enter into discussions concerning, or provide confidential information in connection with, an alternative transaction. The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both WesBanco and Fidelity and further provides that, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances, Fidelity may be obligated to pay WesBanco a termination fee of $3,200,000.

After completion of the Merger, Richard G. Spencer, Fidelity s President and Chief Executive Officer, will be appointed to the Board of Directors of WesBanco. In addition, following the closing of the Merger, each other member of Fidelity s Board of Directors will be invited to serve on a newly-created WesBanco advisory board for the Greater Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania market.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to a number of customary conditions, including, but not limited to, the approval of the Merger Agreement by the shareholders of Fidelity and the receipt of required regulatory approvals. The transaction is expected to be completed late in the fourth quarter of 2012 or in early 2013.

As a condition to WesBanco s willingness to enter into the Merger Agreement, each of the directors and executive officers of Fidelity have entered into substantially identical voting agreements (each, a Voting Agreement) with WesBanco pursuant to which they have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the transaction. A form of the Voting Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.2 and is incorporated herein by reference.

A copy of the Merger Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and is incorporated herein by reference in its entirety. The foregoing summary of the Merger Agreement in this Item 1.01 is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Merger Agreement.
