Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

On October 9, 2014, Symantec Corporation (the Company) announced plans to separate into two, independent publicly traded companies: one business focused on security and one business focused on information management. The transaction is subject to certain conditions, including, among others, obtaining final approval from the Company's Board of Directors, the effectiveness of a Form 10 filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission and satisfying foreign regulatory requirements. Symantec issued a press release describing the plans entitled Symantec Announces New Strategy to Fuel Growth and Plans to Separate into Two Public Industry-Leading Technology Companies. The text of this press release is furnished herewith as Exhibit 99.01.

The information reported in this report, including the materials attached as Exhibits 99.1, shall not be deemed filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and shall not be deemed incorporated by reference into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.
