PART III

NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

CECO Environmental Corp. (the Company) has experienced unexpected delays in the filing of its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 (the Form 10-K) within the prescribed time period due to delays experienced in completing the Company's financial statements.

On March 5, 2015, the Company filed a Current Report on Form 8-K with the Securities and Exchange Commission that included an earnings release issued that same day reporting results for the fourth quarter of 2014, which was furnished as Exhibit 99.1 thereto (the Earnings Release). Between the issuance of the Earnings Release and the filing of this Annual Report on Form 10-K, the Company became aware of additional new information affecting its earlier estimates and assumptions. As a result, the Company recorded an income tax benefit of $0.7 million resulting in a decrease to overall tax expense and recorded a legal reserve, workers compensation and general administrative expenses of $0.7 million resulting in a decrease to income from operations and income before taxes for the year ended December 31, 2014. The net impact of these two adjustments had no impact on Net Income or Diluted Earnings per share as initially reported for the year ended December 31, 2014. The Company anticipates filing the Form 10-K as soon as practical.
