Driehaus Capital Management Issues Open Statement to Towers Watson Shareholders Following Earnings Announcement on November 2, 2015

CHICAGO, Ill., November 2, 2015 Driehaus Capital Management, a Chicago-based asset manager of funds beneficially owning 1,175,113 shares of Towers Watson & Company (NYSE: TW), has issued the open statement below to its fellow shareholders regarding TW's earnings announcement and its proposed transaction with Willis Holdings Group plc (NYSE: WSH).

November 2, 2015

Fellow Towers Watson & Company Shareholders,

Earlier today, Towers Watson reported strong earnings and robust top-line growth, handily beating expectations.

The report speaks to the impressive standalone prospects for Towers Watson and offers further evidence that the Willis proposal substantially undervalues TW shares. We are confident that the Willis proposal will be rejected unless terms are materially improved. We once again urge fellow shareholders to vote against this value-destructive deal.

Sincerely,

K.C. Nelson
