Item 2.02 Results of Operations and Financial Condition.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On February 29, 2016, NanoString Technologies, Inc. (NanoString or the Company) issued a press release reporting its financial results for the fourth quarter and full year of 2015. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference, except for the information set forth under the heading Outlook for 2016, which information is furnished herewith.

These financial results are based on management's analysis of operations for the quarter and year ended December 31, 2015 and are subject to the completion of the audit of the Company's financial statements by its independent registered public accounting firm. The Company expects to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015 on or before March 15, 2016.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On February 29, 2016, the Company issued a press release announcing it had entered into a collaboration agreement (the Agreement) with Merck Sharp & Dohme Corp., a subsidiary of Merck & Co., Inc. (Merck), to develop, seek regulatory approvals for, and commercialize a novel diagnostic assay to predict response to KEYTRUDA[®] (pembrolizumab), Merck's anti-PD-1 therapy. In connection with the execution of the Agreement, the Company and Merck terminated their existing clinical research collaboration and have moved all remaining activities under such clinical research collaboration work plan to the Agreement.

The Company will receive $12 million as an upfront technology access payment and is eligible to receive up to an additional $12 million for potential preclinical regulatory milestone payments. The Company is also eligible to receive additional milestone payments upon achievement of certain regulatory milestones. Merck is responsible for its own costs under the Agreement and will reimburse the Company for allowable development costs, including personnel related and overhead costs for Company employees assigned to the project, nCounter[®] systems and clinical study reagents, and reimbursement of other out-of-pocket costs. For the first two quarters of the development term, the Company's personnel related and overhead costs for employees assigned to the project are estimated to be up to $1.25 million. Following completion of the first two quarters of the development term, the Company's allowable development costs for a given calendar quarter must be agreed to in advance by a joint steering committee composed of representatives from both Merck and the Company which will oversee and coordinate the parties' activities under the Agreement. Development funding under the Agreement also includes up to approximately $3.7 million related to work under an extension of the parties' previous clinical research collaboration.

A copy of the press release announcing the Merck collaboration is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.2 and is incorporated herein by reference.
