In connection with his departure, Mr. Hook and the Company have entered into an Executive Departure Agreement, dated March 25, 2017, under which the parties have confirmed that Mr. Hook will continue to receive his existing salary and benefits through the date of the Company s 2017 Annual Meeting of Stockholders and will thereafter be entitled to the cash severance payment and other benefits set forth in Section 6.2 of his employment agreement with the Company, dated as of August 5, 2016. Mr. Hook will continue to be bound by the restrictive covenants contained in Sections 8.1 and 8.2 of his employment agreement following his departure.

Mr. Dziejdzic, age 48, has served as a director of the Company since February 2013 and was the Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of The Brink s Company from 2009 to 2016.
